By Dario Laurenti - Mr. Grant Eccleston has helped out many organizations and individuals in Espanola, but I would like to let you know of his involvement with our club.

The Espanola Lions Club has been hosting a Seniors' Supper during the annual winter carnival for 15 years now. When I had the idea of this supper, I wanted it to be at minimal or no charge to the seniors of this community. It was our way of thanking all of them for the contributions they have made to this wonderful town over the years. Mainly

The Syrian Snafu - What Would Churchill Do?

This quagmire that's generously referred to as a 'civil war' in Syria is so completely screwed up, publishing an enemies list and getting the combatants to wear numbered uniforms would not even help at this point. There's one dictator, President Bashar al-Assad, two now that Vladimir Putin has waded in, about nine different religions, at least four different terrorists groups ranging from those that suicide bomb to those that behead and an American-led air strike coalition that includes Canada, Bahrain, Jordan, Saudi America, the United Arab Emirates, sometimes Turkey, soon-to-be France and Qatar which will also host the 2022 World Cup of Soccer.

All this murderous mess needs is a long-range missile coming from North Korea or a flyover by a flock of Chinese military drones and your living room drapes are about to catch on fire. So who better to sort things out than Sir Winston Churchill, the military genius of WWII and the architect of victory over Nazi Germany? So I called him.

Me: "Thank you, Sir Winston for taking my call."

Churchill: "Oh boy, I must have really taken a tumble last night. Can't remember a damn thing. Must go easier on the brandy."

Me: "Actually Sir, you've been dead for 50 years."

Churchill: "Ah, that would explain my trousers. They've lost their crease."

Me: "Sir, I was wondering if you could help us out. Some of us - the United States, Canada, Morocco, Australia, Belgium and about 50 other nations are embroiled in a Mideast war against Syrian President Bashar al-Assad while trying to eliminate a vicious terrorist group at the same time. Any thoughts?"

 Churchill: "Who's standing up to the dictator?"

Me: "Well, U.S. President Barack Obama drew a line in the sand after al-Assad used poison gas on his own people but then ... the Russians kind of rubbed it out."

Churchill: "What's the name of the terrorist group?"

Me: "We're not really sure. One day it's ISIS, next day it's ISIL, sometimes it's DAESH."

Churchill: "So you don't actually know the name of your enemy?"

Me: "Well the Syrian armed forces are the enemy plus 39 other tribal armies. Even Hezbollah is backing the dictator and usually they prefer to stay home and kill people."

Churchill: "That's a lot of enemies."

Me: "On our side, there are at least 71 various groups including the Knights of Justice and the Falcons of al-Ghab who we know nothing about."

Churchill: "So you're providing them with arms and training?"

Me: "No, we don't trust them."

Churchill: "Who do you trust?"

Me: "The Kurds. They're great fighters, loyal to the West and willing to die for the cause but ... we're not giving them any help either."

Churchill: "How many ground troops does your side have?"

Me: "Well, let's see: U.S. has about 1.3 million, Turkey 400,000, Canada 100,000 ... I'd say between two and three million soldiers."

Churchill: "That's plenty. How are they doing?"

Me: "Great. They're all staying home."

Churchill: "You're not using your armies to fight a war?"

Me: "No. We did some surveys and the people just no longer have an appetite for body bags."

Churchill: "Well I hope they have a bloody good appetite for baba ghanoush. In the first month of the London Blitz, the Nazis dropped 30,000 bombs on us, killing 6,000 civilians and injuring twice that many. We chanted, "We can take it!" and I kept the bloody pubs open so we could have a damn good pint at the end of the day. Appetite for war indeed! What are your air forces doing?"

Me: "Well, there's where we excel. We've combined the efforts of about six nations and we're bombing enemy targets with strategic air strikes."

Churchill: "How many air strikes?"

Me: "Well Canada alone has conducted ten."

Churchill: "An hour?"

Me: "Ah no, a month. Up to 12 in August."

Churchill: "And successes?"

Me: "Yesterday a U.S. air strike took out a hospital."

Churchill: "We would never bomb the enemy's medical facilities."

Me: "Actually, it was one of ours. But Russia is averaging 15 to 20 strikes a day over Syria."

Churchill: "So the Russians are on your side?"

Me: "Ah, we don't think so."

Churchill: "So you don't know who your allies are. You won't help those who are willing to fight your fight. You can't identify your enemy and even if you could, you're not willing to send in troops. Is that it?"

Me: "Pretty much."

Churchill: "Pack up, pull out and stay clear of the word 'surrender'."

Me: "That, we can do."

Project Zero Aims To Reduce Fire And Carbon Monoxide Deaths

Union Gas is partnering with the Fire Marshal's Public Fire Safety Council just in time for winter to provide 15 Ontario fire departments with a total of 500 combination smoke and carbon monoxide alarms, to be distributed to residents. The Espanola Fire Department recently took delivery of 33 of the detectors to give away. Project Zero is the name of the initiative, which is an education program to remind the public of the importance of having a smoke detector outside of every bedroom and carbon monoxide detectors in homes that use fuel burning heating systems. Fuel burning heating systems include natural gas, propane, oil, wood or pellet stoves.

The beauty of the combination units that the Espanola Fire Department is giving away is that they come with a 10 year lithium ion battery. Fire Chief Mike Pichor reminds the public that the department conducts free home inspections of smoke and carbon monoxide detectors. To schedule, call 705-869-3888. To win your combination smoke-carbon monoxide detector, listen to Moose FM (99.3) mornings at 7:45.

A Generous Life Gone Too Soon

because of Grant Eccleston, no senior has ever paid for this meal. It includes a full turkey supper with all the trimmings, dessert, coffee and tea. I estimate that over the years he has generously given us close to 4,000 meals free. Paul Zahorec was my kitchen crew chief when the idea surfaced. We decided to contact local businesses to see if they would contribute to this cause to help the club keep the cost down to a minimum. When we approached Grant we could not believe what he wanted to donate. Basically he donated all the food! This was to feed 230 seniors plus about 20-30 helpers at the supper. All the turkey, stuffing, potatoes, gravy, and vegetables would be given to us! Not only that, but the meat was all cut up for us as it had been prepared in his kitchen. In January of each year I would call him and he would say, "Just fax me what you need Dario and it will be taken care of." Grant did this gesture for 15 years before his recent untimely passing. The generosity of this man was incredible. The Lions were unable to thank Grant as he did not want recognition of any sort. He was never a member of our club, but we decided to give him an honour guard at his funeral for all of the assistance he gave us over the years. The supper has been a huge success due to the contributions of many people, including Lions members and businesses, however it could not have occurred without the generosity of this wonderful man. The Espanola Lions Club would like to extend our heartfelt condolences to Louise and his family and wish them thoughts and prayers into the future. Best wishes.

Lest We Forget

By Blaise Gravelle - Every year on November 11, the citizens of Canada pause their busy lives and join together to commemorate the soldiers they lost in WWI, WWII, the Korean War, and all other conflicts since then, in which members of the Canadian Forces have participated; remembering their losses, and celebrating their victories. The lost were not just soldiers, they were brothers, daughters, husbands, mothers and sweethearts. They were of all social classes and races, young and old, but most importantly they were family. These men and women left the relative comfort and safety of their homes, and they gallantly fought and died to protect the country we love so much. The ones they left behind faced additional hardships, such as working in factories and volunteering long hours to the services and organizations that supported their troops. War is often viewed from the safety of our homes through the social media, and is thought of as a far off thing. For those of us born in times of peace, we view ourselves as safe, often forgetting the price that was paid for our freedom. We must never forget how the country earned its rights and freedoms. The Canadians who went out to fight believe, "Without freedom there can be no ensuring peace, and without peace no enduring freedom." (Canadian Information Page) It is up to us as the citizens of Canada to never let their sacrifice go to waste; to never compromise the values they fought for. As November 11 approaches, support our veterans by purchasing a poppy, or donating to your local Legion. Let us honour them for their sacrifice of service. Remembrance Day about celebrating the great victories our nation has experienced since 1918, and it's continuing momentum throughout history. Join us at your local Legion in remembrance of those we lost as we take a moment of silence, and when we lay the wreaths. Lest we forget the ultimate sacrifice they made for us; the gift of their lives.

Recipe

Shepherd's Pie is a classic dish and everyone makes their own version. It's one of those versatile recipes where you can use different types of beef, vary the vegetables used, and add or not add cheese. My version is quick and simple, and another great way to use ground beef. One of my son's friends, who often stayed with us when the kids were younger, always requested I add cream corn. So now it's part of the recipe, and I think of him every time I make it. It does keep it from being too dry, but can be omitted if desired. This dish is also a great way to use up left overs if you happen to have gravy and mashed potatoes in your fridge from a previous meal, just omit the packaged gravy.

Mother May I's Simple Shepherd's Pie

- ❖ 1 lb of ground beef
- ❖ ½ onion, chopped
- ❖ ½ cup frozen peas
- ❖ ½ tsp Garlic powder
- ❖ 1 package of brown gravy mix, plus water
- ❖ Freshly ground pepper.
- ❖ 1 large can of cream corn
- ❖ 4 large potatoes, peeled and cut into chunks
- ❖ ¼ cup- ½ cup milk
- ❖ 1 heaping tbsp. of butter
- ❖ Grated cheddar cheese to cover

Boil potatoes in water until cooked and fork tender. Drain and mash. Add butter and milk (adding ¼- ½ cup, depending on the consistency of the potato). Mash them and stir them with your masher or spoon to make them fluffy. Meanwhile brown ground beef in a skillet with the onion. Drain off the fat. Add the garlic powder. Stir in the brown gravy mix plus the amount of water stated on the package. Add the peas. Stir well and allow to boil. Add some freshly ground pepper. Turn down heat and let simmer until thickened. Spray a medium sized casserole dish with non-stick spray. First add the ground beef mixture to the dish. Pour a can of cream corn across the top of the ground beef. Spread the mashed potatoes across to cover the top of the casserole. Top with desired amount of grated cheese. Bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes or until bubbly around the edges.

Espanola Minor Soccer Welcomes New President

Espanola Minor Soccer Association held its annual general meeting Thursday, October 22. The meeting was well-attended by parents who witnessed a changing of the guard when president and long-time executive member Lynne Gibson announced that she was stepping down from the organization. Gibson has promoted soccer throughout the North Shore and the province and was responsible for introducing the grassroots soccer program for young players. She served for over a decade and was thanked for her commitment to advancing the soccer program in the area. Stepping into the role of president is Robert Rigby, another long-time executive member and head coach of the Espanola Phoenix competitive team. Jeff and Tammy Sheppard, Paul Kallioinen, and Christine Spencer remain in their positions and Tammy Freeman and Chloe Kneer will also be added. Other topics of discussion included shortening the recreational summer soccer schedule and eliminating the two-week break. The association is in need of referees (students 12+ and adults). Training is provided and referees are paid. For information, call 705-869-5231. EMSA's indoor soccer program started last week at Espanola High School. Players practice once a week and competitive teams will soon be chosen to attend an indoor tournament in Sudbury November 27-29.

CUPE

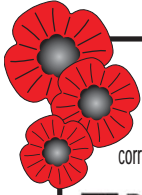

The Ontario School Board Coordinating Committee unites 55,000 school board workers in the public, Catholic, English and French school systems across Ontario. We include education assistants, custodians, and tradespeople, early childhood educators, school safety monitors and social workers, in schools and board offices. We allow education workers to share information and strategies for bargaining, and to discuss issues and policies of concern. We help locals fight contracting out and defend public education in the face of budget cuts

In Flanders Fields

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

- John McCrae
