Lions TV

Is Back!

By Grant Lewis - Here we are, the middle of September. Flowers are fading, leaves are changing, nights are cooling down, and people are rushing out to buy brand new bingo daubers! You mean you haven't bought yours yet? Just as predictable as the setting and rising of the sun, is the beginning of Lions TV bingo. Just to let you know you are not alone playing bingo. Over three million people play bingo in the U.K. every day. And you are in good company. The Queen, Prince William, Katherine Zeta Jones have been known to daub. That would be the "Royal Daub," of course. Actually, Jones was able to attend acting school thanks to her dad who won at bingo. Think of the possibilities in Espanola and area? The record number at one game was just over 60,000 keen players in the armoury in New York City. I don't think the Espanola complex can hold that many,

Book Titles That Make You Want To Listen To Music

Don't get me wrong, there are some wonderful books coming out this fall, tomes with great and intriguing titles like The Illegal by Lawrence Hill, John Irving's Avenue Of Mysteries and The Road To Little Dribbling by the irrepressible Bill Bryson. But seriously ... The Joy Of Uncircumcising! Books are supposed to be written to enlighten and entertain. They are not designed to make men cross their legs and stay locked like that until the sympathetic pain goes away. A title like that makes a man want to put that book back on the shelf and quickly replace it with CASTRATION - The Advantages and Disadvantages. Honestly, I had no idea the the market for male mutilation books was so big. (Believe it or not, Goodbye Testicles is an illustrated children's book that explains why Sparky wasn't feeling so hot, after he got back from the vet's.) Great books like A Fine Balance, Barney's Version and Larry's Party challenged for the Giller Prize. The Diagram Prize in Britain attracts the real odd ducks like Dandelions, Cream Sickles And Dope or How To Poo On A Date. That last title can be read two ways, both gross but one being way worse than the other. The Diagram Prize for book titles was founded in 1978 at the Frankfurt Book Fair with the winner being awarded a bottle of "fairly passable claret." The first author to win the bottle of red did so with Proceedings Of The Second International

Workshop On Nude Mice. A more recent winner - If You Want Closure In Your Relationship, Start With Your Legs. This one was also voted the oddest book title by Britain's Bookseller Magazine. When If You Want Closure In Your Relationship, Start With Your Legs won the award, readers became confused and thought it had been awarded the Diaphragm Prize. The author, Big Boom (not his real name) described it as 'a self-help book, written by a man for the benefit of women.' Right. Which is why he's not using his real name and living on the ferris wheel in Blackpool. How about I Was Tortured By The Pygmy Love Queen which I can only guess is something Keith Richards pays for every Thursday afternoon. You don't have to read Cheese Problems Solved. Assuming it's true, you can sleep better knowing that the curds and whey are getting along like two coagulating proteins on a warm Petri dish. So yeah, odd and convoluted book titles have their own award shows. Strange book titles seem to come in themes with Goblinproofing One's Chicken Coop going up against Pigeon Lofts Of North America in the same year. Also putting a lot of pressure on the judges were Male Genitalia Of Butterflies Of The Balkan Peninsula, The Life And Times Of The Penis and The Joy Of Sex: Pocket Edition with the last one begging the age-old question "...or are you just happy to see me?" How Tea Cozies Changed The World would likely attract the same small audience as Squid Recruitment Dynamics and How To Sharpen Pencils. Greek Rural Postmen And Their Cancellation Numbers has no appeal whatsoever except to my brother-in-law Danny who has requested a signed copy inscribed "To a fellow postie who also hates it when they change the damn number."

In the publishing house of hobbies and crafts you really need to be an avid gardener to appreciate the composted guide titled The Humanure Handbook. (This is where the horse follows you around with a shovel.) Knitting Historical Figures sounds boring while Still Stripping really is boring because it's a 'how to' book about quilting.

I imagine the reader who would buy What's Wrong With My Snake might also purchase How To Make Your own Shoes. And Ragnar's Guide To Home And Recreational Use Of High Explosives should never be given to your out-of-work brother-in-law who drinks a bit, especially if he's celebrating something.

Books with questions for titles like Was Hitler Ill? and Why Do Men Have Nipples? often come with answers that were cribbed by Captain Obvious. Some titles like Oral Sadism And The Vegetarian Personality are simply too weird for words. Boy Scouts In Bondage is an unfortunate mistake while Reusing Old Graves is a bit on the creepy side.

The Stray Shopping Carts Of Eastern North America may not get your attention but Fat Proudly - Writings Of Benjamin Franklin You Never Read In School is turning a few heads. Living With Crazy Buttocks conjures up all manner of insane images. It could be a memoir by Judi Dench's husband or the story of an organic pig farmer from Saskatchewan who enjoys rolling around with the porkers.

And it's safe to say that You Are Worthless was not written by motivational guru Tony Robbins and Come On Shore And We Will Kill You And Eat You by Christina Taylor was not endorsed by New Zealand Tourism, the country where the story is set. And no, Ductigami - The Art Of The Tape was not written by Red Green.

Sorry, but some books should be judged by their covers.

Espanola Town Council Report

By Chloe Kneer – Espanola council was presented with the final service delivery review by KPMG's Chas Anselmo last week. Anselmo began by thanking council for allowing him to reschedule his session after a family emergency forced the cancellation at the last meeting. "The final unanswered question," Anselmo said, "Is what is the plan moving forward?" He then addressed a major area of importance, a shifting tax burden, which he says is not unique to Espanola, rather it is a problem that many municipalities are facing. The biggest challenge going forward is that residents are now being required to shoulder more of the tax burden as large industrial and commercial ratepayers are paying less. He said taxation will also increase as grants decrease. Residents, he says, expressed that they are concerned with getting value for dollar, in other words, that the money they put towards taxes is spent wisely. Some of the concerns that were expressed during the public consultations that were held as part of the review included communication between the town and residents. Residents would like to know that the town is utilizing all platforms available to disseminate important information to them. Another topic that arose was but you are welcome to join us at the complex to play. You can buy your cards at the front desk; how easy is that? Cards are for sale at Mac's, Roger Rabbits Restaurant, Giant Tiger, Just Variety, Remedy's RX, Winkel's, Espanola General Hospital (Ladies Auxiliary), Tony's, Stewart's and the Eagles in Webbwood, and Burke's, Poirier's and Chute's in Massey. Did you know that most bingo players are pet lovers? Calling all you animal lovers.....if you really love your most cherished member of the family, play TV bingo for only $6.30 a card. Less than a can of Alpo or a box of Milkbones! Researchers have also proven that people play bingo solely for the social and fun aspect of the game. So if you are truly serious about lowering your blood pressure, play weekly on cable 10, every Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. starting September 30. Cheaper than a visit to the hospital! Please join over three million Brits who play Bingo everyday, all in the comfort of your own home. Bingo in the U.K. is called "housie" for good reason. Most important, however, is the fact that all proceeds go to the the Lions Club to help out our communities. Last year, over $40,000 was given back to families in need, kids at Christmas, and local initiatives. Remember, there are no taxes or dress code to play!!!

recreation, specifically the complex and pool. Those who participated in the public consultation were under the impression that recreation is very "pool-focused," and that they would like to see the entire complex utilized in activities as it is perceived as a "gem" for the community. They also felt that the pool's hours were too restrictive. Regarding the public works department, most residents are satisfied with the level of service received, but some would like to see more. Anselmo wrapped up the meeting by suggesting that council establish a committee to deal with all of the changes that could potentially be forthcoming. The committee would address strategic and operational aspects and report to council. Final approval of any changes in procedure or staff would have to be decided by council. Council also heard from a delegation of two residents who had previously addressed their concerns regarding the Habitat for Humanity Espanola build. They thanked council for listening to their previous concerns, then said they would not pursue opposition to the project any further as the issue has divided residents enough and they do not want taxpayer dollars to go towards fighting the measure. Habitat for Humanity will go before the Ontario Municipal Board with their appeal to the zoning application that was denied earlier this summer. Unless council reverses their decision in the meantime, the hearing is set for October 21.

Recipe

People love cheesecake but are often afraid to make it, thinking that it's difficult. It's really not that complicated if you follow the steps to prepare it and watch carefully while it's baking for signs that it is done. This is a classic cheesecake; it's rich, creamy and delicious.

Cherry Cheesecake

- ❖ 1-1/2 cups graham cracker crumbs
- ❖ 1/3 cup butter or margarine, melted
- ❖ 1 cup sugar
- ❖ 1 tsp. vanilla
- ❖ 3 Tbsp. sugar
- ❖ 4 pkg. (8 oz. each) cream cheese, softened
- ❖ 4 eggs

Heat oven to 325°F. Mix graham crumbs, 3 tbsp. sugar and butter; press onto bottom of 9-inch spring form pan. Beat cream cheese, 1 cup sugar and vanilla with mixer until blended. Add eggs, 1 at a time, mixing on low speed after each just until blended. Pour over crust. Bake 55 min. or until center is almost set, should be golden brown and dry looking on the top. Check frequently. Cake can be refrigerated and eaten like this. Just run a knife around the rim of pan to loosen cake; cool before removing rim, and refrigerate cheesecake 4 hours before serving. Or you can make a topping as follows after you remove it from the oven.

Topping

- ❖ 2 cups sour cream
- ❖ 1 can cherry pie filling
- ❖ 1/2 cup sugar

Mix together the sour cream and sugar with beater. Pour on top of cake. Return pan to oven for 5 minutes longer. Run a knife around the rim of the pan to loosen cake. Let cool for several hours. Spread cherry pie filling on top. Refrigerate. Remove from spring form pan before serving.

By Chloe Kneer - Espanola Town Council officially affirmed September as Ovarian Cancer Awareness Month in the municipality. On Wednesday, September 9, the teal Ovarian Cancer Awareness flag was again hoisted atop the pole at the town hall to bring attention to the nearly 3,000 women who are diagnosed with ovarian cancer each year in Canada. Local resident Lisa Gamelin is one of those women. Gamelin founded the Ovarian Cancer Awareness Walk (OCAW) three years ago. She also manages the Beautiful Teal Toes for Beautiful People Facebook page which gives updates on events related to the fundraising that she has spear-headed for the Sam Bruno PET scanner fund. Fortunately, Gamelin is in remission now, but she soldiers on in her endeavour to educate, advocate and raise money for the cause. This year's OCAW is happening with a twist and a combination of efforts in order to create the new Walking in Circles Rainbow Campaign. Teaming up with OCAW are the Espanola Express Junior

A hockey team and local radio station The Moose 99.3, who are not only highlighting ovarian cancer during the campaign, but all cancers, including childhood cancers which have affected families along the North Shore. Friday, September 25 has been dubbed Express Rainbow Cancer Awareness night at the Espanola Express hockey game. The track and field adjacent to the complex will be glowing with all of the colours of the rainbow, symbolizing the various coloured ribbons associated with different types of cancer. Supporters are being asked to wear the colour that represents the cancer which has affected their lives, and will exit the arena at the first intermission of the game (meet in the lobby at 7:30 p.m. if you're not attending the game). In the lead up to the walk, volunteers will be selling fabric butterflies that will adorn the Tree of Life, which will be on display at the Espanola complex lobby. The butterflies are available at Rusty's Café in the Espanola Mall or at The Moose radio studio at 90 Gray Street, Espanola.

After working as a paramedic in Sudbury for 7 years, she was accepted to the veterinary program in Edinburgh which she completed this spring.

Sables-Spanish Rivers Township Awarded Recreation Funding

Through a grant from the Royal Bank of Canada's (RBC) Learn to Play initiative, the Township of Sables-Spanish Rivers recently received $2,500 to expand their atomic volleyball program for teens ages 12-17. Program Coordinator Kelli Bracken said that last winter's program was so well-attended that she hopes to use the funds to open an outdoor volleyball court so that the sport can be played year-round in the township. "We also hope to bring some of the sports programs we initiated in Massey at St. Mary School to Webbwood," she said. Urban poling will start up after Thanksgiving and basketball will also be back.
