Huron Central Railway Can Run Another Year

By Rosalind Russell - The rail line that accesses Nairn Centre, Espanola and Sault Ste. Marie will run for another year, thanks to funding from the upper governments. In May 2018, Genesee & Wyoming Canada Inc. announced that without the necessary provincial funding to maintain its Huron Central Railway it would discontinue those operations by the end of 2018. As a result, a task force was created in an effort to secure the provincial funding needed to protect the jobs and economy of those relying heavily on this short line railway. The HCR runs from the City of Greater Sudbury through to Sault Ste Marie. In mid-November, members of the Task Force were in attendance to hear Northern Ontario Heritage Fund Corp announce that funding will be granted to Genesee & Wyoming Canada Inc. "The Town of Espanola is pleased with the announcement of $980,000 in funding from the Heritage Fund to Huron Central

Wanna Be Younger By 20 Years? Easy Peasy ... Math

Emile Ratelband is a senior citizen and a pretty smart guy. He's also a professional motivational speaker which to my mind is really just an overpaid cheerleader without the pompons.

A Dutchman from Arnhem, Emile claims his good genes and healthy lifestyle make him feel 20 years younger than his chronological age of 69. Doctors have confirmed he has the body of a 45-year-old man. Naturally this man wants to be 49 instead of 69. Unnaturally, he wants a court of law in the Netherlands to legally make that age change. Emile is in such great shape that he frequently refers to himself as a "young god" which means if he's unsuccessful in his court challenge he is certainly delusional enough to become president of the United States.

His reasoning in applying to be officially 49 again is that if you can legally change your name from say, Cheryl Sarkisian Jr. to John Denver then why can't you change your age. He further argues that if people who are uncomfortable with their sex can now legally be transgendered then why can't he be 'transaged'. Citing age discrimination, he wants his biological age to trump his chronological age and he's asking the court to have his date of birth changed from March 11, 1949 to March 11, 1969. Emile Ratelband may not be as young as a pup but he's definitely as clever as a fox.

The real reason behind Emile's "age fluid" movement is that he'll garner more responses on his Tinder dating service if women are convinced that he's 45 and not 65. Okay but the other side of that coin is that if you go to dinner on your first date you can forget about ordering "The Early Bird Special." Plus you can't double dip. You can't say you are 49 but ask for the senior citizen's discount at the cinema. And you better get used to customs officials looking at your passport and saying: "Really? 49? Man, you must have had a real rough life!"

"Age fluid" is how the Dutchman sees society accepting his mathematical solution to unfair aging which sounds a lot like Trump's pitbull Kellyanne Conway categorizing blatant lies as "alternative facts." Besides we already have age fluid and although it is not curable it is controllable with a pair of Depends.

And if you go "age fluid" but your wife refuses to participate in this numerical fantasy, you can count on sleeping on the couch for the next 20 years and trust me, back pain does not respond to an eraser.

If you thought you were already confused about the Old Age Security and Old Age Pension just wait until the Canadian Revenue Agency receives your application with your new, much younger age. You'll wind up red flagged on their Employment Insurance list with a disability and an audit! Online dating services will be thrilled with the new "Age Fluid" ruling because as far as I can tell, these people are already lying about their ages by a decade or two! But if you are declared 20 years younger, will Walmart Photo Centre be required to air brush all your photos to match your new number.

And if yesterday you were 69 but today you're 49 will your pharmacy give you a refund on your last prescription of Viagra now that you no longer need it? You might negotiate a credit but ... good for another 20 years!!! I don't think so.

Emile Ratelband is on record as saying he plans to live until he's 94 but it's unclear if these are real years or "young god" years which would see him still online dating at the age of 114. But by then Tinder will be called Tender with a membership of three people. All females.

Maybe Emile just has to take a deep breath and inhale the wisdom of Satchel Paige whose longevity in playing through Negro league baseball and later Major League Baseball made him one of the greatest pitchers in the game. Said the ageless Hall of Famer: "Age is a question of mind over matter. If you don't mind, it doesn't matter."

Publicly denying your actual age goes back to American comedian Jack Benny who found "nothing funny about 40." So he insisted he was 39 each and every year until he died at 80. He celebrated his 39th birthday 41 times. Had the Emile Ratelband law been in effect, Jack Benny could have also legally subtracted another 20 years off his age which means he would have been only 19 years of age when he was popping stool softeners from a Pez dispenser. No, sometimes even the law must implement a rapidly disappearing judgement called common sense. I mean if you really could turn back time wouldn't most reasonable people in today's world want to revert back to January 17, 2016 and watch the inauguration of President Hilary Clinton or even go back to the night of September 14, 1945 when Mary Anne Trump pushed her husband's hand away and said: "Not tonight Fred, I've got a headache."

Hughes Calling For Action On Eye Health And Vision Care

Algoma-Manitoulin-Kapuskasing MP Carol Hughes who has been promoting a Pan-Canadian Framework for Action on Eye Health and Vision Care adding healthy vision is something we shouldn't take for granted. Hughes had a meeting last year with the Canadian Optometrists Association and has also been delivering petitions in support of the idea. Hughes' motion calls on the government to work with the provinces, territories, Indigenous communities and governments, as well as not-for-profit eye health and vision care organizations towards the creation of the framework. She adds she would be happy if all MPs get behind the initiative and pass the motion so they can promote a policy direction that will ultimately help children.

"Currently, there are too many gaps and children are experiencing different levels of care," said Hughes. "Even something as simple as vision testing isn't done for all children, and that alone can leave some undiagnosed and struggling to keep up in school."

Last month, in her capacity as a Chair Occupant, Hughes hosted an Eye Read and Play event in cooperation with the CAO to help inform other MPs of the issue.

"It was a fun and educational event that brought children with differing vision conditions and MPs together," said Hughes. "Some of the children read books from Algoma-Manitoulin-Kapuskasing authors."

Integrity Commissioner's Report – Motions Deferred To New Council

Espanola's new council will be dealing with the Integrity Commissioner's Report.

Espanola council held a closed meeting on Monday, November 12th and decided to defer the motion in regards to imposing sanctions on four councillors to the next council. The Integrity Commissioner Shearer Parnega recommended four

a portion of their stipends for what she deemed abusive and intimidating behavior.

Following Monday's meeting, council met for the regular meeting on Tuesday, November 13th and voted to rescind the motion to adopt what they called 'Council's New Vision', a plan to improve relations between council and staff.

They also made a motion to defer the plan to the new council for review.

House Burns For Third Time In Espanola - Considered Suspicious

Photo: There has been a third fire at this Queensway Avenue home. A full investigation is underway by both the OPP and the Ontario Fire Marshall's office. Photos by Rosalind Russell

The Espanola Volunteer Firefighters were called out to a house fire on the Queensway Avenue in Espanola, which has been deemed suspicious.

The fire, which was called in around 12:20am Wednesday morning, November 7th at 41 Queensway Avenue was put out quickly, but since it is the third one at the site in the last few months., the Ontario Provincial Police Criminal Investigations Unit and the Ontario Fire Marshall's Office have been called in.

The first fire in September was deemed accidental, but police are still looking for information about the second blaze a few weeks later, which is believed to have been deliberately set.

This third fire is deemed suspicious.

The home is cordoned off while James Allen of the Ontario Fire Marshall's Office completes his forensic investigation.

Anyone with information is asked to call Espanola OPP or Crimestoppers.

Huron Central Railway Can Run Another Year

Railway. This will support the continued operations of the Huron Central Railway and allow it to operate in a safe manner for approximately one year.

The Province has indicated it is committed to keeping this critical piece of infrastructure and this funding will allow the time required to develop a comprehensive long-term plan to address the viability of this stretch of rail. Ross Romano the MPP for Sault Ste Marie said the government is committed to developing a long-term solution.

It's very refreshing to see a Provincial government that is taking the support of Northern Ontario economic interests very seriously. We sincerely thank the Province for their commitment to the economic interests of Northern Ontario.

A long-term solution is required to allow the railway to remain in business and this is very important for the companies that rely on the rail service. The loss of this service significantly affects the economics of the plants and certainty in rail service is very important in capital investment decisions." stated Bill Foster, Deputy Mayor.

Meanwhile, NDP MPP Michael Mantha says the investment in the Huron Central short line railway is welcome with government pledging six-figure amounts, but he emphasizes a long-term solution is needed to protect thousands of jobs, largely in the steel industry.

Every dollar for Huron Central is welcome, said Mantha, who is also the NDP's critic for Northern Development and Mines.

However, Mantha says the rail needs a stable solution that makes sure the Huron Central runs for the long-term.

The funding will allow Huron Central Railway to run between Sudbury and Sault Ste. Marie, moving products including steel and timber from Algoma, Eacom Timber and Domtar for at least a year.

An Espanola Youngster Has Her Back Brace

her scoliosis, an abnormal curvature of the spine at Toronto Sick Kids in late October.

Her mother, Jennifer, says the designers even printed a photo of her cat Mojo on the back and covered it with stars, at Emily's request.

Jennifer adds Emily has started on a schedule, wearing the brace around six hours a day and gradually working up to wearing it at least 22 hours a day.

With funding support from a Go Fund Me and the Espanola Royal Canadian Legion Branch #39, Emily is walking tall and Jennifer thanks everyone who helped her daughter with her medical needs.

Recipe

It's that time of year when it's nice to have a casserole to throw in the oven and this is a good one. It comes highly recommended. You can use any chicken pieces that you wish. Bone-in, skinless chicken is a good choice because the bone keeps the chicken moist.

Chicken Rosemary Casserole

- 2 ½ lbs of chicken
- 1 cup of long grain rice (not instant)
- 3 garlic cloves
- 2 ½ cups chicken broth
- ¼ cup of mayonnaise or miracle whip
- ¼ cup bread crumbs
- 1 tsp salt
- 1 tsp rosemary
- 2 tbsp lemon juice
- ½ cup parmesan cheese

Butter or spray a 9 x 13 pan. Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Pour rice into dish. Mince garlic over the rice. Pour in the chicken broth and stir in the rosemary, salt and lemon juice. Place the chicken on the rice. Spread the mayonnaise on top of the chicken pieces and sprinkle on the bread crumbs. Bake 1 ¼ hour uncovered. Sprinkle top with ½ cup of parmesan cheese.

THANK YOU

Thank You to Acute Care Staff Espanola

We can't thank you enough for the care and attention you gave our Mom, Betty Garceau, over the last 3 months.

This has been a very difficult time for our family, but it could have been much worse without your true dedication, caring and loving manner.

Special thanks to all nursing staff, especially Joanne P, Tracey N, and Cathy L, for your extra special attention. You strived to make an unfortunate situation, one that we could bear.

Thank you to all support staff. Everyone had a smile, stopped in for a chat...anything to help Mom make it through the day. Tammy S, Jane B. and Paula M., your compassion and caring helped soothe a lot of hurt.

It was a great comfort. Thank you.
