Espanola Royal Canadian Legion Hosts Honours And Awards Night

Haegeman, and a 60-year pin to Comrade Blaise Mackenzie. Among other awards presented was a Life Membership to Sergeant at Arms Comrade Don Arbour for his support and dedication to the branch - only the second time such an award has been presented in the history of Branch 39. One other special award was initiated by the children of Comrade Don Arbour and presented by MP Carol Hughes and MPP Mike Mantha to Branch 39 President Gary MacPherson to formally recognized his efforts saving the life of Comrade Don after he had suffered a heart attack while at the Branch 39 office. Community partners were also presented with certificates and awards.

In "It's A Good Life", Clarence "Earned His Wings" By Saving George Peabody.

By Grant Lewis - Agnes Michon has earned her wings and more by making Christmas brighter and happier for thousands of local kids. For the past three decades, Agnes bought, restored, repaired, repainted and wrapped thousands of toys for the Espanola Lions Club annual Toy Drive. She was tireless. One Christmas drive would be over and she moved on to the next one literally the next day. Her entire house, and I mean entire, was a testament to the meaning of Christmas. Agnes is Latin for lamb but Agnes Michon was truly a Lion! Our club motto is

"We Serve", and Agnes did indeed serve. She served her family, her community, her friends, her Church and our Lions club. I had the pleasure of meeting Agnes about 17 years ago when Paul Zahorec asked me if I would like to visit Mrs. Santa Claus. No problem..maybe half an hour to pack up a few gifts! Two hours later and one truck AND car full of gifts, we finally said goodbye. This included countless plates of Christmas baking for ourselves and for the volunteer wrappers waiting at the Pinewood. Since then many Lions club members have enjoyed her exuberance and hospitality. Agnes was humble yet proud of all her effort and time. After all, everything she did on behalf of our club was "for the kids".

Our sincerest condolences to the Michon family on her passing. She was an inspiration, an example of selfless service, a light, a lamb that "roared". She truly has "earned her wings" and more. Rest In Peace Agnes Michon.

Do You Know What It Could Be?

The Espanola Lions Club made a donation recently for a yet-to-be-revealed project. Lions' spokesperson Grant Lewis says members of Mr. Keresztesi's construction class, Espanola High School administration, hospital personnel, and Specialist High Skills Major representatives were on hand to receive a cheque for $3,000 from Lions President, Dennis Shepitka. But what is it for? Lewis says more information will follow on this 'intriguing' and 'wonderful' project.

Dragnet's Cold Case Files: Port Colborne's Water

It's been fourteen years since Port Colborne announced that the city has been losing over a half a million dollars a year in water that just kinda disappeared. Apparently it is still going on, albeit a lot less. Only recently have city officials been successful in locating and repairing the undetected leaks. Way back then I covered the case of the missing water, not as a reporter but as Sargent Joe Friday of Dragnet, TV's first great cop show.

Announcer: "The story you're about to read is true. Only the names have been changed to protect the innocent." (Music: Dum-de-dum-dum.)

Friday: "You're an overworked detective working robbery and you think you've seen it all. That is, until the City of Port Colborne discovers $630,000 worth of clean drinking water has gone missing every year for the past decade. You're a cop. Your job? Find the damn water. (Dum-de-dum-dum.)"

"It was hot for October and we were working the day watch out of Lidsville when we got the call about the Port's missing water. Last week a 200 lb. concrete statue of a deer disappeared. Then a valuable coin collection. Finally the mayor's assortment of blue suede shoes . . . now water. This town loses more weird stuff than the absentminded caretaker at Michael Jackson's Neverland Ranch. (Dum-de-dum-dum.)"

"It was two in the afternoon by the time my partner, Frank Smith and I reached the mayor's office at city hall. The mayor and his director of operations were sitting with their feet up on a desk watching a documentary on Niagara Falls."

"Sorry," said the mayor, turning off the TV, "but we're kinda envious."

"How much water is missing?"

"Thirty percent every year," said the mayor.

"A couple million dollars so far."

"Any clues?"

"We've looked everywhere—the lake, the canal, the weir. Oh there's water there alright, but it's not ours."

"Water, water everywhere," said Frank, "but nary a drop to drink."

"Frank, just shut up. Okay? Now Mr. Mayor, what other steps have you taken to locate the missing water?"

"Well, we put a picture of water on all the local milk cartons. We even consulted a psychic."

"And?"

"She said I was probably good for one more term but after that I better find a real job."

"Water seeks its own level," said Frank. "Go slow, think low and then you'll know."

"Frank, I won't tell you again. Shut the hell up! Mr. Mayor, do you have any enemies? Maybe another mayor who's jealous of the unique way you've developed that prime property across from West Street with piles of gypsum, sand and gravel and tarps held down by rubber tires?"

"No."

"What about a big guy with tattoos," said Frank, "with a really big truck who's smuggling water into the Mojave Desert and . . ."

"Frank. I've got a gun. I'll use it if I have to."

"One last question, Mr. Mayor, why are you two wearing snorkeling equipment?"

"Well what if the water comes back, you know, like all at once? (Dum-de-dum-dum.)"

"When we interviewed a few locals about the missing water, a hefty guy who washes windows downtown said: "Search me!" So we did. Mostly candy bars, a can of mace and strangely enough, a pair of blue suede shoes.”

“One guy said it was Dunnville stealing Port’s water. ‘Those people got nothin’ better to do.’ A feisty woman selling used lottery tickets in front of Walter’s Restaurant — which is owned by a guy named Paul and run by a guy named Nick — blamed Welland. ‘Those people will steal anything,’ she said. ‘They stole Bob Izumi’s boat you know.’”
“The guy at the liquor store was convinced Wainfleet was stealing Port Colborne’s water. ‘Figure it out. They don’t have water and we do,’ he said. That guy who runs Sunshine Water & Trucking looks suspicious to me.”
“We checked him out.”
“Been a really humid summer. Maybe it evaporated,” he said.
“Nothing,” said Frank, “worth several million dollars evaporates unless the Liberal Party of Canada is involved.”
“I fired a warning shot over Frank’s head, accidentally putting a hole in the Sunshine truck. When we left, the truck’s owner, Greg, was sitting on the back bumper with his finger plugging the hole.”

“My partner Frank suggested it might be attributed to global warming which was causing deep, dry ruts to form in the earth’s natural infrastructure thus leeching off Port Colborne’s water supply into the underground aquifer. I shot him in the leg. I hate it when he uses big words.”
“It was after three o’clock when I dropped Frank off at Emergency and returned to the station with chicken-in-the-basket from the Belmont Hotel. When I opened the box the chicken jumped out. But the fries and the coleslaw were quite good. I went to the tap in the back of the station for a glass of water and... only air came out.”
I burned the case file and drove to Welland believing I had a better chance of finding Bob Izumi’s boat.

Recipe

If I was going to be left stranded on a deserted Island and could pick one thing to take with me, it might possibly be a jar of peanut butter. Probably having something to make fire would be a better choice; it would be a difficult decision. I love anything and everything with peanut butter in it. Add chocolate to the equation and I’m sold. This recipe has 5 simple ingredients and only takes 10 minutes to make. It’s almost too easy, for when you’re having a craving. It can also be cut into squares and frozen to add to holiday cookie trays.

No Bake Peanut Butter Bars

- 3/4 cup butter melted
- 2 cup graham crackers crushed
- 2 cup powdered sugar
- 1 1/4 cup creamy peanut butter
- 3 tbsp creamy peanut butter
- 2 1/2 cup semi-sweet chocolate chips

Line a 9x9 baking dish with parchment paper, set aside. Using either a stand mixer or a hand held mixer, combine the melted butter, powdered sugar and graham crackers. Mix in the 1 1/4 cup of creamy peanut butter, just until well incorporated. Evenly spread the peanut butter mixture into the bottom of the baking dish. In a heat safe bowl, add the semi-sweet chocolate chips and the remaining 3 tablespoons creamy peanut butter. Heat for 30 second intervals, stirring well after each interval until the peanut butter and chocolate are smooth. Spread the chocolate mixture over the peanut butter base. Cut servings before you put the bars into the refrigerator. (The bars cut much easier this way). Chill the bars for 1 hour. Let the bars sit 10 to 15 minutes, at room temperature, before serving. Store in the fridge or can be frozen.

Adam Desmoker - Our family is grieving the unexpected and untimely loss of Adam Desmoker, born July 26th, 1990. The youngest child of Penny Desmoker, Adam passed away October 19th 2021 at the age of 31. He is survived by his mother Penny, and most regretfully his three children that he loved without bounds: Aria, Emmanuel and Lincoln. Adam is also leaving behind his siblings; Traci Sauder (Paul), Jennifer Breault, Darwin Desmoker (Anna) and Sheila, and his beloved nieces and nephews Allyson, Benjamin (Ashley), Damien, and Danika (Damon). Adam will be sadly missed by those who knew him – he was a force of nature in life. Adam was a hard worker who had big ideas and an even bigger personality, with an underlying layer of softness that not every person was granted access to. Adam loved animals and throughout his life, took care of many different types; from cats and dogs to lizards—and he even took care of injured birds and turtles as a child. Adam was well known for being social and having fun, and he enjoyed the outdoors as well as music and movies. Adam is now at peace and reunited with late family members that we can guarantee have opened their arms to care for him in the afterlife. A grave site celebration of life will be held at a later date. Arrangements by BOURCIER FUNERAL HOME Ltd, Espanola Michon, Agnès (née St. Jules) 1939 – 2021. It is with heavy hearts that the family announces her peaceful death at home in McKerrow with family by her side on Tuesday, October 19, 2021, at the age of 81 years. Daughter of the late René and Geneviève (née Turmaine) St. Jules. Agnès is now reunited with her beloved husband Jean. (Kerry). She is survived by her brothers Francis (late Jeannette) (Janet), Ronald (late Marie-Rose), Marcel (Connie) and Denis (Carmen). Predeceased by her brother Raymond. Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by her eighteen grandchildren and sixteen great-grandchildren. Agnès was better known as Mrs. Claus to the people of McKerrow and area. She lived and breathed Christmas year-round! For many years she refurbished and donated toys to the Espanola Lion’s Club Toy Drive. A proud moment for her was receiving the “key” to the town of McKerrow from Mayor Vern Gorham at an official ceremony held at the town hall. Agnès was an avid seamstress, quilter, and loved to crochet blankets which she donated to the Maison McCulloch Hospice. She was an active member of the CWL (Catholic Women’s League) at St. Jude’s Parish and of the FFCF (Fédération des femmes canadiennes-française) of Espanola. Many parish priests would be welcomed in her home to share a meal, fellowship, and heartwarming stories. Thank you to Dr. Knox, Dr. Cano, the PSWs and nurses from Palliative Care and all the support of family and friends from near and far. Thank you for the prayers and thank you to Fr. Gilles Grandmont for taking the time to visit mom and doing the special blessings. A funeral mass was celebrated on Monday, October 25, 2021, at 11:00 a.m. at St. Jukes’s Church, Espanola (masks are mandatory), followed by interment in the family plot at the Espanola Cemetery. Donations to the Espanola Lion’s Club would be appreciated. Cremation services entrusted to Simple Wishes of the North, Sudbury.
