By Chloe Kneer - Robinson's Pharmasave at 119 Tudhope Street has been a staple in Espanola for more than sixty years. In fact, it is said to be the oldest retailer in the town. Little has changed about the building itself, but the services offered have only improved and become more efficient, especially in the last ten to fifteen years, according to Mel Lachance. "Our pharmacy services have really expanded, and a lot of it is due to meeting a demand because of doctor shortages we experience in this area. Our pharmacists will spend as much time with you as you need in order to help you. There is no sense waiting to see a doctor when you are not well if our staff can point you in the right direction for care." In addition to recommendations for feeling better when you are sick, the pharmacists

"Going To The Reunion?" I'd Rather Be Water Boarded

Never trust anyone over 30 for they are the ones who organize reunions.

For most of my life I have successfully avoided attending reunions - high school, baseball, college and especially that weird family reunion in Kansas a couple years ago at which 33-year-old Richard Lorenc finally found his biological mother Vivian Wheeler, 62 who just happened to be ... and this would have been great for Richard when he was little Dick in short pants and looking for free tickets - Barnum & Bailey's Bearded Sideshow Lady. AWKWARD!!!

Look, I'm not saying your long lost Aunt Elizabeth once went by the name of Lizzie Borden but it could happen ... and probably at a reunion.

At reunions age jokes come with weight jokes the way hair pieces accompany platform shoes. Familiar faces come with forgotten names and long, very long pauses.

"Oh sorry, no, I only asked if your daughter was pregnant because she has that wonderful glow about her."

Last month, against my better judgment I attended the Dain City Reunion to honour the longevity and vibrance of the little village on the Welland Canal where I spent the first 17 years of my life. I only went to spend time with my childhood buddy Malcolm Hilton who, showing much better judgment than me, did not show up.

And it was fine, really. Old scores were not settled, nobody streaked the stage while I was speaking and a lot of compliments were exchanged ... followed by "for your age, of course." Everybody avoided the guy holding up a photo and looking for "the one who got away" mainly because he was still with the one who didn't. No real fathers were discovered if you know what I mean.

But there's always that question you never want to hear: "Do you remember how you humiliated me when we were growing up in Dain City?!" I didn't of course but I had a feeling I was about to hear all about it.

We were having a drink, me and my buddy Paul Stout who married Brenda Poll who was still staring at me. "Well, do you?"

One summer, as the story goes, I coached the Dain City Girls Softball Team. I was about 16 years old and the girls were 12 and 13.

As Brenda started naming the players ... ace pitcher Carolyn Rominger, Joanne Williams, Lynn Dorsey and Nancy Jowett, it all started coming back to me but not in a good way.

I was hitting grounders to the infield which was anchored by Brenda at third base. Brenda was one of the best players on the team but today was not her day.

The drill was called "bring it home" in which I'd hit to an infielder and she would throw to home plate to stop a run from scoring. The first one I hit to Brenda went between her legs and into left field. The second grounder hit her in the shin and the third popped out of her glove. In a real game we'd be behind by three runs, all on errors by the third baseman. That's when I lost it. I walked out to third, relieved Brenda of her glove and told her to sit on the bench nearby. "Watch and learn," I said, as sternly as a fifteen-year-old with acne and clam diggers could. "Penny!" I yelled. "Come!" No not a girl but my super dog Penny, a medium-sized reddish mutt with buck teeth, the result of a collision with a motorcycle. In a flash, Penny was sitting beside the third base bag, panting and smiling and watching my every move. "Stay!" I ordered returning to home plate where my catcher had her mask up on her head, squinting toward third base.

I hit a sharp grounder toward third that took three hops before it reached the base. Penny jumped straight up in the air, rising twice as high as he was tall and cleanly caught the ball in his mouth. "Bring!" I yelled, and in front of ten disbelieving teenage girls, Penny articulated the routine. He brought it home.

"Now Brenda," I said, using the bat as a pointer, "when you can play that position as well as my dog can, I'll give you your glove back." There was a fair bit of giggling and stifled laughter and not all of it was from the dog. I realize now it was the wrong thing to do and I understand how Brenda must have felt humiliated. I just didn't realize she'd be still bitter about it 50 years later. Much more mature and wiser now, I'm not saying you shouldn't use household pets to show humans how to perform rudimentary tasks in life. I'm saying do not attend reunions where you can be confronted by these kinds of embarrassing stories. Reunions - no place for old men with a bit of a checkered past.

Carol Hughes Praises Local Community Living Associations

Carol Hughes, MP
Algoma-Manitoulin-Kapuskasing

Community Living Associations remind us about the good that is being done in Canada on a local level says Algoma-Manitoulin-Kapuskasing MP Carol Hughes.

The MP praised these non-profit associations in the House of Commons last week for the work they undertake helping people with intellectual disabilities take part in all aspects of their communities. "The Canadian Association for Community Living along with regional and local partners work towards a Canada where all persons live in a state of dignity, with the opportunity to participate and share in all elements of life in their communities," said Hughes. The MP said that the organizations work to advance human rights and equality while battling preconceptions and discrimination.

"In places like Hearst, Kapuskasing, Chapleau, Manitoulin Island, Elliot Lake, and Espanola, Community Living is making its mark while striving to end exclusion and discrimination," said Hughes.

Hughes related an experience that showed how working to include individuals is an investment in stronger, more compassionate communities.

"Recently, I was privileged to participate in Community Living Manitoulin's inspirational annual Harvest Ball awards ceremony where special recognition for individual achievement was given to Howard Panamick, for charting a new direction in his life and to Roger Howard, who was promoted to Manager at the Everything-Under-the-Sun thrift store."

Community Living Espanola regularly hosts events to support its operations. Currently, they are selling tickets for their Cash Calendar 2014. They are giving you the chance to win cash every weekday for the months of January and February. Tickets are $20 each with only a thousand being sold and proceeds go towards the purchase of recreational and leisure equipment. Take Our Kids to Work Day Is Tomorrow For Rainbow Schools Students

Grade 9 students in Rainbow Schools will spend the day at work job shadowing a parent, relative, friend or volunteer host tomorrow as part of the national Take Our Kids to Work program.

"The Take Our Kids to Work program provides an opportunity for Grade 9 students to experience the world of work and the variety of career opportunities that await them," says Doreen Dewar, Chair of Rainbow District School Board. "We thank area businesses for opening their doors and welcoming our students into their places of work."

Take Our Kids to Work benefits students in many ways. "When students make the connection between the classroom and the world of work, they understand the importance of staying in school and getting a secondary school diploma," says Norm Blaseg, Director of Education for Rainbow District School Board. "They learn first-hand about the skills required in today's workplace and get to explore career options alongside a parent or friend."

He adds, "Local employers have an important role to play in preparing their future workforce. It's a role they take seriously, evident by strong community support for Co-operative Education, the Ontario Youth Apprenticeship Program, the Specialist High Skills Majors and other experiential learning opportunities such as the Take Our Kids to Work program. The day will serve as a catalyst to engage students in career discussions with adults in a variety of fields."

The Learning Partnership, a national not-for-profit organization, sponsors Take Our Kids to Work. Now in its 19th year, the program provides Grade 9 students with the opportunity to experience and learn about the world of work as they begin to explore possible career paths. More than 250,000 Grade 9 students and at least 75,000 businesses and organizations nationwide participate in Take Our Kids to Work day annually. The Learning Partnership began running this program in 1994 in Ontario and it has since grown into a national program that reaches students in all provinces and territories across the country. Students can obtain more information about Take Our Kids to Work at area Rainbow secondary schools. Parents of participating students will be required to complete and sign a consent form. Parents should check with employers about any age restrictions for placement. Employers are encouraged to identify any specific cautions or information that students will need to know about ahead of time to ensure a safe workplace visit. All Grade 9 students will receive a Workplace Health and Safety presentation in preparation for their day out in the world of work.

Recipe

I made this cake last week and we ate every last bite. It is moist and delicious. I was tempted to not make the frosting out of laziness but decided to make it and I'm so happy I did. You have to make the icing! It really isn't hard to do, just follow the directions and you will have a fudgy icing that melts in your mouth and compliments the apples perfectly. I accidentally left the pecans out which I was upset about because I love pecans, but it was still delicious. It was even better as the week went on. Just a heads up, the batter will be thick more like a cookie dough than cake batter.

Fresh Apple Cake

- 1 c vegetable oil
- 2 c sugar
- 3 eggs
- 3 c flour
- 1 tsp cinnamon
- 1 tsp baking soda
- 2 tsp vanilla extract
- 1 c chopped pecans
- 3 c peeled and chopped apples

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Grease a 9 x 13" pan. Combine oil, sugar, and eggs. Stir in flour and baking soda. Add vanilla, pecans, and apples. Spread in prepared pan and bake for 45-50 minutes. (In my oven it was done in 35 minutes, so please check and not overcook). Cool for 2 hours. Then prepare frosting.

Frosting

- 1/2 c butter
- 1 c brown sugar, packed
- 1/4 c evaporated milk
- 1/2 tsp vanilla

Boil all ingredients in a small saucepan for 2 minutes, stirring to prevent burning. Set pot in bowl filled with ice water. Beat icing with a wooden spoon until it starts to thicken and is of spreading consistency (the consistency of frosting). Spread over top of cake.

Kids Korner

Bingo Dabber Poppy

- Black (or any colour) construction paper
- White paper
- Red & green bingo dabber
- Scissors
- Glue

Draw a large poppy shape on the white paper. Using the green bingo dabber, make a circle in the middle to be the center of the poppy. Using the red bingo dabber fill in the rest of the poppy. Cut out the flower. If the child has gone outside the lines, you can cut along the original lines to keep the poppy shape. Allow to dry. Glue the poppy to the background piece of paper. Hang proudly as a gesture and in honour of all our veterans and Canadian soldiers.

There were no Council or Committee meetings held last week so The Espanola Citizen Group will take this opportunity to update you on several fronts:

- The Service Delivery Review was budgeted for last spring and became an integral part of Espanola's Strategic Plan but has still not been approved by Council.

- A Code of Conduct for Councillors distributed in August 2012 for Council to read and then vote on never was brought back for discussion.

- At the time of writing this, no news whether the Province will assist with the funding for the Hwy 6 culvert.

- To the best of our knowledge, the Domtar appeal has not yet been resolved.

- As of October 30th, Bill Foster's request to present his Police Costing research to Council has not been confirmed.

- We still have nothing to report on the Cheque Registry adjudication other than to mention we have submitted our rebuttal of the Town's reasons for refusing to provide it to us.

On a more positive note:

- The Helios development in the industrial park seems to be progressinggreat news!

- The Rivermen have been a welcome addition to Espanola.... attendance has been excellent.

- Espanola Ski Hill members have raised enough funds to operate independently this winter.

Looks as if we may have to get the shovels out early this year.

In Flanders Fields

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.
