Sisters Helping Sisters:
 The Shoebox Project

By Chloe Kneer – Donna MacDonald is no stranger to great loss and suffering. In the last year, she's lost her husband to cancer and is now watching another family member battle against the disease. She has every reason to stay in her shell, yet despite the challenges that life has handed her, she maintains her positive attitude and outlook on life. "I tell the women that I work with, you get up out of bed, put your jeans and make up on and you get out that door, every day," says MacDonald. She admits that sometimes it is difficult for her to take her own advice, but she does.

In the midst of her husband's illness last fall, MacDonald co-coordinated the Sisters Helping Sisters Shoebox Project in Espanola and Manitoulin. The Shoebox Project was founded in 2011 by a group of sisters whose mission was to collect and distribute gifts packaged in shoeboxes to women and girls in

If Music Be The Fodder Of War ... Stop The Bombing

Music, the soother of souls has always been badly abused and not just by heavy metal bands, but by history and war as well. Music makes you feel good and when used as a movie's soundtrack, tells you how you're supposed to feel while watching a particular scene. Music can lift your spirits and improve your attitude except Debbie Boone's "You Light Up My Life" damn near put me in therapy.

Music is supposed to be flowing and melodious, but when I hear America sing that line from "A Horse With No Name" - "In the desert, you can remember your name. 'Cause there ain't no one for to give you no pain." - I'm reminded of the severe shortage of editors in the songwriting business. (For the record, the pain resulted from a head-on collision between Dan Peek's nameless horse and a triple-negative, sandstorm of words.)

The often quoted philosopher George Santayana was not a fan: "Music is essentially useless, as is life." The Greek historian Ephorus never trusted it: "Music was invented to deceive and delude mankind." And an anonymous writer of the mid-17th century had a crude theory of its' origin: "Music is but a fart sent from the guts of an instrument." I'm guessing this is why music is often accompanied by lit candles.

Music has always been used as a military weapon and quite successfully so. The Israelites smote the heathen Egyptians in the walled city of Jericho by first deafening them with long periods of trumpet blasts. This was followed by loud incomprehensible shouting the likes of which has never been heard since - not until the debut of the grunge band Rage Against The Machine.

In 1989 after the U.S. military flattened a sizeable portion of Panama City to flush out General Manuel Noriega, a Catholic church became the chosen hideout for this little dictator with industrial strength acne. (And don't think I couldn't sell that title to an inner city punk band desperately in need of a name. A little catchier than the Chicago band Atombombpocketknife.) Reluctant to blow up a church, the CIA used the unrelenting sound of the heavy metal band AC/DC to separate Noriega from the confessional. Once captured, the CIA offered him a gift of AC/DC's "Back In Black." Instead of graciously accepting their offer, the dictator confessed to a whole bunch of stuff he didn't even do.

And later in Waco, Texas ATF agents attacked David Koresh and the Branch

Davidians with Nancy Sinatra's "These Boots Are Made For Walkin'." This, I think was a tactical error. They deployed the wrong Sinatra. I think a half day of Frank Sinatra Junior singing "I Did It My Dad's Way" and everybody surrenders including the FBI.

So far no arm of the U.S military has ever been forced to bring out the big guns of song - endless loops of the uncut version of "Louis Louis" or "The Chipmunks Christmas Song" played at high speed.

I believe the new Syrian strategy adopted by the United States and their coalition allies will not only bring down the regime of Bashar al-Assad but also drive ISIS back into the barren deserts of Northern Iraq. I hope I'm not giving away secret military information here but this strategic operation is code-named "Send In Celine." After three days of "My Heart Will Go On And On And On And On" white flags will be popping up from Turkey to Tuktoyaktuk.

The Scots, of course, in what might be the cruelest use of music to disable enemies, sent in the dreaded bagpipes. Trust me, once you've heard Robbie Burns' Favorite Farm Tunes, you quickly understand why Scotland, even to this day, remains invasion-free.

Last winter I was the guest speaker at an event held at a Canadian Legion where the head table was ceremoniously piped into the hall. It really was quite stirring but in the end, I'm still a humorist. When I got to the podium I tried to soften them up and set them up for a punch line by telling them I loved the bagpipes and half my CD collection is Great Highland aerophone music. They weren't buying any of it. So I thought, what the hell, even if you're a hit as a guest speaker, they seldom invite you back. So I went for it: "Let's remember, the musical definition of 'perfect pitch'," I said, "is when you throw the bagpipes into the trash bin and you hit the accordion on your first shot!" As I said, they hardly ever invite you back anyway.

Music should be appreciated, savored and downloaded but not like barrel bombs.

Hughes Secures Third Term

Voter turnout was above the national average in Algoma-Manitowlin-Kapuskasing in last week's federal election. Locally, 66% of voters made it to the polls, compared to 62% across Canada. The NDP's Carol Hughes was elected to a third term, while Espanola's own Heather Wilson (Liberal candidate) finished a close second.

Once the votes were tallied, the break-outs were: NDP 16,569 votes, compared to 18,747 in 2011. The Liberals secured 14,111 votes compared to just 5,347 in 2011. The Conservatives came in with 9,820, less than the 10,991 in 2011. And the Green Party received 927 compared with 1,130 in 2011.

Espanola Police Reports

On October 11 at 12:30 a.m., a member of the Espanola Police Service conducting a R.I.D.E. spot-check at Second Street and Mead Boulevard, Espanola, requested the driver's licence of a male driver passing through the spot-check. The male, in response to the request, stated that he'd forgot his wallet; however, a driver's licence check by the officer revealed that he was actually suspended by the Ministry of Transportation for Medical Reasons. As a result of driving while under suspension, the 48 year old from Grimsby, Ontario, was charged with Driving While Under Suspension contrary to the Highway Traffic Act. He will appear in Espanola Court on December 10, to answer to his charges.

On October 7 at 12:20 a.m., a member of the Espanola Police Service was conducting patrol on Centre Street, Espanola, when she observed a northbound vehicle travelling below the posted speed limit. The officer stopped the motor vehicle to check the sobriety of the driver, and discovered that he was a suspended driver for failing to complete the remedial program, as a result of an impaired driving conviction, and also a suspended driver for unpaid fines. The officer subsequently arrested the driver for Driving While Disqualified, and a search of his person located 2 grams of Marijuana inside his pocket. As a result of the incident, a 50 year old from Providence Bay was charged with Driving While Disqualified, contrary to the Criminal Code, Possession of a Controlled Substance contrary to the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act, and Driving While Under Suspension contrary to the Highway Traffic Act. He will appear in Espanola Court on December 1 to answer to his charges. Pursuant to statute, his motor vehicle was impounded for a period of 7 days.

On October 6 at 10:15 p.m., a member of the Espanola Police Service stopped a motor vehicle on Centre Street for a speeding violation, and while the officer was speaking to the driver, he detected the smell of an alcoholic beverage on her breath. The driver explained that the odour of alcohol was from consuming one alcoholic beverage 12 hours before, which was not believable. As a result, the officer administered a roadside screening device, which registered a reading within the "Warn" range. The 54 year old from Tehkummah Ontario had her licence suspended for a period of 3 days, and was charged with Speeding.

On October 2 at 2:00 p.m., a member of the public contacted the Espanola Police Service to report that the driver of a motor vehicle was smoking a cigarette inside, while in the accompaniment of two small children. The concerned citizen provided the plate number of the motor vehicle, and a description of the driver, which led the police to identify a 35 year old Espanola man as the person responsible. As a result of violating the Smoke-Free Ontario Act, which prohibits an occupant of a motor vehicle from smoking or having a lit cigarette inside while accompanied by another person who is less than 16 years old, the driver of the vehicle received a $155.00 fine.

Anyone with information on any of these crimes call Espanola Police Service at (705) 869-3251 or remain anonymous by calling Sudbury Rainbow Crime Stoppers locally at (705) 222-TIPS (8477) or toll free at 1-800-461-4899

Sisters Helping Sisters: The Shoebox Project

shelters across Canada. The gifts are not extravagant, rather little luxuries, such as scented soap, chocolates, mittens, a scarf, lipstick or gift cards. This year, MacDonald had expanded the project to include homeless men.

Those wishing to donate can do so in one of two ways: either by filling their own shoebox (or a box of equivalent size) with various items, then tying it with a ribbon (gift-wrapping is prohibited) or by donating singular items, to be included in boxes that MacDonald along with a group of volunteers will assemble.

Last year, Moose FM morning show host Rosalind Russell hosted a come-and-go on her birthday to collect shoeboxes. She plans to do the same this year, inviting everyone to the Moose studios at 90 Gray Street on November 17 from 10:00 a.m. – noon. She will have cupcakes and coffee for those who stop. Donors can drop off items, boxes or assist in assembling shoeboxes from already donated items.

The Sisters Helping Sisters Shoebox Project 2015 runs from October 28 to November 28 and there are several local locations to make your donations. Until 10:00 a.m. Monday – Friday at the Moose FM studios at 90 Gray Street, Espanola, or at the Espanola Public Library. In addition to the purchased items, donors are asked to include a note of encouragement to the recipient letting them know that the community supports them.

Yearly, over 10,000 women in 200 shelters across Canada have benefitted from the Shoebox Project. The goal this year is to reach out to both men and women in crisis. For more information, phone Donna MacDonald at 705-862-7599. She has also set up a Facebook page, Sisters Helping Sisters Espanola/Manitoulin Event.

The Espanola Express Junior A hockey team is powering forward with six new players that they've added to the roster. First the team picked up new defencemen Tyler Wicks, Shane Snow, Aaron Beauchamp, and Zachary Decontie. The players hail from Lake Tahoe to Fort Manawaki, Quebec. Express General Manager Chad Clarke also recently introduced two new forwards to the line up. They are Charlie Venedam and Patrick Smith. The six new faces come as the Express try to find their grove as a fledgling squad. "Most teams in the league have up to 10 - 15 veterans returning to their on purpose to make these additions as part of the plan, we just needed time to assess our core and find what spaces needed to be filled and are now looking to fill them." The Express are at home against Timmins this Friday night, October 30, at 7:00 p.m. for Pink In The Rink, highlighting Breast Cancer Awareness Month. The team will have special pink jerseys on hand for sale, along with pink frosted cupcakes. On Saturday, Halloween, Express players will join forces with the Espanola Volunteer Fire Department at their annual haunted fire hall on Second Avenue. The fun is open to everyone.

Recipe

My sister forwarded this recipe to me after her friend had made this for them at Thanksgiving. Her entire family loved it, and she requested the recipe. She recommended I put it in my column because it is delicious. You might think that a "roll" is complicated to make but it really isn't if you follow the directions. If your cake happens to crack when rolling it up, do not fret, just dust it with extra icing sugar before slicing it and nobody will know. A great Autumnal dessert that's fantastic served with a hot cup of coffee.

Pumpkin Roll

- ❖ 3 eggs
- ❖ 1 cup white sugar
- ❖ 2/3 cup canned pumpkin (puree, not pumpkin pie filling)
- ❖ 1 tsp lemon juice
- ❖ 3/4 cup flour
- ❖ 1 tsp baking powder
- ❖ 2 tsp cinnamon
- ❖ 1 tsp ginger
- ❖ 1/2 tsp nutmeg
- ❖ 1/2 tsp salt
- ❖ 1 cup chopped pecans

Filling

- ❖ 1 cup icing sugar
- ❖ 1 8oz cream cheese
- ❖ 4 tbsps butter or margarine
- ❖ 1/2 tsp vanilla

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F (175 degrees C). Line a large cookie sheet (that has sides) with foil and butter it, or line with parchment paper. In a mixing bowl, beat eggs on high for five minutes. Gradually add white sugar, pumpkin, and lemon juice. Add flour, salt, baking powder, cinnamon, ginger and nutmeg. Spread batter evenly in pan. Sprinkle pecans evenly on top, and press lightly into batter. Bake for 12 to 15 minutes or until it springs back when touched. Loosen edges with a knife. Turn out on two dishtowels that have been sprinkled generously with powdered sugar. Roll up the cake horizontally by rolling the towel inside cake and place seam side down to cool.

To Make Filling: Mix icing sugar, vanilla, butter or margarine, and cream cheese together till smooth. When cake is completely cooled, unroll and spread with cream cheese filling. Roll up again without towel. Wrap with plastic wrap and refrigerate until chilled, and ready to serve. Cut into 1 inch slices, and dust with extra icing sugar when serving.

HALLOWEEN SAFETY TIPS

1. Always use common sense.
2. Young children should always go trick-or-treating with an adult.
3. Never trick-or-treat alone. Have at least 2 buddies go with you.
4. Plan your entire route and make sure your family knows what it is.
5. Make sure that you are wearing a flame retardant costume.
6. Wait until you get home to eat your candy so that your parents can check it.
7. Be very cautious of strangers.
8. Accept treats only in the doorway. Never go inside a house.
9. Be sure and say thank you for your treats.
10. Don't play near lit jack-o-lanterns.
11. Visit only houses where the lights are on.
12. Walk, do not run.
13. Walk on sidewalks and driveways.
14. Cross the street at the corner or in a crosswalk.
15. Take a cell phone with you if possible.
16. Wear a watch.
17. Carry a flashlight.

SPOOKY SNACKS

SWAMP SLIME - Make green Jell-O. Put some of it in clear plastic containers and put some aside. When the Jell-O starts to solidify, add various gummy bugs. Beat the rest of the Jell-O to a froth and add to the top of the slime. Let set.

WITCHES HATS

Use a large, flat, dark cookie for the brim and an ice-cream sugar cone for the crown. Fill the cone with ice cream even to the rim and center it on top of the cookie.

TONGUES ON TOAST

8 slices white bread • 8 slices bologna • Mustard
Cut each slice of bread into the shape of lips, with a slit in the middle. Cut the bologna into strips that look like tongues. Insert the bologna into the slits in the lips (so it looks like the tongues are hanging out of the mouths). Cover the bread with mustard and broil until the bread is golden brown.

MONSTER BOLTS

Skewer cubes of various kinds of cheese with pretzel sticks.

DIRT

Put chocolate pudding in clear plastic containers and imbed a gummy worm or two. Cover the top of the pudding with crushed chocolate/cookie crumbs. It looks good if a worm is peeking out of the dirt too.

HALLOWEEN PARTY GAME

HAL O' WEEN AND HIS SQUISHY BODY

OBJECT OF THE GAME: You pass around paper cups to your guests while telling the story below. Do it in the dark or in a semi dark room and tell them they can't look in the cups. The cups are filled with gross "body parts" (food) and guests have to guess what it really is. After the lights are back on and everyone has finished writing down their guesses, collect the papers. As you check their guesses, you can show everyone what was really in the cups. Give a nice prize to the person with the most correct answers.

WHAT YOU NEED: Paper cups. The body parts (food) described below and a box of handy wipes for guests to clean their hands.

What To Do: Ahead of time, prepare the cups that are described below. Have everyone sit in a circle, then shut off most of the lights and start the story. You have to have the room fairly dark so that people cannot see what's inside of the cups. You can pass out paper and pencil at the beginning of the game and let them write down their guesses between each cup or you can have each player guess out loud between each cup. At the very end of the game, you can tell them what is in each cup, but wait until the end!!

HERE'S THE STORY: Tell the story as you pass around each cup. "Once in this town there lived a man named, Hal O' Ween. T' was years ago, on this very night that he was murdered out of spite. They say these are his remains."

HERE IS HIS BRAIN. WHICH NOW FEELS NO PAIN.
USE A PEELED SQUISHY TOMATO OR STEWED TOMATOES
HERE ARE HIS EYES. STILL SWOLLEN WITH SURPRISE.
USE TWO FROZEN, PEELED GRAPES OR BLACK OLIVES
HERE IS HIS HEART. BE CAREFUL LEST IT START!
USE A LARGE LUMP OF UNCOOKED LIVER OR SIMILAR MEAT
NOW WE HAVE HIS HAIR. WHICH ONCE WAS SO FAIR!
USE A HANDFUL OF CORN SILK OR WET FUR OR YARN
FEEL THESE DROPS OF HIS BLOOD. ALL THE REST TURNED TO MUD.
USE A LITTLE KETCHUP THINNED WITH WARM WATER
ONE HAND ALL ALONE. JUST ROTTING FLESH AND BONE.
USE A WET LATEX GLOVE FILLED WITH RED GELATIN
HERE IS HIS EAR. NEVERMORE WILL HE HEAR!
USE A DRIED APRICOT OR SIMILAR DRIED FRUIT
THIS IS HIS NOSE. NOW TO NEVER SMELL A ROSE
USE THE END OF A PICKLE, A HOT DOG OR A SOFT CHICKEN BONE OR CRISTLE
THESE WORMS ARE ALL THAT'S LEFT TO FEEL. FOR THEM HAL O'WEEN WAS A LOVELY MEAL!
USE COLD, WET SPAGHETTI
