"Fun With Dung" Is Just Wrong

First, let me go on record by saying that I am vehemently opposed to any festival that features poop.

Although this weekend's Lions Club Carnival in Fenwick, Ontario sounds like a lot of fun – a parade with a high school marching band, floats, midway rides, a chili cook-off – I will not be there. I will remain one county and a township away from Fenwick because the main feature of this festival is billed as the "Cow Plop Lottery – Go! Bessie! Go!"

You get the picture and no, it's not a pretty one. Instead of a starter's pistol or a checkered flag, the crowd will wait patiently for the silent call of nature to start the event. Bessie, an overweight bovine wearing sunglasses will roam a fenced-in pen sectioned off with lottery squares. Responding to the call, Bessie's tail will go up, a splat will be heard and some guy will shout "We got a winner!" Not exactly Vanna White turning over vowels or Yolanda Vega reading the numbers from the New York State Lottery on ping pong balls, but as they say in Fenwick "you dance with the one that dung ya."

Don't get me wrong, the Cow Plop Lottery sounds like a lot of fun even though Daddy receiving a fistful of cash because Bessie did a ginormous number two, might confuse the children. (It's quite a stretch from the money on the pillow left by the Tooth Fairy this time.) Problem: the last time I attended a scatological social event, I got some on me. Not 'on me' like they had to hose me down but ... well, it's personal. And the memory, which still haunts me, is crystal clear.

It was 19 years ago and a warm spring evening at the Welland Curling Club, a harrd 19 kilometers from the village of Fenwick. Hey! Is That Guy Dead Or Is He The Skip? had just been published with some controversy. It was not what you would call "the definitive book on the sport of curling." Some even disagreed with my description of our national pastime. "Essentially the game of curling involves you throwing a rock into a house, then your opponent throws a rock at your rock, rocks hit rocks, some rocks are taken out and at the end of an end, everybody gets their rocks off and they start all over again. It's a very social sport."

Apparently defenders of the great Canadian game took great exception to my claim that curling is the only game in the world you could play while being hooked up to a life-support system. My purpose in writing the book was simple. "Let's take the degrading and dehumanizing violence out of hockey and put it in curling, a sport that could really use a little action." Although the people with brooms were not happy, my publisher was thrilled. "Five thousand curlers bought this book," screamed the headline on the promotional sheet. And of course later, five thousand curlers burned it.

However this was before the curling community turned on me, so when the Welland Curling Club invited me to attend the first-ever William Thomas Bonspiel, I was naturally flattered and RSVP'ed "Yes!"

When the lights came up on the rink and a gentleman by the name of Gord Dandy was leading two waddling ducks to a large pen on the ice, I noticed the exact title of the event was the William Thomas Crapshoot Bonspiel. Instead of 32 participating curlers, the club had arranged 32 of my columns face-up in the pen where the ducks were now wandering around. Gord assured me that the ducks had eaten a lot lately. He also said he really liked my columns ... "highly absorbent" were the words he used.

I also noticed that the ducks were corked. Corks with strings attached had been utilized in such a way as to maximize the blast once they were removed in the pen and the ducks hovering over my columns.

I turned to the mayor of Welland who had experience in the dairy business.

"Could you actually do that?"

I asked incredulously. "Cork a duck!?"

"Hell yes," he said. "Me and the wife used to cork the kids all the time on long car trips."

I tried to leave at that point but the poopfest down on the ice was hitting its highlight reel. The person with the winning ticket on which one of my columns got splattered the most, got a cash reward. The couple holding the ticket on the column on which a duck had delivered a direct hit to my photo at the top ... they won the bonus of a weekend at the Chelsea Inn in Toronto.

And I got ... I got to see how a sampling of my life's work served as two-ply toilet paper. So no, I won't be attending "Fenwick's Fabulous Carnival" this weekend. "Fun With Dung" only works if you're not the one who gets the wrong end of the stick.

I still have bad dreams about the ducks, but the thought of my photo looking up from under the udder of "Go! Bessie! Go!" is not the kind of public distinction I had hoped to achieve in my career. And yes, it only takes one good "splat" to remind me - everybody's a critic.

Members of Local Law Enforcement Join Forces for Special Olympics

By Chloe Kneer - Members of the Espanola Police Service and the Espanola and Sudbury OPP detachments volunteered their time to raise money and awareness for Special Olympics on Friday of the May long weekend. The voluntary tolls that took place at the corner of Highways 6 and 17 in McKerrow and in the town of Espanola are the precursor to the Ontario Law Enforcement Torch Run for Special Olympics. The Ontario Law Enforcement Torch Run is a community-based, province-wide event that sees the "Flame of Hope" carried across Ontario by members of law enforcement agencies from across the province. The Law Enforcement Torch Run has grown into the most important fund raising effort of Special Olympics programs around the world. All funds raised through Ontario Law Enforcement Torch Run events are directed into program support that directly affects all community Special Olympic Ontario programs. Funds are then put into community programs and help pay for various expenses including: games travel, accommodations, meals, staff support to the field, grants to new community programs, volunteer and athlete training, administration and information/promotional materials and development initiatives like the 'School Program' which opens up opportunities to new athletes. The development of Special Olympics Ontario is directly related to the success of the Torch Run.

The Torch Run will be held June 5 in Espanola and Massey. The Special Olympics will begin July 11 and are being hosted by the York Regional Police Service this year. For more information, go to www.torchrunontario.com. To donate locally to Special Olympics, contact Constable Ed Stortz, Espanola Police Service, 705-869-3251.

it's in you to give

Espanola - Canadian Blood Services is asking Espanola and area residents to consider donating blood to help ensure an adequate supply for Canadian hospital patients in need. Please bring a friend or family member and donate.

Our next clinic takes place at the Knights of Columbus Hall Thursday, May 30th from 11:30 a.m. - 2:30 p.m. & 4:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m.

- Up to 8 donors a week to help someone with leukemia
- Up to 50 donors to help someone in a car accident
- Up to 2 donors to help someone who needs brain surgery
- Up to 5 donors to save someone who needs cardiovascular surgery
- Up to 2 to 8 donors to help someone with internal bleeding
- Up to 2 donors a day to help someone undergoing a bone marrow transplant

To book an appointment and help meet the continuing need for blood, please visit on-line at www.blood.ca or call 1 888 2 DONATE (1 888 236 6283). If you already have an appointment, thank you, and we urge you to honour it.

Recipe

I'm always asked if I actually make the recipes I post in my column and the truth is 85% of the time I do. On occasion, I post recipes that have been highly recommended by friends or readers or I put in a recipe that looks delicious and I want to try.

In all honesty, I haven't made this dip yet but I plan on making it this upcoming weekend when I visit my sister and family. The reviews on it were great. Avocados are a favourite of mine. I love them made into guacamole, diced into salads or eaten fresh with a sprinkle of lemon juice and salt. With the avocados, and other traditional Mexican dip ingredients this recipe just has to be good! (I may add a splash of lemon juice to keep the avocado a nice colour)

Creamy Avocado Dip

- 2 avocados; halved, seeded and scooped
- 1 1/2 cups sour cream
- 1 teaspoon cumin
- 1/2 teaspoon hot sauce
- 3/4 cup chunky salsa
- 3/4 cup shredded mild cheddar cheese; divided use
- 3/4 cup chopped tomato; divided use
- salt and pepper to taste
- fresh cilantro for garnish

In a large bowl, mash avocados with a fork or potato masher. In a small bowl, stir together the sour cream, cumin and hot sauce. Fold sour cream mixture and salsa into the mashed avocados. Add in 1/2 cup cheese and 1/2 cup tomato, season with salt and pepper; mix well. Cover mixture; chill 1 hour. Before serving sprinkle remaining cheese and tomatoes over dip. Garnish with cilantro. Serve with chips.

Kids Korner

Robins are one of the first birds to arrive in spring and happily hop along on front lawns searching for a meal of worms. Here's a fun, easy craft to celebrate the arrival of these happy little birds and the nice weather.

Rockin Robin

- Blue cardstock or other stiff paper (cereal box)
- Blue paint and paint brush (if painting)
- Scissors
- Yellow cardstock or construction paper (for beak)
- Brown or your colour choice of cardstock or construction paper (for tail feathers)
- Red and orange tissue paper
- Googly eye
- Glue

Cut a circle out of blue cardstock or a cereal box and paint it blue. Fold your circle in half and press along the crease. Glue crumpled pieces of red or orange tissue paper onto the robin's tummy. Glue a googly eye, and a yellow triangle beak to the bird's face. Cut a few tail feathers from the cardstock or paper and glue onto the bird's behind (feathers can also be used). When you set your robin on a flat surface, and give it a little tap, it will "rock".

Over the course of the last few months we have been providing information to you, the taxpayers of Espanola, about how your tax dollars are used. Some of this information is taken directly from the Freedom of Information requests that have been filed for 2012 and January 2013 and has been placed on our website espanolacitizensgroup.ca under TRANSPARENCY as well as published in Around & About. When we requested the Cheque register for February 2013 we received the following reply, and I quote: "... the Town of Espanola's cheque registry for the period of February 1 to February 28, 2013, access is denied to these cheque registers under section 4(1) of the Act. This provision applies to the records as it is the head's opinion that the request for access is frivolous and vexatious". The reason for the refusal is based on an opinion that we argue is not valid. This is public information and the public have every right to it.

We are charged $7.50 for every 15 min. of research/compilation time and $0.20/page for xeroxing of the material.

Any information which has been disseminated by us is strictly factual and taken directly from the material received as a result of filing the FOI. We make no assumptions nor do we express any opinions...we simply provide you a knowledge base for interested residents on how tax dollars are used.

We have appealed the decision by the Clerk Treasurer/Administrator to the Information and Privacy Commissioner/Ontario and are awaiting a response.

We will inform you of the response once it has been received.
