Stocking The Shelves

By Chloe Kneer - After having our first snowfall last week, attention is shifting towards the coming winter and, of course, the holidays. With Christmas just around the corner, the Espanola Helping Hand Food Bank will start seeing demand rise. In advance of the increasing demand, the food bank is hosting many activities and drives in order to stock its shelves. Last Friday, A.B. Ellis grade one students participated in the Queensway Place's fifth annual Step-a-Thon. Up until two years ago, residents at the Espanola nursing home collected pledges and counted their own steps for a day with proceeds going to the food bank. Due to health circumstances, the grade one students have now taken over the task of wearing pedometers for a day and, along with the assistance of teachers and staff at the school, collecting donations.

Who Names A Racehorse 'Taking Up Space'?

I spent a fair part of my summer watching thoroughbreds charge around oval tracks in Saratoga Springs and Finger Lakes, New York. I'm writing a book about the Great Zippy Chippy, the New York state racehorse that defied all odds and logic to amass a breathtaking ten-year career of 100 consecutive wins. Sorry, make that 100 losses in a row. No, he never won a race but in fairness, he always meant to. Zippy Chippy may not have had a really fast pace or a quick dash out of the gate or a powerful drive down the stretch or great stamina in long races or ... wait! What else is there? Oh yeah, that horse could eat his weight in alfalfa.

In doing research for this project I could not help but notice some of the very strange names owners give their steeds. In his career Zippy ran against horses named Two Chums Up, Take Sum Believing, We Passem, Shininlikediamonds, I'mjumpingjackflash, Sixfeetunder, Makemineagoldmine and Imgonnabiteyounow. As far as I can tell Byby Fran's Kitchen and Uncle Johnyscookin never ran in the same race. If Wishes Were Horses sums it up pretty well while Millie Hurry Up makes you kinda sad.

Zippy Chippy somehow managed to lose a race in which DeWitt Be Quick wasn't, Rockit Man failed to launch and Heaven El Wait will have to. On the other hand he once finished 15 lengths ahead of a horse named Viva La Triumph which ended up dead last.

There's actually a governing agency in horseracing that must approve of the owner's choice of name. And so there should be. One guy who didn't like the track announcer named his horse Another Horse so that as the thoroughbreds rushed down the homestretch the call would go out over the PA system: "And Another Horse has taken the lead" confusing the hell out of everybody.

Manchester United soccer star Wayne Rooney once tried to name two of his horses Hoof Hearted and Norfolk Enchants. The censor stopped Rooney in his tracks.

Wear The Fox Hat, Passing Wind and Sofa Can Fast somehow snuck through the censor. Who Gives A Donald was green-lighted but Anita Mandelay got the stop sign.

Although Al-Qaeda failed the name game, Hamas passed with flying colours ... bright green and white.

The trouble with owning and naming a horse is that any damn fool can do it. Take my nephew David for instance. Having spent a good part of his college days at the races, he and two buddies decided they needed to move up the track ladder from losing bettors to thoroughbred owners. So they walked into the track's administration office and one day said they wanted to claim a horse.

"She looked at us like we were high on crack," David recalls. But they knew a guy and for cash that guy talked to another guy and $2,000 later they owned a horse.

"Yeah, we named him Threeguysonthesauce." (Now you see why the crack was unnecessary.) So there they were, three kids strutting around the paddock like Kentucky straw-hat dandies and slightly buzzed on beer. "A syndicate of investors" is the title they preferred.

All that was great and the girls were quite impressed until the first $1,000 vet bill arrived. A sobering experience times three. That's when the horse went off to be a jumper at a show farm and the boys went back to being two-dollar bettors.

So Threeguysonthesauce goes into the bin of bad horse names along with Unblessed, Dude Anonymous, Sir Jouncewell, Mecke Mouse and in a belated shout out to The Honeymooner's Ralph Kramden - Bangzoomtothemoon.

Somebody should have considered charges against owners who named their colts Happy Hooves, Horsemeat Jr., Bag O'Bones, Born Loser and Horse-Apples. Three Legs And A Prayer however carries a certain cache and I must admit I do like Nag, Nag, Nag.

At 100 career losses Zippy Chippy may not have any zip to him but he sure was chippy. This horse bit and kicked so many of his handlers he might well have been named First Aid. Or Bringing Up

The Rear. Or Herecomesollardass. Zippy Chippy once lost a race by 15 lengths to a horse named Mr. Peanut. He once finished behind Dunkin' Donuts by nine lengths. He never recovered from those defeats. It was almost fitting that in his last race and 100th loss he ended up three lengths behind Taking Up Space. Yet in 100 races, he never gave up and he actually did a little victory dance after each loss. No doubt there is glory and nobility in great attempts ... trying and striving and getting up off the mat to face another fight.

"Life's battles don't always go to the stronger or faster man. But sooner or later the man who wins is the man who thinks he can." ~Vince Lombardi~

SWAMP SLIME

- Make green
Jell-O. Put some of it in clear plastic containers and put some aside.
When the Jell-O starts to solidify, add various gummy bugs. Beat the rest of the Jell-O to a froth and add to the top of the slime. Let set.

WITCHES HATS

- Use a large, flat, dark cookie for the brim and an ice-cream sugar cone for the crown. Fill the cone with ice cream even to the rim and center
it on top of the cookie.

SPOOKY SNACKS

TONGUES ON TOAST

- 8
slices white bread • 8 slices bologna • Mustard Cut each slice of bread into the shape of lips, with a slit in the middle. Cut the bologna into strips that look like tongues. Insert the bologna into the slits in the lips (so it looks like the tongues are hanging out of the mouths). Cover the bread with mustard and broil until the bread is golden brown.

MONSTER BOLTS

- Skewer
cubes of various kinds of cheese with pretzel sticks.

- Put chocolate pudding in clear plastic containers and imbed a gummy worm or two. Cover the top of the pudding with crushed chocolate cookie crumbs. It looks good if a worm is peeking out of the dirt too.

HALLOWEEN PARTY GAME

HAL O' WEEN AND HIS SQUISHY BODY

OBJECT OF THE GAME: You pass around paper cups to your guests while telling the story below. Do it in the dark or in a semi dark room and tell them they can't look in the cups. The cups are filled with gross "body parts" (food) and guests have to guess what it really is. After the lights are back on and everyone has finished writing down their guesses, collect the papers. As you check their guesses, you can show everyone what was really in the cups. Give a nice prize to the person with the most correct answers.

WHAT YOU NEED: Paper cups. The body parts (food) described below and a box of handy wipes for guests to clean their hands.
What To Do: Ahead of time, prepare the cups that are described below. Have everyone sit in a circle, then shut off most of the lights and start the story. You have to have the room fairly dark so that people cannot see what's inside of the cups. You can pass out paper and pencil at the beginning of the game and let them write down their guesses between each cup or you can have each player guess out loud between each cup. At the very end of the game, you can tell them what is in each cup, but wait until the end!!

HERE'S THE STORY: Tell the story as you pass around each cup. "Once in this town there lived a man named, Hal O' Ween. T'was years ago, on this very night that he was murdered out of spite. They say these are his remains."

HERE IS HIS BRAIN. WHICH NOW FEELS NO PAIN.
 USE A PEELED SQUISHY TOMATO OR STEWED TOMATOES
 HERE ARE HIS EYES. STILL SWOLLEN WITH SURPRISE.
 USE TWO FROZEN, PEELED GRAPES OR BLACK OLIVES
 HERE IS HIS HEART. BE CAREFUL LEST IT START!
 USE A LARGE LUMP OF UNCOOKED LIVER OR SIMILAR MEAT
 NOW WE HAVE HIS HAIR. WHICH ONCE WAS SO FAIR!
 USE A HANDFUL OF CORN SILK OR WET FUR OR YARN FEEL THESE DROPS OF HIS BLOOD. ALL THE REST TURNED TO MUD.
 USE A LITTLE KETCHUP THINNED WITH WARM WATER
 ONE HAND ALL ALONE. JUST ROTTING FLESH AND BONE.
 USE A WET LATEX GLOVE FILLED WITH RED GELATIN
 HERE IS HIS EAR. NEVERMORE WILL HE HEAR!
 USE A DRIED APRICOT OR SIMILAR DRIED FRUIT
 THIS IS HIS NOSE. NOW TO NEVER SMELL A ROSE
 USE THE END OF A PICKLE. A HOT DOG OR A SOFT CHICKEN BONE OR GRISTLE
 THESE WORMS ARE ALL THAT'S LEFT TO FEEL. FOR THEM HAL O'WEEN WAS A LOVELY MEAL!
 USE COLD, WET SPAGHETTI!

It's the Most Wonderful Time of the Year ... Almost

By Grant Lewis - 'Tis the season.... No, not yet. Let's get over Halloween and then it is the season. Once again, the Espanola Lions will be starting its annual toy drive to help out kids this Christmas. But Santa has lots of helpers in this community. Once again, Winkels will be having their Angel tree. Starting in November, you can pick an angel from the tree in the store. On it will be boy/girl plus an age. Pick an angel and drop off your gift in the bin at your convenience. Pick up date will be Wednesday, December 11. You can also drop off your toys or knitting at the special tree in the lobby of the nursing home. Again there will be angels on the tree with ages and boy/girl, but all donated toys will be appreciated by Santa. This tree will be ready after November 11 and pick up at the nursing home will be on December 11. Canadian Tire has kindly donated all the wrap, tissue, tape and tags so that the many volunteers can do Santa's wrapping for him. The Wrapping Bee will be on Thursday, December 12 in the Georgian Room at the Pinewood Motor Inn at 9.00 a.m. If you would like to help out, please phone 705-865-3005 and leave a message. It's lots of fun and only takes a few hours but is very appreciated by the elves!

From mid-November until December 11, there will be a tree at the TD Bank to drop off toys and knitting. And don't forget to "tip a teller." You never know what could happen. All monies collected are donated to the local Lions to help the toy drive.

A.B. Ellis and Sacred Heart will also be Santa's helpers this year. They have already started collecting through various in-school fund raising initiatives. Monies collected will be doubled by the local Lions. Then let the shopping begin at Giant Tiger. Staff and students will shop-till-they-drop for gifts, mainly for the older children, who sometimes get overlooked.

Giant Tiger will donate $1,000 to the staff at the TD Bank who will also do shopping at discounted prices.

And then there are the Espanola Rivermen. What an addition to our community! Not only is the hockey play truly exciting, but they have embraced our community with energy and enthusiasm. Many local groups have already benefitted. The hospital, Boogie Mountain Ski Hill, Pumpkin and Fibre Arts Festival, local cancer initiatives ("Pink In The Rink" this Friday) Community Living, plus others I've forgotten, all have good reason to be thankful to this group. Our hats are off to the players and the management team. Have I mentioned they play great hockey? There will be a Teddy Bear Toss at the Rivermen game Friday, December 6, so bring any stuffed animal, new or gently loved to the game and get ready to toss.

Also the North Shore Pins and Needles Quilting and Stitchery Guild will be making quilts for all those kids under one year of age. They will become keepsakes for sure.

If you or your group can help out, please let us know. We always need knitted hats, scarves, mitts and gloves. Please call 705-865-3005 for pick up.

Stocking The Shelves

Next on the agenda for the volunteers of the Helping Hand Food Bank are the Espanola Legion meat roll-offs through the month of November. They will host every Saturday afternoon starting at 3:30. On November 2, Queensway Pentecostal Church is sponsoring a 5k Road Race and Fun Run. The $20 entry fee will be divided in half with one half covering the cost of T-shirts for runners and the other going directly to the food bank. The church will prepare a pancake breakfast after the run. For details, contact Stephanie Borsato at 705-869-1700.

On November 23, the food bank will hold a Christmas exchange at the Espanola Regional Recreation Complex that will be open to everyone. If you have decorations to donate, drop them off at 155 Mead Street, Espanola starting November 17.

Preparations are also being made for the Helping Hand Food Bank's first entry into the Espanola Santa Claus Parade on November 30. Volunteers will take donations along the parade route and at the complex festivities which follow.

If you wish to donate to the food bank this holiday season, they are located at 87 Centre Street, Espanola and their new phone number is 705-583-3045.

RECIPE

Candy Corn Sugar Cookies

- 2 Sticks Butter, softened
- 1 c. Sugar
- 1 Egg
- 2 T. Lemon Juice
- 2 t. Lemon Zest
- 1/8 t. Salt
- 3 c. Flour
- 1/2 t. Baking Soda
- Red Food Dye
- Yellow Food Dye
- 1/2 c. Granulated Sugar (for dusting)

Combine butter and sugar in a large bowl; beat at medium speed until creamy. Add egg, lemon juice, lemon zest, and salt. Continue beating until well mixed. Add flour and baking soda, beat until well mixed. Divide dough into thirds. Press one-third of the white dough evenly into the bottom of a loaf pan that you have lined with foil, wax, or parchment paper. Place another one-third of the dough into a bowl and add yellow and red food dye to make orange (refer to the chart on the back of your box). Once it is mixed evenly, press orange dough evenly over white dough. In another bowl, add the final amount of dough and dye yellow. Press that evenly over the orange dough. Cover and refrigerate until firm (2 hours or overnight is best). Once chilled, invert your loaf pan and unwrap your dough. Flip it back over and place it on a cutting board. Cut loaf crosswise into 1/4-inch slices using a sharp knife, trimming edges to make even, if necessary. Cut each slice into 6 wedges.

Kids Korner

Q-Tips make great bones for this Halloween Skeleton. The kids will have a great time making this project.

Q-Tip Skeleton

- 18 Q-tips
- Black cardstock or construction paper
- White paper
- Black marker
- Scissors
- White glue

Begin by gluing 6 whole Q-tips on the black cardstock for the skeleton's ribs. Glue 1 Q-tip perpendicular over the ribs to act as the backbone. Have the Q-tip lie flush with the last rib, but poke up longer than the top rib, to act as the neck bone. Draw a skull on the white paper with a black marker, and cut it out. Glue the skull on the paper above and touching the neck bone. Glue 4 whole Q-tips for the arm joints and leg joints, as shown in the picture. Cut 6 whole Q-tips in half, or make them even shorter if you like. These are smaller bones that can be used as the 10 fingers, and 2 for the feet. Glue them in place.

In The Loop

The agenda for the Council meeting of October 22 contained 136 pages. Kudos go out to staff and Department Heads for a job well done. Reports were detailed and thorough.

There were 3 major items Council had to deal with.

The first was concerning the construction of a sludge plant for Espanola. The sludge problem must be dealt with. The contract with Vale runs out at the end of the year. The financial commitment would be an estimated $450,000 capital investment for a Geo Tube option. Council approved an engineering/design estimated at $40,000 for this option. A second alternative is to have this operation managed by the Ontario Clean Water Agency (OCWA) where OCWA would provide the capital for project. The savings on trucking (estimated $39,000/yr) would cover the majority of the repayment costs.

The next major issue was a decision on whether to retrofit the Town with LED lighting in order to be more environmentally friendly and to save money. If undertaken by the town the cost would be in the $369,000 range. Monies for this could come from Gas Tax Credits which were not used for the Hwy. 6 culvert. Another option would be to have LAS (electricity reseller) oversee this project and absorb the entire capital cost...with Espanola receiving 10% of these savings per year for 10 years and LAS retaining the remaining 90% to offset their capital investment/financing costs. Two projects for the Helios Whitefish First Nation Ltd. Partnership (660 Barber St. and 921 Vanier Rd) received approval for a 20 metre setback rather than the 100 metre setback as specified by the Ontario Power Authority. These approvals are for ground and/or roof installations.
