Trump – Predictions for 2018

Predicting the future of President Donald Trump should not be too difficult because he follows certain behaviour patterns that are constant and reliable. Like his sexual abuse of women, his bromance with Vlad "The Blackmailer" Putin, his demeaning people of colour, his disrespect for democracy, his political support for child molesters, his jealousy of anything with Obama's name on it, his need to turn anything natural and green into a money-maker the colour of coal and his staggering ignorance of anything more complicated than a hula hoop.

But enough about Trump's good points. With the Democrats sadly relegated to the sidelines, 2018 should be a banner year for Trump and his base of 50 million gun-loving, God-fearing, bumper-sticker philosophers. Here we go ...

- By the end of 2018, Donald Trump will receive the Ignoble Prize for advancing national stupidity, overt racism and gun violence more than Sarah Palin, the Ku Klux Klan and the NRA. The award will describe him as "a one-man march back to the dark ages of tribalism."
- By the end of his second year in office, President Trump will double his vocabulary by inserting the word "really" in front of "great." So Melania will be "really great", Steve Bannon "really, really not-so-great" and Mike Pence "really, really, really great the likes of which we've never seen before."

- In the first month of 2018 Trump will repeat "no collusion with Russia!" over three hundred times, fire Special Counsel Robert Mueller and replace him with former Russian ambassador to the U.S. Sergey Kislyak.

- President Trump will respond to Fire And Fury, a book that makes him look like a lunatic by writing his own book. A Staple Genius shows him smiling confidently in the oval office with his right hand stapled to his desk and bleeding.

- Fearing his puppy love, oath of loyalty to Trump was somehow not enough, Vice President Mike Pence will kiss the president's ass at a special White House ceremony presided over by Reverend Will Graham.

- President Trump will refer to his former wife Ivana as "a skank and the illegitimate mother of my children" when he finds out she signed up for Obamacare.

- Secretary of State Rex Tillerson will collect on a ten dollar bet he made with Donald Trump that Puerto Rico was indeed part of America.

- When informed that yet another journalist has been killed in Putin's Russia bringing the total to 35 since the year 2000, Trump will characterize it as "a good start".

- Continuing to deny any member of his family are out for profit from his presidency, Trump will patrol Pennsylvania Avenue wearing a sign board that promotes: "$599 Couples Weekend At The All-New Trump Camp David Resort & Casino."

- Denying any collusion with fellow sexual assaulters, Trump will pardon Bill Cosby claiming he did it because 'black lives matter.'
- Tiffany the largely-ignored other Trump daughter will be bitten by an alligator at Mar-a-Lago where her father promised but then forgot to drain the backyard swamp.
- Donald Trump will, as he always said he could, shoot somebody on Fifth Avenue and get away with it after 50 million of his faithful show up in court and swear he didn't do it.
- In Phase Two of his tax reform bill, Trump will mandate that the biggest corporations and richest individuals in America pay no taxes whatsoever, but each must provide donation jars for the poor and middle class at the front door of their offices.
- President Trump will move the U.S. Embassy in Canada from Ottawa to Toronto, where, with 20-foot high letters it will be called The Trump Diplomacy Tower selling "Make America Great Again" hats and preferred shares in the U.S. Treasury.
- As he approaches the mid-term elections, Donald Trump will make a statement that is actually true, just to prove to Democrats he can!
- Trump will fire Press Secretary Sarah Huckabee Sanders and replace her with Sean Spicer claiming Spicer "is better at delivering alternative facts with a straight face."
- In an angry first statement Spicer will claim that "Without a shred of doubt, this president has the biggest manhood of any president ever! Period!"

- After being fired for a second time, Spicer will deny this statement, claiming he used the word "driftwood" as in, this president has the biggest collection of driftwood of any president ..."
- Entering the genius/moron debate Melania will say: "A man must be a very great genius to make up for being a loathsome human being." She will immediately be accused of plagiarism since it was Martha Gellhorn who said that about Ernest Hemingway.
- And finally, as the year 2018 comes to a close and his approval rating is at .19%, President Donald Trump will meet face to face with Kim Jong-un on a remote island of The Philippines to resolve the issues of North Korea's nuclear weapons and U.S. sanctions. Unable to stand the sight of the two ugliest haircuts on the planet, both country's secret service agents open fire on the two leaders. There are no survivors. Minutes after his death, President Trump tweets that he killed Kim Jong-un with his bare hands, using a highly explosive racial slur to describe his archival. My long range prediction: Don Trump will go down in history as the greatest leader in U.S. history provided a majority of Americans choose to stop evolving and instead, regress into ethnic and religious tribalism and survival of the richest. Period.

Espanola Council Honours Two Local Heroes

Andrew swam out while Hunda called 911.

When Dagg got to him, the elderly man was barely holding on to his boat.

He was wearing a life jacket, but after being in the water so long, he was exhausted.

Dagg managed to get him to the shore while waiting for the OPP and ambulance.

The victim recovered from his ordeal and Dagg is also getting a recommendation for a citation of bravery from the OPP.

And, on July 26th, 2017, Sheldon George rescued a family and their pets when their Queensway Avenue home was consumed by fire.

George is credited with waking up the Elgren family on the Queensway Avenue, then single-handedly rescuing their three dogs.

The Marguerite Street resident was walking home around 1:00 am from a neighbour's house when his girlfriend noticed the fire across the ball field at the Queensway Avenue home.

His girlfriend, Morgan Bidal, got the neighbour to call the fire department.

He banged on the door and kept yelling until the mother came to the door with two children.

Then, George went into the house, not once, but three times to rescue the family's three dogs.

George found out later that there was also a hamster, which was rescued by the firemen.

George was treated for minor smoke inhalation, but recovered fully.

Mayor Piche acknowledged these special acts of bravery stating, "you are both heroes and we are proud of both of you, you are our very own heroes."

Rainbow Schools challenged to evaluate conservation and waste practices

To kick-off the new year, Rainbow District School Board is challenging schools to conduct an EcoReview of energy conservation and waste minimization.

School green clubs will visit classrooms, offices, lunchrooms and gyms to document lighting, electricity, heating, cooling and recycling. These evaluations are required for certification in the Ontario EcoSchools program.

To be eligible, walkabout worksheets must be completed and submitted through the EcoSchools website by Friday, January 26, 2018.

This Go Green challenge is part of the Environmental Committee's ongoing efforts to encourage sustainable practices and increase awareness about waste and conservation in schools.

"This particular challenge provides schools with a real-time assessment of their day-to-day environmental practices," says Director of Education Norm Blaseg.

He adds: "This tangible evaluation will enable schools to become that much more accountable for their ecological efforts. It will provide another opportunity to set goals and targets for ongoing improvements."

Rainbow District School Board's Environmental Committee issues monthly challenges to staff and students throughout the school year.

Last month, Rainbow Schools took part in the Warm Kids Caring Community Challenge. What will next month's challenge be?

A Massey couple is doing the happy dance.

Janet and Kenneth Steinke of Massey are celebrating after winning the $1 Million Prize from the October 11, 2017 LOTTO 6/49 draw.

Their prize was delayed because a family member worked at the place where the ticket was purchased.

The Steinke's were finally presented with their cheque this week.

The winning ticket was purchased at Poirer's Confectionary on Imperial Street in Massey.

Recipe

Are you having guests for supper, going to a potluck, or just need a delicious side dish for weekday dinners? You can't go wrong with creamy, cheesy, mashed potatoes. These potatoes go well with just about everything and for convenience you can prepare them ahead and pop them into the oven right before dinner; just be sure to take them out of the fridge ahead of time to come to room temperature first OR extend the baking time if they are cold out of the fridge.

Sour Cream & Cheddar Baked Mashed Potatoes (serves 8 – 10)

- 5 lbs. Russet Potatoes, peeled, rinsed and quartered
- 4 Tbsp. unsalted butter
- 1 (16. oz.) container sour cream
- 1 1/4 cups 2 % milk
- 1 tsp. salt
- 2 1/2 cup freshly grated Sharp Cheddar Cheese, divided (or your favourite bold cheese, old is good also)

In a large pot, cover the potatoes with cold water, bring to a boil and cook until you can easily pierce with a fork (about 35 minutes or so). Pre heat your oven to 350 degrees. Drain potatoes and return to the pot. Using a potato masher, give the potatoes a quick mash. Add the butter, half of the sour cream and half of the milk and start whipping them with a hand held mixer. Add the remaining sour cream and milk, whip together until well blended. Add the salt and 1 cup of the cheese. Whip together until blended. Spray a 9 x 13 baking dish with cooking spray and spoon the potatoes into the dish evenly. Sprinkle the potatoes with the remaining 1 1/2 cups of Sharp Cheddar cheese and cover with foil being careful not to touch the cheese. Bake for 20-25 minutes or until the cheese is melted and bubbly. Remove from the oven and keep covered until you are ready to serve.
