Mud Run For Fun And Charity

The Espanola Fire Association recently held the Muscular Dystrophy Canada/Espanola Fire Association 1st Annual ATV Mud Run at Bass Lake. This charity event registered a respectable 80 ATV's with 111 participants, raising $2,307 for Muscular Dystrophy Canada. Over thirty businesses donated to the prize board in a great show of local support for a cause which is dear to all firefighters. RBC made a donation of $500, and the fire association especially thanks Danny Pichoski for hosting the event.

Any event like this is simply impossible without the support of volunteers. Event organizer and firefighter Trevor McVey said, "The community support was awesome; all the businesses who donated, we thank you and to know that we made over $2,000 for Muscular Dystrophy is incredible." McVey also said that plans are already in the works for next year due to the success in raising much-needed funds for Muscular Dystrophy Canada.

Hey! This Election Is Really A Horse Race!

For the first time in many years Canadians will go to the polls in a federal election in which any of the three major parties could win. This is both exciting and awkward. This small margin of popularity means that Canadians will have to vote for somebody this time around. Normally we vote negatively, that is we vote for somebody we don't particularly like in order to cast a stone at the candidate we really detest. Canadian elections have become our way of getting even, not getting good government. But not this time. This time we've got ourselves a horse race and as a bit of a track handicapper, I just can't resist sizing up this contest from the perspective of a betting man. There's excitement, and okay, a fair bit of manure, in the air as the three horses circle the paddock, just minutes before the start of the Canada Coast-To-Coast Stakes Race. The crowd is loud, proud, drunk and disorderly but hey, enough about those Blue Jays fans. Coming to the paddock, Secret Steve, the co-favourite at 2-1 odds looks uncharacteristically nervous. This seven-year-old veteran of thoroughbred racing sired by Reform Party out of Damsel In Mistrust is in tight today against two tough challengers who have surprised bettors lately with strong showings. Entering the paddock, this graying gelding has reared up, tried to kick his trainer and tossed his jockey. Finally his groom discovered a burr in his saddle. Turns out it's a balled-up cheque for $90,000 that's been a pain in his flank for months. Next up is the small but powerful stallion Jack Rabbit Mulcair who last time out captured The Quebec Sweepstakes by an astonishing 27 lengths. Sired by Tommy Douglas out of Sweet Sally Socialist, The Rabbit looks calm and deliberate as he struts around the grassy circle, nodding to the bettors gathered at the fence. Draped in orange and white silks and expected to take an early lead. this is the horse that worries Secret Steve's handlers the most. Normally a sprinter fades at the far pole or dies in the homestretch, but that upset in Quebec, or as they refer to it there "Hole Lee Crap!" has the veteran worried. What if Jack Rabbit Mulcair holds the lead wire-to-wire? What if Secret Steve who had pulled it out in three previous high stakes performances just doesn't have the juice this time coming down the stretch? Complicating this race for the betting public is a bit of a long shot, a young, unproven colt by the name of Just In Time. Ungelded and with an eye for the fillies, Just In Time was sired by Boudoir Trudeau out of Wild Maggie May. Although he's not won a major race, this youngster has the best breeding of this bunch and unbounded energy. He's a great looking horse with a nice mane, but there's no telling if he'll challenge

The Rabbit for the lead, hang back of the pack with Secret Steve or stop and smell the flowers instead of running for the roses. His youth brings an unpredictability to this race while tying himself closely to his stable mate, Wynne With Scandals is a clear sign of immaturity.

As the paddock judge yells "Riders up!" Secret Steve bolts backwards and nearly topples to the ground when he spots a female hot walker wearing a niqab. Jack Rabbit Mulcair also bucks and kicks his way onto the track when he realizes his jockey is none other than the irrepressible go-anywhere-to-get-attention rider Elizabeth May.

Just In Time saunters confidently out onto the track alone, without a jockey. His trainer has opted to have the horse run the race riderless because "carrying that rich pedigree and the name of Trudeau, he's already got enough on his back."

The announcement over the PA system of a jockey change sends the odds and weight allowance into a tailspin. Mike Duffy is now the jockey on Secret Steve. (And just when we were told that Just In Time had a load on his back!?)

An outrider leads all three horses up the track into the starting gate. Suddenly the bell rings and the track announcer's voice is heard to say: "They're off!" Jack Rabbit Mulcair moves quickly to take the lead while Just In Time and Secret Steve file in behind him at the rail. Reaching the quarter pole in a speedy 28 seconds ... WAIT! WAIT! WAIT! How in the hell did the Mounties Musical Ride get in this race? And the Budweiser Clydesdales are now challenging the red brigade of Mounties for the lead but wait ... it's the Sunshine Dairy horse cart now challenging the leaders and spilling milk all over the track.

Yes we have ourselves a real horse race and a mess of an election coming up on Monday. Sadly ... please forgive my cynicism here but I once (and only once) voted for Brian Mulroney ... sadly, one of them will have to win. The good news is, your two cents can really count this time around. Please, vote.

Espanola Police Reports

On September 30 at 12:00 a.m., a member of the Espanola Police Service stopped a motor vehicle on Barber Street, to alert the driver that his taillights on his vehicle were not on. While the officer was speaking to the driver, he detected the smell of an alcoholic beverage on his breath, and administered a roadside screening device, which registered a "Fail," and subsequent samples of his breath at the police station revealed that his blood alcohol content was 140 mg, per 100 ml of blood. As a result of choosing to operate a vehicle after consuming alcohol, the 20 year old driver from Massey was charged with Operation with Over 80 mgs of alcohol, contrary to the Criminal Code, and Provincial Highway Traffic Act offences that included Driving without Proper Rear Lights, Novice Driver Fail to Surrender Licence, and Novice Driver with BAC Above Zero. He will appear in Espanola Court on November 3 to answer to his charges. Pursuant to Statute, his driver's licence was suspended for a period of 90 days.

The Espanola Police Service are investigating a break, enter and theft at the Ministry of Natural Resources compound on Apsey Lake Road, and are asking for the public's assistance in identifying the person(s) responsible. Between 6:00 p.m. on September 27 and 8:00 a.m. on September 28, unknown person(s) entered the fenced compound by cutting the lock on the gate, and once inside, they removed items from the compound, as well as from three buildings located on the property. Stolen were: a green Artic Cat 400 ATV; a green Suzuki King Quad ATV; a black Advance Trailers brand ATV trailer with a beaver tale ramp; a black 4 ft by 5 ft single axle ATV utility trailer with a wooden deck and wood sides; a Honda EM Invertor 7000 generator; a Honda water pump; assorted hand tools including screwdrivers, hammers, socket sets, and skill saw, bearing an MNR sticker or MNR etched into the item; 2 net tubs, with MNR buoys attached; and 2 Conabear traps. At this time, there are no suspects in this break and enter, and police are asking anyone with information about the person(s) responsible or items stolen, to call the Espanola Police Service at 705-869-3251 or anonymously through Crime Stoppers at 1-800-461-4899.

On September 27 at 8:30 p.m., a member of the Espanola Police Service stopped a vehicle on Barber Street, for not having taillights on the boat trailer it was towing. Initially, the officer questioned the identity of the 32 year old male driver, as he could not produce any identification to the officer; however, once his identity was established, the officer discovered that the driver was unlicensed. As a result of the incident, the male driver was charged with Highway Traffic Act offences that included Drive Motor Vehicle with No Licence, and having No Red Light on Rear of Trailer. His fines totaled $425.00.

On September 26, members of the Espanola Police Service were conducting R.I.D.E. Spot-check on Lee Valley Road near Queensway Street, when a vehicle being driven by a 33-year old female came through the spot-check. While speaking to the driver, the officer detected the smell of an alcoholic beverage on her breath, and administered a roadside screening device, which produced a reading within the "warn" range. As a result of driving, after consuming alcohol, the driver was issued with a 3-day licence suspension.

On September 25 at 10:00 p.m., the Espanola Police Service received a complaint about a possible impaired driver on Bass Lake Road in Espanola. Officers responded to the complaint immediately, and located the vehicle on Algoma Street, where it was stopped. While conversing with the driver, the officer did not detect the odour of alcohol, but did smell the odour of burnt marihuana, and also observed a smoky haze, indicating that Marihuana had recently been smoked inside the vehicle. Through questioning, the driver admitted that friends he'd had in the vehicle were smoking the Marihuana, and that they had left a quantity inside. A search of the vehicle yielded 5.6 grams of Marihuana in the center console. As a result of the incident, a 20 year old from Winnipeg was charged with one count of Possession of a Controlled Substance contrary to the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act. He will appear in Espanola court on November 3 to answer to his charge.

Anyone with information on any of these crimes call Espanola Police Service at (705) 869-3251 or remain anonymous by calling Sudbury Rainbow Crime Stoppers locally at (705) 222-TIPS (8477) or toll free at 1-800-461-4899

Hunting And Safety Go Hand In Hand

Members of the Ontario Provincial Police are reminding hunters to be safe and follow a few common sense suggestions. Each year the OPP responds to lost or overdue hunters that could have easily been avoided by taking some basic precautions.

- Let someone know where you are going, and when you are returning. It saves valuable time if you are injured or lost.
- Be clearly identified with hunter orange.
- Never drink or consume intoxicating substances while hunting.
- If you are going to be late, let your designated contact know.
- If you are lost, find shelter, stay put, stay warm, until help arrives.
- Have a communication device if you need help or want to update your contact on your plans.
- Have extra food, clothing, flashlight, first aid kit in case you get stranded.
- It is strongly recommended that Personal Floating Device (PFD) be worn at all times when on the water. It would only take seconds for the cold water to be absorbed by your heavier clothing dramatically increasing the likelihood that you will not be able to swim to safety.

- Never overload your boat for any reason. The smallest change to weather or water conditions when overloaded could capsize your boat.
- When hunting with a motorized vehicle your firearm cannot be loaded when you are underway.
- Make sure all your permits and documents are with you and up to date.
- Make sure of your intended target at all times, to avoid a stray shot and hitting an unintended target.
- Weapons are always loaded unless proven otherwise.
- Safety while using any weapon is paramount to avoiding any tragedy. "Hunters are the solution to avoiding a tragedy. A sound safety strategy when hunting is paramount in having a safe hunting season," says East Algoma OPP Acting Staff Sergeant Marty VanKessel.

OPP Police Briefs

Single Vehicle Rollover Sends Two People To Hospital - (Northeastern Manitoulin And The Islands Township) – On Saturday October 3, 6:30 a.m., the Manitoulin Ontario Provincial Police (OPP) was dispatched to a single vehicle rollover on Highway 6 in NEMI Township, Ontario. Police arrived on scene to find a silver Kia Flex vehicle in the west ditch with extensive damage. The driver and passenger were removed and transported to the local hospital with serious but non-life threatening injuries. It was determined that the driver had consumed alcohol.

As a result of the officer's investigation, Ann Fairbairn, 40 years of age from Espanola, Ontario was arrested and charged with the following: Driving while ability impaired – motor vehicle, contrary to the Criminal Code (CC); Dangerous Operation of a Motor Vehicle, contrary to the Criminal Code (CC). The accused was released on a Promise to Appear and will appear before the Ontario Court of Justice on Monday, November 30 in Gore Bay to answer to her charges.

News From The Park

Michael Mantha MPP/député Algoma-Manitoulin

Liberal scandal continued to dominate question period this week with public and opposition demanding answers from the Premier to come clean about her involvement in the Sudbury by-election talks.

The NDP called on the Premier during Question Period this week to answer whether or not she briefed the Member for Sudbury Glenn Thibeault on the by-election nomination process in Sudbury. Andrew Olivier, the Liberal candidate for Sudbury, was well known to Thibeault at the time the alleged bribery took place.

Gerry Lougheed, a high-ranking Liberal fundraiser on the Sudbury campaign team, has been accused of offering bribes to Olivier so he would drop out of the by-election, thereby allowing a spot for Thibeault to campaign. The OPP has since filed two criminal charges against Lougheed.

Mr. Lougheed, has done a lot of work for the Premier and has said that he had been trying for years to get Mr. Thibeault to run in the Ontario Legislature. In the end, there was just one problem, and that was that Mr. Olivier wanted to run in that nomination. New Democrats and the public want to know to what lengths the Premier and Thibeault were willing to go to secure the nomination in Sudbury with the knowledge that Olivier had no plans to step aside. Nothing seems to change with this government, it's the same old entitlement and putting themselves before the best interests of Ontarians.

In other news, NDP MPP Gilles Bisson's Private Members Bill to cap executive salaries failed to pass second reading on Thursday. This bill sought to cap salaries in the public sector that exceed twice that of the Premier's, which is currently $209,000 per year.

NDP Leader had introduced similar Bills in 2010 and 2013 and both times the Liberals voted against it. The public are growing increasingly tired of seeing this Liberal government put their own interests first, and continue to line the pockets of their friends with cushy appointments.

While many in Algoma-Manitoulin and across Ontario are getting worried about turning on their heat this winter with sky-rocketing bills the incoming CEO is expected to make a salary in excess of $4 million per year. Executive salaries at community care access centres increased by 27 per cent over the last four years and most executives at the Pan Am Games are expected to receive performance bonuses that would double their salaries.

In 2014, approximately 200 executives who made the Sunshine List had rates of pay in greater excess than twice the Premier's. Several of those executives made over three times that of the Premier's.

When I travel across the riding and speak to many of you I continue to hear your concerns over the rising cost of hydro and continued liberal waste. The actions by the Liberal government this week proves once again that the Liberal government is not acting in the best interests of Ontarians.

As always, please feel free to contact my office about this issue, or any other provincial matters. You can reach my constituency office by email at mmantha-co@ndp.on.ca or by phone at 705-461-9710/1-800-831-1899.

The Bus Got Stuffed

By Chloe Kneer – Employees of Veteran's Transportation, along with volunteers from the Espanola Helping Hand Food Bank, made the rounds on Tuesday, October 6, in advance of the Thanksgiving Day long weekend, picking up items that area elementary schools and businesses had collected for the 2nd annual Stuff the Bus food drive.

A.B. Ellis was the first stop on the route, which also took the bus to Ecole St. Joseph, Sacred Heart School, Paperworks Ink, and the Espanola complex. The bus was nearly stuffed and last year's totals surpassed at just the second stop, which was St. Joseph School. There, students had gathered an amazing 2,567 items. The grade 3 class alone collected over 600 items as they participated in a boys vs. girls contest. (The boys won.) Everyone actively and happily carried the boxes-upon-boxes of canned goods, pasta, toiletries, and more from inside the crowded lobby of the school to the awaiting bus.

In total, the food bank gained over 5,800 items for the upcoming holiday season, which sees demand spike. The donations well exceeded the 3,400 from the first Stuff the Bus food drive.

After completing their route, the bus pulled to the back door of the food bank, where Espanola Express Junior A hockey players awaited to help unload and stock the shelves. The Espanola Helping Hand Food Bank is open Wednesday from 11:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. Their number is 705-583-3045 for information or to volunteer.

MEETING

Espanola Minor Soccer Association

Annual General Meeting
 Thursday, October 22
 6:30 p.m. at the Espanola Complex
Everyone Welcome!

Recipe

This recipe is a slight twist on the classic banana bread. A chocolate layer is swirled through the batter to give it a marbled effect. It's very simple to do, and a great way to use up those ripened bananas. Bananas and chocolate pair well together, so why not change it up? Everyone will love it.

Marbled Chocolate Banana Bread

Yield: 1 loaf, 16 slices

- ❖ 2 cups all-purpose flour
- ❖ 3/4 teaspoon baking soda
- ❖ 1/2 teaspoon salt
- ❖ 1 cup sugar
- ❖ 1/4 cup butter, softened
- ❖ 1 1/2 cups mashed ripe banana (about 3 bananas)
- ❖ 2 eggs
- ❖ 1/3 cup fat free sour cream
- ❖ 1/2 cup semi-sweet chocolate chips
- ❖ Cooking spray

Preheat oven to 350°. Lightly spoon flour into dry measuring cup, and level with a knife. Combine the flour, baking soda, and salt, stirring with a whisk. Place sugar and butter in a large bowl; beat with a mixer at medium speed until well blended (about 1 minute). Add banana, egg, and sour cream; beat until blended. Add flour mixture; beat at low speed just until moist. Place chocolate chips in a medium microwave-safe bowl, and microwave at HIGH 1 minute or until almost melted, stirring until smooth. Cool slightly. Add 1 cup batter to chocolate, stirring until well combined. Spoon chocolate batter alternately with plain batter into an 8 1/2 x 4 1/2-inch loaf pan coated with cooking spray. Swirl batters together using a knife. Until a swirl pattern appears on the surface. Bake at 350° for 1 hour and 15 minutes or until a wooden pick inserted in center comes out clean. Cool 10 minutes in pan on a wire rack; remove from pan. Cool completely on wire rack.
