 Board Planning Big
 Changes in Espanola

Photo: The current Espanola High School might soon be the site for both the high school and A.B. Ellis Public School.

By Chloe Kneer - At their board meeting held July 2, the Rainbow District School Board approved a balanced budget of $172 million for the upcoming school year. Board Chair Doreen Dewar said, "The Board significantly reduced its ongoing expenditures in recent years. These savings, coupled with the declining enrolment grant that we received this year, enabled us to align our expenditures to meet our revenue." Rainbow District School Board continues to experience declining enrolment, resulting in less revenue for programs and services. While the Board has received $1.6 million to mitigate the loss, total provincial grants have decreased by $3.6 million or 2 per cent overall. Projected enrolment for September is expected to total 13,453 students, an overall reduction of 558. In line with

America - "Give Me Your Tired, Your Poor,
 and Some of That Zigzag Rollin Paper"

The "Go Big Or Go Home" country called America is about to become "Stoner Nation." Leonard Cohen's prediction unfulfilled, democracy may not be coming to the U.S.A. any time soon but marijuana sure is. And it will hit the streets in legal form sooner, bigger and bolder than anyone ever envisioned. Take the will of the majority of Washington State voters who legalized it, add the brains and $100 million investment of former Microsoft manager Jamen Shively, throw in the political power of Vincente Fox, the former president of Mexico and you can almost smell the skunky stink of five-foot cannabis plants blowing out of the northwest. All of the above have come out strongly in recent weeks championing a corporate distribution brand called "Big Marijuana."

Using logical arguments involving a $2 billion state tax grab over five years, the saving of tens of millions of dollars to fight the illegal drug trade and the elimination of the violence and killings of 6,000 Mexicans each year at the hands of the drug cartel and yeah - Wacky Tabacky Inc. is on its way.

Even actor Patrick Dempsey who plays that McDreamy guy on "Grey's Anatomy" has jumped into the race to mellow out the Evergreen State. Dempsey is about to close the deal to purchase a Seattle coffee chain called Tully's. "There's a business model there," he says. "A Michelin-starred coffee shop where you can get marijuana." It's hard to dismiss the opinion of a man who actually has played a doctor on TV.

Yes, in the not-so-distant future, Americans will be able to get stoned in classy cafes and seaside bistros instead of having to go over to Woody Harrelson's house all the time.

But have they really thought this thing through?

First of all, somebody owes an apology to the tobacco industry. After agreeing to pay $246 billion in fines to states for poisoning their people's vital organs, are the big cigarette manufacturer's about to be told that if they had laced their product with THC instead of nicotine there would not have been a problem?!? Plus the drinking and driving lectures to the teenagers gets an extra sentence or two.

"Jimmy, if you have a drink, you're not taking the car. If you do a joint, you're not even taking the skateboard."

Washington, D.C, will no doubt jump into the legalization debate and hopefully experimentation will be a necessary part of the process. A little pot smoking in the capital could only improve federal politics at this point.

"Ah, Congressman Boehner, are you aware at this very moment the Obama administration is ramming through legalization in the house that would double the cost of health care, triple the federal budget and shut down the National Rifle Association?"

"Yeah, whatever. Man, have you seen the ears on that dude? Seriously, that's a pickup truck comin' at you with the front doors open."

Comedian Bill Maher claims that senators and congressional representatives passing around a joint will never happen because in Washington, D.C. they flatly refuse to pass anything.

Colorado has also legalized the use of non-medical marijuana and Governor John Hickenlooper has signed the bill into law. Colorado's state song "Where The Columbines Grow" is currently being changed to "Where The Columbian Gold Grows." Whereas the 16 states that have decriminalized marijuana (with eight more on the way) have not come up with a test for people driving under the influence of marijuana, Colorado has. State and local police will simply pull over drivers suspected of being stoned and ask them to say the word "Hickenlooper" three times fast. Colorado's new tourism motto: "Come for the hiking and the skiing, stay because you can't find your car."

Research has shown that there are far more drinking and driving people on the roads than those that toked and drive but in fairness most of those stoned drivers are trapped in fast food drive-thrus all over America.

The rush of "Big Marijuana" is coming so fast the University of California has announced that it will establish a marijuana research centre. Residents living close to that institution have always believed the University of California was a marijuana research centre.

Strangely, California with its massive illegal grow-ups was not one of the states to legalize the sale of marijuana. State legislators expected a landslide vote to pass the cannabis bill. In fairness, 27 million pro-marijuana voters did show up at the polls ... three days after the election.

Strange, in Canada we still can't buy a can of beer in a convenience store but soon half of all Americans will be able to buy a pack of "Frank Sinatra Doobie, Doobie, Doos" at 7-Eleven. In Canada we're still waiting for "Big Beer" distribution.

America - "In God We Trust." "In weed we, ah, what? Where was I? Did you say cheesecake? I thought you said snowflake which is why I've been laughing since late last night. Either way, I'm in."

Should You Insure Your Boat?

(NC)—Though boating insurance isn't mandatory in Canada, owners may still want to consider the benefits. Good coverage protects both the boat operator from liability, as well as the vessel should there be an incident. "Boat owners may not be aware that insurance protects not only their boat, but it also covers them if they are sued for damages in a boating incident," says John Jenner, vice-president of marketing and communications at Western Financial Group. "All it takes is a strong wind or a small mistake at a crowded dock for there to be an accident." Although it is possible, Jenner continued, to insure your boat under a home insurance policy, this might not be the best choice for avid boaters. The coverage will likely be low and any claim will influence your future home insurance rates. To focus on the fun without risk, boat owners are advised to take a good look at their insurance policy to make sure they are protected sufficiently.

efforts to keep expenses under control, the school board also approved a recommendation that Espanola's A.B. Ellis Public School be relocated to Espanola High School by September 2014. The recommendation stemmed from the intention of the Conseil scolaire catholique du Nouvel-Ontario to vacate the 12,719 square feet of space it currently leases at the site. "The utilization of Espanola High School will drop 43% in the next five years," said Director of Education Norm Blaseg. "We're really trying to maximize our space and moving A.B. Ellis to the high school will increase the use to 85-90%. It makes more sense, and our hope is also that students will benefit from a shared cafeteria, having a larger gym, and shops for the grade 7 and 8 students." The schools would remain completely separate from each other, with A.B. Ellis continuing as a JK – grade 8, and the high school grades 9 – 12. "A review of the school site has been completed, and it could accommodate two distinct schools," Blaseg added. As for the fate of the current A.B. Ellis school site, Blaseg says it would be offered to the other school boards for use first, under a Ministry of Education agreement. If no other board steps forward to claim the site, it will be available for other government-run institutions. Failing that, the property would be put up for sale as surplus property to the board. The Ministry of Education must approve the plan before going forward, and Blaseg expects to have a final decision by the end of the summer. A public information session is set for September 19 at Espanola High School at 7:00 p.m. to explain the board's vision to the community.

Espanola Police Report

On June 15, 2013 at 3:35 am, the Espanola Police Service received a complaint that an 18-year old male sexually assaulted a 16-year old female at knife-point. Upon receiving the complaint, the Espanola Police Service entered into a Criminal Investigation, and learned that the female had attended a residence in Espanola with the male, and soon thereafter, the male began to make unwanted sexual advances towards her. When the female resisted his advances and attempted to leave, the male held a knife to her neck, and confined her in the home, sexually assaulting her. Following the assault, the male escorted the female from the home, but prior to allowing her to leave, he threatened to kill her if she told anyone what had happened. As a result of the investigation, 18-year old Jordan Lacosse of Espanola was arrested on June 16, 2013, and charged with Sexual Assault with a Weapon, Forcible Confinement, two counts of Utter Death Threats, and two counts of Breach of Recognizance, as it was discovered that at the time of the offence he was bound by conditions of a Recognizance. The accused was held in custody, and appeared in Bail Court in Sudbury on June 17, 2013.

On June 12, 2013 at 2:23 am, the Espanola Police Service received a 911 call from a resident of Secord Street, Espanola, regarding a Break and Enter that had just occurred at her residence. Upon arrival, police discovered that an 18-year old male who is known to the caller's son, had entered the home through an unlocked first floor window, and while he was searching a bedroom for valuables, her son confronted him, and a struggle ensued, causing damage to items inside the bedroom. The 18-year old intruder, identified as Christopher Daoust of McKerrow, managed to exit the home through the front door of the residence, and evaded police. Later, Daoust turned himself into the Espanola Police Service, and was charged with Break, Enter and Theft, contrary to section 348 (1)(b) of the Criminal Code, and Mischief Under $5000.00, contrary to section 430 (4) of the Criminal Code. The accused was released, and is to appear in Espanola court on the September 3, 2013 to answer to his charge.

On June 10, 2013, a member of the Espanola Police Service, assisted by a member of the O.P.P. Community Drug Action Team, stopped a motor vehicle on Centre Street at Gray Street, Espanola, and having grounds to believe that the two female occupants were in possession of a controlled substance, arrested the occupants and searched the occupants and vehicle incident to arrest. As a result of the search, 27-year old Danette Brandow of Espanola, and 20-year old Stevie Elliot of McKerrow were found to be in possession of 3 Codeine pills, 15 Methamphetamine pills, and a small amount of Cannabis-Marihuana valued at $480.00. Based on the findings, the two were charged with one count each of Possession for the Purposes of Trafficking in a Controlled Substance, contrary to section 5 (2) of the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act, and two counts of Possession of a Controlled Substance, contrary to section 4 (1) of the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act. The accused are to appear in Espanola Court on the July 2, 2013 to answer to their charges. At the time of their arrest, the accused had two infant children in the vehicle, which upon conviction, qualifies them for mandatory minimum sentences under the act.

On June 4, 2013, a member of the Espanola Police Service, assisted by a member of the O.P.P. Community Drug Action Team, stopped a motor vehicle on Centre Street at Tudhope Street, Espanola, and having grounds to believe that the male occupants were in possession of a controlled substance, arrested the occupants and searched the occupants and vehicle incident to arrest. As a result of the search, 29-year old Christian Gauvin, and 28-year old Sean Roque, both of Espanola, were found to be in possession of a small quantity of Cannabis-Marihuana valued at $45.00. Based on the findings, the two were charged with one count each of Possession of a Controlled Substance, contrary to section 4 (1) of the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act. Further, Gauvin was charged with Breach of Probation, contrary to section 733.1 (1) of the Criminal Code, as it was discovered that at the time of the occurrence, he was bound by a Probation Order to Keep the Peace and Be of Good Behaviour. The accused are to appear in Espanola Court on the July 2, 2013 to answer to their charges.

Recipe

I was craving something sweet last week and decided to try this recipe. The picture of cinnamon sugar crusted morsels was too tempting to ignore. I made them in the evening and they were gone by lunch time the next day, so I would say the family liked them. They are a good substitute for a doughnut and you don't have to go to all the effort and mess of frying them.

Scrumptious Baked Cinnamon Breakfast Bites

- 1-1/3 cups all-purpose flour
- 1 cup crisp rice cereal, coarsely crushed
- 2 tablespoons plus 1/2 cup sugar, divided
- 3 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 cup butter-flavored shortening
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 1/4 cup butter, melted

Mix flour, crushed cereal, 2 tablespoons sugar, baking powder and salt in large bowl. Cut in shortening with pastry blender or fork until the mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Add milk and stir just until moistened. Roll dough into approximately 2 1/2 dozen 1 inch balls. Mix cinnamon and remaining sugar in a small bowl. Drop balls into melted butter and roll in cinnamon sugar mixture. Place balls onto greased 8 or 9 inch round pan. Bake at 425 degrees for 15-18 minutes or until inserted toothpick comes out clean. Cool for a few minutes in pan on wire rack before removing. If you are looking for a perfectly rounded ball, try using a cookie sheet or jelly roll pan because they will bake together.

Kids Korner

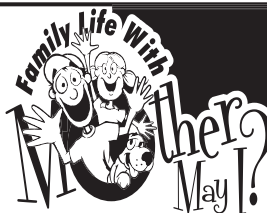

Toilet Paper Roll Snake

- 6 toilet paper rolls
- green, yellow, and blue washable paint
- paint brush
- 2 pipe cleaners
- scissors
- school glue
- 2 google eyes
- 1 small piece of red or orange ribbon, fabric, or felt

Paint the the toilet paper tubes either in solid colours or cool snake patterns. Let tubes dry completely. When dry, cut the ends of the tubes into points. Use the tip of your scissors to poke holes in the ends of each tube (except the 2 for the ends of the snake- those only need holes on one end.) Stick a pipe-cleaner through the holes and fold the ends back to make right-angles. Clip off the extra pipe-cleaner (leaving at least 1/4" folded over). Glue on some googly eyes and add a ribbon tongue.

La Cloche Art Show Open
Until July 14 in Whitefish Falls

La Cloche Art Show

There was something for everyone in Whitefish Falls this past weekend with the opening of the 36th annual La Cloche Art Show and the festivities at the Willisville/Whitefish Falls Volunteer Fire Department Open House.

The Fire Department's Open House included displays and demonstrations by the MNR, the OPP, North Shore Search and Rescue, Emergency Medical Services and the Fire Department. There were children's games and handouts along with a BBQ and yard sale in the park.

This year the La Cloche Art Show has an exceptional group of talented local and international artists who have captured their subject matter in painting and photography. Visitors will enjoy the exhibition, the sale of art, and, of course, the beautiful La Cloche scenery.

Brigitte Bere, the 2013 Distinguished Artist, is well known for her exquisitely handcrafted marionettes. Those characters come from her vivid imagination, rich with fairy folklore and mystical adventure. Now, Brigitte works in a variety of media such as watercolour, acrylic and fluid acrylic, pastel, print making, wax resist, needle felting, encaustic, collage and sculpture with a passion for colour and drama. She always looks for the unusual in her subject matter. Brigitte will have a special exhibit of her art on display.

This is a juried show and sale with work in various media including oil, acrylic, pencil, watercolour, pastel, mixed media, photography and sculpture. Subject matter is varied and it will include art showcasing the La Cloche area made famous by Canada's Group of 7.

A warm welcome is extended to everyone to come and visit the show and the beautiful La Cloche area. There is no admission fee to the show and doors are open daily through July to 14 from 11:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. For additional information visit
