First Annual "Pink in the Rink" Brings Community Out to Support Causes

By Chloe Kneer - The Espanola Regional Recreation Complex was awash in pink for the Rivermen's first annual "Pink in the Rink" hockey game Friday, November 1. The night was the idea of breast cancer survivor/Rivermen office administrator Denise Gelineau. There were special treats to buy for a donation (pink cupcakes) and a silent auction for which Rivermen fans could bid on pink jerseys worn by the team during the game. All proceeds will go for prosthetics and prosthetic bras for local breast cancer survivors who need financial support.

Also on hand for the game were Terri Noble and Michael Dunn from the Espanola Regional Hospital Foundation. Rivermen players presented the foundation with a check in the amount of $2013 towards a mobile cardiac monitoring system for the hospital. The Rivermen have been donating $100 of every season ticket sold towards the much-needed cardiac monitoring system. The night was a success not only for the hospital foundation and the breast cancer fund-raiser, but also for the Rivermen, who bested the Abitibi Eskimos 5-3 in an exciting, fast-paced game. Pictures are on page three.

You Know You're From Wainfleet If ...

I didn't want to do it, I really didn't want to do it, you made me ... No, not you. Former advertising genius and now a Fleeter, Wayne Hughes sent me an email yesterday that read: "You know you're from Wainfleet if you notice all the recycled cans have bullet holes in them." No, not this year I said to myself. The hay has been bailed, the cottages closed up and the Mounties reported one of the best grow-op crops in history as they were burning it to the ground. The big pipe is long dead and septic holding tanks are popping up like tulips in the spring. The illegal Saturday night fireworks are gone, the perch are big and plentiful and our one and only traffic light is performing flawlessly. The people are content, I said to myself, why get them all riled with that stupid "You know you're from Wainfleet if ..." column. And then I saw a guy stopped at the end of my driveway, in a car ten years newer than mine and he was going through my recycle box picking out the refundable wine bottles. And I said, why not?

- You know you're from Wainfleet if you wish Rob Ford was your mayor instead of that woman who's "way too goody two-shoes" to binge drink and smoke crack.
- You know you're from Wainfleet if after you won the Father & Son Grand Ole Opry Weekend, you had to dig up Dad.
- You know you're from Wainfleet if you convinced your wife to subscribe to Chatelaine so you could get Bowhunter Monthly free.

- You know you're from Wainfleet if you like walking around the pup tents at the Long Beach campgrounds just to pet the dogs.
- You know you're from Wainfleet if you were arrested for drunk driving as the lead rider on the Heart & Stroke Foundation Big Bike.
- You know you're from Wainfleet if you firmly believe your sons should get those farm jobs going to immigrant workers, just as soon as they're out on parole.
- You know you're from Wainfleet if the bottle collection on the shelves of your garage double as a shooting range.
- You know you're from Wainfleet if you're much more comfortable attending the new church on the highway where they've got it down to six commandments.
- You know you're from Wainfleet if you bring your own shopping cart to Marshville Chocolates.
- You know you're from Wainfleet if you believe lite beer was invented for guys with bad backs.
- You know you're from Wainfleet if you forbid your daughter to attend Toronto's SlutWalk and took her to Humberstone Speedway instead.
- You know you're from Wainfleet if you keep three pet chickens on the back porch named Mild, Medium and Suicide.
- You know you're from Wainfleet if you have a tattoo in a place where even the embalmer at Davidson's probably won't

- You know you're from Wainfleet if you have a photo of yourself eating a Bacon Sundae at Nashville's Grilled Cheeserie.

- You know you're from Wainfleet if you demanded your money back at the Elvis Forever Concert when you found out they were using an impersonator.

- You know you're from Wainfleet if you notice the teller at Cash & Loan is dressed as a pirate for Halloween and nobody notices the irony.

- You know you're from Wainfleet if you destroyed 40 acres of feed corn by misreading Burn The Koran Day.

And finally, you know you're from Wainfleet if you were as proud as punch that the twins came in second in the school Halloween costume contest, one dressed as a tube of Preparation H and the other dressed as Johnny Cash and singing "Ring Of Fire."

Gordon P. Bois has released his seventh and quite possibly his final book of poetry. In "The Washboard Effect," Bois chose to revisit the third person narrative. When asked why, Bois

Staying Safe on the Roads as Winter Approaches

Now that the colder weather is upon us the OPP is cautioning motorists on the increased incidents of wildlife collisions on area highways. Collisions with wild animals can result in serious vehicle damage, personal injury or even death. The OPP reports that they are responding to an average of at least one motor vehicle collision involving wildlife per day.

They caution motorists to remember that wild animals are unpredictable at all times so always be on the watch. Police advise to:

Watch:

- Scan the road ahead from shoulder to shoulder. When you see wildlife beside the road, slow down and pass carefully as they may suddenly bolt onto the road.

- Watch for the yellow wildlife warning signs that indicate an area of increased risk. Slow down when travelling through these areas.

- Use high beams at night where possible and watch for glowing eyes of animals.

Steer:

- Stay in control. Watch your speed and take extra precautions when driving at night as visibility is greatly reduced. Slowing down will give you that extra second to respond.

- Never swerve suddenly. This could cause your vehicle to go out of control or head into oncoming traffic.

Brake:

- Brake firmly if an animal is standing on, or crossing, the road. Never assume the animal will move out of your way.

Stop:

- Stop as safely as possible if a wild animal is crossing the road. Remember, if one animal crosses the road, others may follow.

If possible, avoid driving during dusk or dawn when most wildlife collisions occur. Swerving to avoid hitting a wild animal may result in a more serious collision. If hitting a wild animal is unavoidable, remember to stay in control ... Watch, Steer, Brake and Stop.

The OPP would also like to remind the public that unpredictable winter weather conditions are quickly approaching. Always drive according to the weather and road conditions. Consider delaying your trip or pulling safely, completely off the road and wait for conditions to improve.

Extreme weather conditions may result in road closures.

The Ontario 511 telephone number is part of a North American traveler service offering 24/7 bilingual information on winter road conditions, closures, construction information and so much more.

511 is a resource to commuters and travelers who can require information prior to departure or while en route. You can obtain locations of carpool lots, high occupancy vehicle lanes, service centres, provincial parks, rest areas, ferry services, or tourist information centres.

511 uses voice recognition technology to meet the requirements of hands-free legislation in Ontario, as well as back-up touch tone service and zero out option to assist Ontarians with disabilities.

Ontario 511 is also effective to communicate critical information to the public when emergencies or events arise. 511 will lead to reduced congestion and improvements in safety if we remember to check travel conditions prior to leaving.

Call 511 or visit www.ontario.ca/511.

In The Loop

During the Corporate Services Committee meeting of November 5, members discussed the P.O.A. (court) report concerning the collection of fines. The Provincial Government downloaded this responsibility onto municipalities and most do not have adequate resources to do this. When the normal process of collecting these fines fails, the Town submits these to a collection agency. To date this has proved financially beneficial and will be recommended again for 2014.

The Committee moved to upgrade the financial software system. It will be a huge learning curve for staff and will be a lengthy process to master. The cost for the upgrade was not available to those in attendance. It should be contained in the agenda for the next regular Council meeting.

The 2014 Municipal Elections also surfaced for discussion. The focus was on providing a more efficient service: one that allows better accessibility and can accommodate anyone who wishes to vote. A decision was made to recommend a vote-by-mail system and to have one polling station for those who wish to vote as usual. Very detailed and specific education/information packages will have to be sent to residents well in advance so that we can understand how this will work and exactly what must be done in order to have our votes count.

Apparently it was difficult to find election workers for the 2010 election and tabulating all of the results took in excess of two hours. Vote-counting machines would be rented in 2014 to speed things up. In closing, we were informed that 33% of voters in Espanola are over 60....I feel right at home!!!

Espanola Police Report

On September 27 at 5:22 p.m., two off-duty Espanola Police officers observed a Toyota Corolla traveling at a high rate of speed in the Tudhope and Barber Streets area, and while following the vehicle, the officers noted that the vehicle was weaving all over the road.

The officers continued to follow the vehicle as it sped down a lane way in the area, where it eventually stopped in the driveway of a private residence. The officers approached the male driver as he exited his vehicle, and in doing so, they noted signs of impairment. The officers arrested the male driver for Impaired Operation of a Motor Vehicle, and contacted the Espanola Police Service to request the assistance of an on-duty officer.

Upon being transported to the Espanola Police Service, the male driver provided two samples of his breath into an Approved Instrument, and two readings of 180 mgs of alcohol in 100 milliliters of blood were obtained.

As a result of the incident, Kirk Berry, 43, of Espanola was charged with one count of Impaired Operation of a Motor Vehicle contrary to section 253(1)(a) of the Criminal Code, and one count of Operation over 80 mgs of alcohol, contrary to section 253 (1)(b) of the Criminal Code of Canada. Further, the accused lost his privilege to operate a motor vehicle in the Province of Ontario for a period of 90 days, and his vehicle was impounded for 7 days. The accused will appear in Espanola court on November 19.

IN MEMORIAM

Kim Bourcier

In loving memory of a wonderful wife, mother, grandmother, who passed away November 14th – 2008

"When you remember me, it means that you have carried something of who I am with you. That I have left some mark of who I am on who you are. It means that you can summon me back to your mind even though countless years and miles may stand between us. It means that even if we meet again, you will know me. It means that even after I die, you can still see my face and hear my voice and speak to me in your heart. For as long as you remember me, I am never entirely lost"

Thanks Kim for the imprint you have left in our hearts and on our lives.
Missing you always.
Love Mike & Family

Deaths

Paul Zahorec - Of Espanola passed away on Thursday, October 31, 2013 at the age of 72 years.

Beloved husband and best friend to his wife Hester. Loving father of Jeffrey (wife Wendy) and twin granddaughters Alexis and Brooke Zahorec and Christopher (wife Helen) and step grandchildren Dalia and Micah. Paul is survived by his loving mother, Marie and siblings, Heather, Debbie, Gordon, Beth, Robert, Anna and Scott. Also, by special brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Godfrey and Barbara Cranston. Loved by nieces and nephews and so many friends. Paul was a friend to all and could not do enough for the town of Espanola and its people. He was a great champion of youth often heading up special fund raising breakfasts for children in need. Lionism was his second home. Paul received the Melville Jones award from his fellow Lions. This is the highest in Lionism. Paul worked hard to raise funds for the complex and the 32 long term beds at the hospital. He was very involved in the United Church, on the Board and in the choir. For fourteen years Paul was involved with minor hockey in Espanola with his sons, always raising funds for the buses, etc. Paul was a Cub Scout leader in Espanola for many years. He had achieved his own status as a Queen Scout. Friends called at the Bourcier Funeral Home, Espanola on Sunday, November 3. Funeral Service was held at the United Church of Espanola on Monday, November 4. Interment in the Mountain View Cemetery, Little Current. If so desired, memorial tributes may be made to the United Church of Espanola.

Seniors Encouraged to Sign Up Now For Direct Deposit of CPP and OAS Payments

(NC)—Canadians who forward their mail down south may sometimes worry if their federal benefit cheques will arrive on time or get lost. Now that the federal government is phasing out cheques in favour of direct deposit, much of the worry can be eliminated.

Already, more than 80 percent payments made to Canadians are by direct deposit because of its convenience, reliability, security and cost-efficiency. With fewer cheques to print or mail, the federal government stands to save $17.4 million a year. The cost to produce a cheque is approximately 82 cents while direct deposit only costs 13 cents.

According to Public Works and Government Services Canada, most of Canada's seniors already receive payments such as the Canada Pension Plan, Old Age Security and Guaranteed Income Supplement through direct deposits to their bank accounts. To date, 90 percent of CPP payments to recipients and 92 percent of OAS payments made to beneficiaries are received electronically. The remaining few who don't already get their money this way are being encouraged to sign up soon rather than wait for the 2016 deadline.

By registering for direct deposit at your financial institution, online at www.directdeposit.gc.ca or at 1-800-O-Canada, money that is owed to you for things such as CPP or OAS, plus veterans' benefits or tax refunds, can be deposited faster and more reliably directly into your bank account.

If you aren't signing up online, you can still visit your local bank branch and make the necessary arrangements in person. It's a simple matter of filling out a form. Once completed, payments from that point on will be deposited directly into one or several of your bank accounts, according to your preference.
