Espanola Council Votes OPP

By Rosalind Russell - Espanola Council unanimously voted to disband the Espanola Police Service and switch to Ontario Provincial Police. Espanola Mayor Ron Piche was not in attendance for the April 24th meeting, but no reason was given publicly for his absence. However, family members confirm he had open heart surgery and is in recovery. Councillor Ron Duplessis summarized the direction council took in making its decision. Duplessis says the projected savings of $5 million put together by CAO Cynthia Townsend and staff has been verified by KPMG, the fourth largest accounting firm in the world, and the decision making process relies on that expertise. He adds the issue will divide families, organizations, workplace relationships,

A Lawn Sale Right Here On Paper

So, let's say you read in this newspaper that I'm having a lawn sale. All of a sudden that's you, coming up my driveway at seven in the morning when the ad clearly stated a start time of 8:30 am. And now instead of helping me with the damn knickknack table, you're going through stuff that I haven't even gone through. You make an offer: "Will you take a toonie for that?!" And I'm tempted until you explain that you meant the 2017 Subaru Crosstrek that's parked next to the box of books. Lawn sale people should be bonded.

So, we're going to do this another way – arm's length, on paper right here, right now and civilized. I'm doing a serious downsize and there are certain items I'd rather not send to a recycle plant or a landfill.

On a first come, first served basis, email me if you want any of the following stuff (read "junk with personal attachment") and we will sort out delivery later.

I have these two lamps which everybody hates but me. I think they're beautiful in a tacky sort of way. They're bright brass with shades of long, stained glass petals which feature a light blue and tan flower motif. And ... all you do is touch them and they come on, or off. Tell my why you need these lamps and how you'll give them a special place in your home forever and a day and they're yours ... for free. If you want to haggle on the price, I'll go as high as five bucks for you to take them off my hands!

"I am the cash man!" I'll give you money for for nothing. I have a heavy handful of foreign coins ... likes pesetas and escudos that are now souvenirs.

VHS tapes. Some great movies. (I reserve the right to come by unannounced with a bowl of popcorn and cold beer.)

Hiking boots, two pairs, size 10/10.5, L.L. Bean. I wished I could say "Walk a mile in my shoes." But you can't because they're brand new!

Two sleeping bags in good shape. Never been used to play the game Dutch Oven. Honest.

A large framed photograph of me and my dog Jake as seen on the cover of The Dog Rules – Damn Near Everything! Show me a copy of my book and you get the original cover photo signed. Yeah, that's what I thought ... landfill, right?

Three Candidates For Algoma-Manitoulin Riding To Take On Mantha

With the election just over 46 days away, three parties have named their candidates for the Ontario election.

Little Current businessman, Jib Turner, was appointed as candidate for Algoma-Manitoulin by Ontario Progressive Conservative (PC) Party leader Doug Ford.

Turner is a fifth-generation owner of Turners of Little Current and has been a long-time member of the PCs.

Tommy Lee, will be the Northern Ontario Party (NOP) candidate for Algoma-Manitoulin in the provincial elections taking place June 7.

Party President, born, raised, and residing in the central Algoma area, Lee will push a platform to make Northern Ontario a power in its own right.

Justin Tilson is also representing the Green Party in this election. Tilson is an entrepreneur, IT professional and not for profit director born and raised on Manitoulin Island.

The Liberal Party has not named or appointed a candidate for the riding as of press time.

The candidates will take on incumbent New Democrat Mike Mantha, who was first elected in 2011.

A black and white original sketch by artist Tom Banwell of me and my brother-in-law driving through the Portuguese section of my book Guys – Not Real Bright And Damn Proud Of It! A book. Not just any book, but your debut novel. The outline, first chapter and all the research material you need to write a great book set in Mexico about surviving in a symbiotic relationship. "The Old Man And The Pelican."

A complete set of every edition of What's Up Niagara ever published from the Barbara Frum cover (1981) to the Trivial Pursuit Four (1985). (St. Catharines Historical Museum! Are you reading this!?) I have an antique bed. Oak,

Other stuff. Admit that you're a hoarder and I'll give you a whole bunch of stuff you do not need and should not have. Hoarding is an obsession with inanimate objects. I am your enabler.

Oh yeah, I almost forgot. I'm looking for a new part-time assistant with some computer and marketing skills from the Wainfleet/Port Colborne area. The pay is not very good, but the perks are ... are also not very good. Send a one-page bio to my website below.

First to email me, first served. I think this will actually work despite the dirty looks I'm getting from the people at 1-800-GOT-JUNK. The point is, if I can get my stuff into the hands of someone to whom it will bring a moment of joy or a lifetime of happiness, then ... naw. I just wanna get rid of this crap.

Around 100 people attended celebrations of the platinum, that is 70 year, anniversary of the Espanola Lions Club held at the Pinewood Motor Inn in late April. The evening was held to celebrate their Charter & Awards Night, as well as to present several organizations and/or individuals with commemorative certificates for their support of Lionism over the years.

A special presentation was made to Dario Laurenti who has served for almost 30 years and has been involved in many Lion initiatives including the popular local Senior Dinner.

He was presented with the Melvin Jones Fellowship Award - well deserved. Lions Clubs world-wide recognize outstanding individuals

Espanola Council Continuing Discussions On Fire Hall Options

By Rosalind Russell - Espanola Council will be reviewing the latest report for a new fire hall.

Espanola Fire Chief Mike Pichor had already presented one design plan, but was asked by council for a revamped proposal, smaller in size and less expensive, which he presented to council at its regular meeting on April 25th. He says the estimated cost for the latest design is $2,160,000, but will meet the new standards and have the room the department needs.

However, Councillor Ray Dufour believes it is still too big and too costly and says he won't vote in favour. He wants to see yet a smaller footprint and more cost savings when it comes to building a new fire hall.

Councillor Ron Duplessis also pointed out that there has been a fair amount of time spent on the issue and believes council should speed up the process. meeting every two weeks, rather than once a month to discuss the issue.

Council reached a consensus on that particular issue and in the end, decided to review the report and other options at a special meeting.

They also asked the CAO to provide a cost comparison of the options for their review.

Deputy Mayor Bill Foster also thanked an Espanola construction company who came forward to provide a design and cost of their own for the new building. Foster says they appreciate the effort and will look at, but made the point that once a decision is made, the project will go to tender.

Espanola Council Votes OPP

and it is going to displace some people in the community, but the decision has to be based on what is good for all the community.

The Town of Espanola and the OPP have to sign the contract. Once that is done, those two parties and the Espanola Police Service Board will apply to the Ontario Civilian Police Commission for approval.

The commission ensures an agreement is in place between the Espanola Police Service Board and Espanola Police Service employees in respect to severances or arbitration.

A full transition to OPP is anticipated to take place by January, 2019.

Renovations to both the OPP detachment on Highway 17 and the Espanola Police Service building in downtown Espanola are also part of the deal at an estimated $450,000.

The seven dispatchers with the municipal service, four full-time and three part-time, will all lose their positions. Dispatching would be handled out of the North Bay Communication Centre through the 911 access number. However, the Town will also have to look at contracting out for fire dispatch, and other arrangements will also have to be made for hydro or gas emergencies, which were handled by the local dispatchers in the past.

To review the complete proposal for policing, go to: https://www.espanola.ca/files/Police/Police_Options_April_19_slides.pdf

Recipe

I had a request for some healthy recipes for make ahead lunches or light dinners. After some research and taste testing, here is my first recipe for you. Loaded with fresh veggies and drizzled in a light homemade dressing, these tasty vegetarian Greek Quinoa Bowls make healthy eating simple and delicious. Add your favourite toppings; dollops of hummus, chopped fresh tomatoes, sliced avocados, black or Kalamata olives and have some pita wedges on the side for scooping. This recipe can also be made in advance into a salad and enjoyed for weekday lunches or as a side dish for dinner.

Greek Quinoa Bowls

- 1 cup quinoa
- 1 + 1/2 cups water
- 1 cup chopped green bell pepper
- 1 cup chopped red bell pepper
- 1/3 cup crumbled feta cheese
- 1/4 cup extra virgin olive oil
- 2-3 TBSP apple cider vinegar
- salt and pepper, to taste
- 1-2 TBSP fresh parsley

Toppings

- Hummus
- Pita wedges
- Olives
- Fresh tomatoes
- Sliced or chopped avocado
- Lemon wedges

First rinse and drain your quinoa using a sieve. Bring a medium saucepan to medium heat and lightly toast the quinoa to remove any excess water. Stir as it toasts for just a few minutes. This step is optional but really adds to the nuttiness and fluff factor of the quinoa. Next add your water, set burner to high, and bring to a boil. Once boiling, reduce heat to low and simmer, covered with the lid slightly ajar, for 12-13 minutes or until quinoa is fluffy and the liquid has been absorbed. While the quinoa cooks, chop and prep the remaining ingredients and whisk together your dressing ingredients. Fluff the quinoa with a fork. For a chilled salad, you can pop the quinoa in the fridge for a few minutes prior to adding the peppers and feta cheese or simply let it cool on the countertop for a few minutes for a room temperature quinoa bowl.

For the vinaigrette; whisk together olive oil, apple cider vinegar, salt, and pepper. Pour over your quinoa bowl and toss. Add any additional salt and pepper to taste, if desired.

To make Quinoa bowls: scoop quinoa into a bowl and top with your desired toppings.

Always, we will remember...
