JEAN COUNTRY

Last Original Retail Store Leaving Espanola Mall

"But don't worry folks" says Kyle Hoddy, owner of Jean Country, "we're not going far!"

Jean Country's location has been your local spot for jeans over the past 40 years. When the Espanola Mall was built in 1976, the first original jean store was opened: Jeans Unlimited. After over 20 years in business, in December 2000, the store was purchased and rebranded to become Jean Country.

In their last 17 years of business, Hoddy and his team have not only been carrying your favourite brands of jeans for him and her of all ages, but they have also greatly expanded their merchandise. At Jean Country you can find footwear for all seasons, outerwear, handbags, jewellery, accessories, and much more.

Jean Country has always strived to provide their customers with a wide variety of products. When interviewed, Hoddy claimed, "The biggest challenge has always been not having enough retail floor space for all of our fabulous merchandise." To combat this challenge, Hoddy explained that him and his team "Were taking an opportunity to move to a location that offers more accessibility for their clients, more floor space for retail, and better product display."

"Even though we are very sad to leave

Canada 150 Mosaic Mural

The whole nation is gearing up to celebrate Canada's 150th anniversary this year and Espanola is no exception. Residents are invited to participate in a free tile painting workshop at the Espanola Legion on Friday, February 10 and Saturday, February 11 from 9:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m. The community's painted tiles will then become part of the Canada 150 Mosaic Mural. The Canada 150 Mosaic Mural will be one of the biggest collaborative murals ever created in Canadian history and will unite Canadians from coast to coast. No painting skill is necessary; the workshop is free; and individuals, families, organizations, teams, or businesses can register to take part in one of the free one-hour painting sessions. Just phone 705-869-1961 or go to www.espanola.ca to sign up by Friday, February 3.

The Trudeau/Trump Meeting – I Took Notes!

Trudeau: "A warm welcome to Canada, Mr. President on behalf of all Canadians."

Trump: "Thank you and let me say how much I admired your father, The Honorable Peter Trudeau."

Trudeau: "Thank you, but I believe you once referred to him as a snivelling, Commie pinko stiff with needle marks on his arms."

Trump: "No, I said your father was a great guy, a great man who did a great job for Canada. Now, the media who said I said that – there's your bunch of dishonest, snivelling stiff right there! They're disgraceful people. Wolf Blitzer off camera ... he picks his nose like a two-year-old with a head cold. Disgraceful."

Trudeau: "I believe we have a common acquaintance. The Honorable Brian Mulroney?"

Trump: "Lyin' Brian. We get along great. He's my neighbour down in Naples, Florida. Great guy. But his buddy, that Karl Heinz Schreiber – those two get drinkin' and singin' The Airbus Song ... You wanna' be a millionaire, then ten percent off the top if fair."

Trudeau: "Interesting."

Trump: "The noise of those two, my wife is tossing and turning half the night."

Trudeau: "Melania doesn't sleep well."

Trump: "Did I say 'wife'? I meant Ivanka, my daughter."

Trump: "By the way I had way more people cheering for me out there on the lawn than you did. Sorry, but even Clinton and Obama combined never had a crowd that size in the streets of Ottawa cheering for them."

Trudeau: "Actually those were protesters and the fires from hanging you in effigy have now spread across the river into Hull."

Trump: "They still count. I got bigger crowds here than the Pope did!"

Trudeau: "The Pope's never been here!"

Trump: "Of course he hasn't. He knows he can't top my numbers. I could out-crowd-size the Pope in the Vatican on Easter Sunday. No contest. Okay, so I'm here to rip that trade thing we got and ..."

Trudeau: "Of course you are, but might I just say ... seeing your hair up close and in person, well, it's ... it's magnificent!"

Trump: "Really. You think so?"

Trudeau: "Oh yeah, you can almost smell the strawberries in the blond and it appears to go in many different directions at the same time but the bow comes right at you like an aircraft carrier. Truly amazing! It speaks to strength and military incursion."

Trump: "Takes three people an hour and a half every morning, but I think it's worth it. By the way, you've got a nice head of hair yourself."

Trudeau: "Thank you. My predecessor Stephen Harper thought so too. He mentioned my hair in all his campaign ads."

Trump: "That's weird. I encouraged my supporters to set Hillary's on fire."

A voice from nowhere booms: "Obopntb rpomye!"

Trudeau: "What the hell was that?"

Trump: "The Russians. They say you're not speaking loud enough."

Trudeau: "Man, those guys have you tied up fifteen ways from centre!"

Trump: "So you've seen the video too. I'm surprised you'd stoop so low – accepting classified materials through the back channels of espionage."

Trudeau: "Actually it's on Netflix."

Trump: "Those ties the girls used to tie me to the bed, they were not made in China. The media made that up. And the women? My call girls have like the highest IQ's of any hookers in the world! They're great. They do a great job."

Trudeau: "They certainly seem to know what they're doing."

Trump: "So, as you know I'm here to tear up that BAFTA thing we got going ..."

Trudeau: "Actually BAFTA is like the British Oscars award show. NAFTA is short for North American Free Trade Agreement."

Trump: "Yeah, well what the hell. Now that we're here, let's rip 'em both up."

Trudeau: "Mr. President ... I could tell you that NAFTA is the most mutually beneficial trade agreement between any three countries in the world and I could tell you that by tearing up the agreement, we risk serious unemployment in both our countries and the possible implosion of Mexico bringing a civil war to your southern doorstep."

Trump: "Yeah, so what?"

Trudeau: "But what I really want to tell you is there are three very hot chicks waiting for you in your Presidential Suite at the Ritz Carlton."

Trump: "Right now?"

Trudeau: "Right this minute. Now just sign this silly working paper and we're all done here."

Trump: "But what am I signing?"

Trudeau: "Just the usual stuff two guys with great hair have to sign every day. You know ... agree to respect ... blah blah blah ... status quo ... bunch of hats that say "Make America Straight Again."

Trump: "I like that! Did you say three chicks?"

Trudeau: "Canada gets final veto ... 100% of all vehicles assembled north of the 49th parallel ... Bunch of T-shirts that say: 'Best Endowed President Ever!' Period!"

Trump: "Sweet. They're blonde right?"

Trudeau: "Three of them and they've been hydrating for hours."

With that President Donald J. Trump bolts for the door, dashes back to sign the all-new and amended NAFTA document and exits on the run. Hey, it worked for the Russians.

How Does Your Garden Grow? Horticultural Society Meeting February 6

By Grant Lewis - All gardeners, both experienced and novice, often wonder, "What can I plant there?!" There are so many variables to consider: sun, soil, moisture, wind, height, colour, texture, and, of course, blooming time. The Espanola Horticultural Society believes we can help...well, actually with the help of James St. John. James is a graduate of the horticulture technician program at Cambrian College. He has honed his gardening skills at local nurseries and garden centres. His work as a landscaper led him to his present position as Superintendent of Horticulture for Greater Sudbury. He has held this position since 2011.

The Horticultural Society is thrilled to have James as our guest speaker in February. He'll address soil conditions, microclimates, and favourite websites. Actually he'll address everything and will answer any gardening questions you care to bring along. Sort of like the Ed Lawrence of Sudbury! James is responsible for all the flower beds, grass cutting, parks, and beaches of Greater Sudbury. With this wealth of knowledge and experience, he will be sure to help us all. Please join us on Monday, February 6 at 7:00 p.m. at Queensway Pentecostal Church in Espanola. Bring your questions and your friends.

The One Tot Stop Day Care in Espanola has infant, toddler, preschool and school age spaces available.

IN MEMORIAM

In Loving Memory of
RONALD COURTEMACHE
April 5, 1937 – February 1, 2012
His smiling way and pleasant face
Are a pleasure to recall,
He had a kindly word for each
And he died beloved by all.
Some day we hope to meet him,
Some day, we know not when,
To clasp his hands in the better land,
Never to part again.

Recipe

You can't go wrong with a chocolate and peanut butter combination dessert. Everybody loves this brownie. You can double the recipe to make a 9 x 13 pan and I suggest that you do so because it will be gobbled up in no time! Delicious with a cold glass of milk.

Chocolate Peanut Butter Brownies

Brownie:

- 2 squares of unsweetened chocolate
- ½ cup butter or margarine
- 2 eggs
- 1 cup sugar
- ½ cup of flour

Frosting:

- ½ cup icing sugar
- ½ cup peanut butter
- ¼ cup butter
- 2 to 3 tbsp milk

Drizzle:

- 1 square of semi-sweet chocolate
- 1 tbsp butter.

Grease and flour an 8 x 8 square pan. In a small saucepan over low heat, melt the 2 squares of unsweetened chocolate with the butter and let cool. When cooled add the 2 eggs, 1 cup sugar, and ½ cup of flour and mix well. Pour into prepared pan and bake at 350 degrees for 25 minutes. Take out of oven and cool. Meanwhile prepare the frosting by creaming together the icing sugar, peanut butter, butter and milk. Spread frosting on cooled brownie. Melt the 1 square of semi-sweet chocolate with the 1 tbsp of butter and drizzle over top of the brownie. Once the drizzle has set, cut brownie into squares.
