Espanola Police Arbitration Settlement

By Rosalind Russell - An arbitrator has settled the contract and severance packages for former members of the Espanola Police Service Association.

Espanola Police Service Board Chair, Mary-Lou Mick, says the arbitrator has ordered the board to increase the severance from four weeks to five weeks for every year of service by a former member of the service who have not been hired by the Ontario Provincial Police.

She adds the arbitrator also awarded a 1.7% increase in wages for 2017 and 2018 and letters of employment must be provided to all members.

Association president, Ed Stortz, says only four officers have been hired by the OPP.

He adds civilian employees are entitled to six weeks severance for each year of service.

He had no other comments to make in regards to the arbitration process.

OPP took over policing in Espanola on October 11th.

CLARIFICATION: CONTACT NUMBERS FOR ESPANOLA PUBLIC WORKS, ESPANOLA HYDRO AND OPP:

OPP or 911 should not be contacted for Espanola Public Works or Espanola Hydro for after hour emergencies.

The after-hours call out service for Espanola Public Works was contracted out to Northern Communications.

The number to call is 705-222-7932.

The emergency number to call for service for Espanola Hydro was also contracted out to Northern Communications.

OPP Meet With Espanola High School Students

The Espanola OPP introduced themselves to Espanola High School students.

Several OPP officers with the Espanola-Manitoulin detachment hosted a barbecue last Friday as a way of meeting with the students.

The Ontario Provincial Police officially took over policing in Espanola on Thursday, October 11th.

The BBQ was also sponsored by Giant Tiger, Winkles YIG, and Espanola Home Hardware.

They also had a bake sale with all proceeds going towards the United Way.

Espanola Therapeutic Park To Be Constructed In 2019

Espanola's Therapeutic Park for the long-term care wing of the Espanola Regional Hospital and Health Centre will be built in the Spring of 2019.

Foundation coordinator, Terri Noble, says they had a few setbacks over the summer due to wait times for an electrical engineer to provide electrical specs.

She adds they also needed engineering plans for the gazebos and other building structures.

All the drawings have now been submitted for a building permit and the plan is to line up the contractors and purchase supplies over the winter.

Noble adds construction will begin in early Spring 2019 and it will take four to six weeks to complete the project.

Visit our website to view the drawings featuring the Espanola Therapeutic Park, which will be constructed in the Spring of next year.

Ah Ha! It's Seniors On Weed We Gotta Worry About!

With marijuana now legal in Canada and most of us were keeping a watchful eye on teenage tokers, a bunch of aging stoners crashed the party by the back door and ate everything in the fridge! Yeah, even the stuff with 'best before' dates stamped in the 1990s!!!

Apparently, the young ones will not be increasing their "getting high" habits just because it's now legal. Quite the contrary. In Colorado, teenage consumption of marijuana actually decreased after it was legalized four years ago. If it's taboo, they want it. Legal, sorry, not interested. Old people like stuff legal.

No, it's women with blue hair and men with their trousers belted just under their chins that will be bogarting joints in this country in the hazy days to come.

According to the Canadian Science Policy Centre, the use of marijuana among people in Ontario over 50 years of age has nearly tripled in the last ten years and has risen a whopping fivefold since 1977. So, the marijuana market is not Mom and Dad who are too busy watching the kids who are too busy watching their various screens seven and eight hours a day.

So, it's Grandma and Grandpa who are past worrying about inhaling smoke and hell bent on reducing their aches and pains. Seniors were never the targeted market for marijuana, but in a poorly planned rollout of the lawful joint, they may have become the bullseye. And just as we found out when Trivial Pursuit was all the rage, the old folks know a whole lot more than we ever gave them credit for.

"So Gran, now that cannabis is legal, I thought maybe ..."

"Campuses? Campuses have always been legal. Though I don't know why, what with all that smoking dope and illicit fornication going on."

"Not campuses! Cannabis! Marijuana."

"Tijuana! Damn! One time! Just one time I do the limbo naked on the bar at the Dandy del Sur and nobody will let me forget about it."

"Gran, do you have your hearing aids in?"

"Of course I'm wearing my hearing aids. It's the damn batteries I can't find!"

"So Gran, I'm thinking you and I could share this joint and see how you feel about cannabis."

"Well, I was going to put on a pot of tea, but okay, let's spark it up!"

"Well, I know you never smoked cigarettes so this might be pretty harsh at first."

"No, never had a cigarette in my life, Dear. But, I have been having a couple of Montecristos after dinner ever since your grandfather died."

"Oh, okay. But just so you know, your appetite will likely increase and ... and so will your libido."

"Latino! I'll try one of them, too, if you

"No, libido. Your sex drive."

"Damn that busy body Mrs. Miller. I'm only going to say this once – the only thing Randy the Postie gives me is the mail. Okay?"

"Okay. Now at first you might get dizzy, so ..."

"Honey, holding my breath and standing up quickly so I almost pass out – that's the most fun I have these days. You gonna light that thing or what?"

"Okay, but if you have errands to run, you probably shouldn't drive after you smoke up."

"I know what you mean, Dear. If I have any more fender benders I'm going to have to get car insurance."

"Also, they say paranoia can be one of the side effects."

"Well, you know what they say – just because you're paranoid doesn't mean there really isn't somebody out there trying to getcha!"

"Just before we do this, maybe you want to put some music on?"

"American Beauty or Anthem of the Sun?"

"Good Lord! The Grateful Dead!?"

"Let me tell you, there was nothing grateful about Jerry Garcia. After all I did for that man!"

"You know Gran, I'm starting to think this might not be the first time you tried marijuana."

"Well Dear, this is a very special moment sharing an experience with my favourite granddaughter. And I assure you, it's my first doobie of the day."

"Okay, so here goes ... wait – Gran, do you have a pair of tweezers handy?"

"Tweezers are for amateurs, Dear. Here – use this roach clip and let's get this party started!"

Bells Will Toll In Espanola On November 11th

The ringing of the bells to mark the 100th anniversary of the end of the First World War will take place in Espanola.

An ecumenical service will be held at 7:00 pm followed by the ringing of the bells 100 times at the Anglican Church on Remembrance Day.

The Espanola Royal Canadian Legion Branch #39 is leading the local initiative.

On November 11th, at the going down of the sun, communities across Canada will emulate the moment in 1918 when church bells across Europe tolled as four years of war came to an end.

Still with the story, the Legion has also contacted all the schools for students to enter the annual poster and poetry contests.

Last year, 89 students from the local schools entered the contest with some entries going on to district and zone competitions.

This year is the 100th anniversary of the Signing of The Armistice that ended the First World War.

Ceremonies are all set for Legions in the North Shore corridor for Sunday, November 11th.

Meanwhile, the Espanola Sea Cadets and other volunteers joined members of the Royal Canadian Legion Branch #39 for the launch of the Poppy Campaign.

The Poppy Flag was officially raised at the municipal town office on Friday, October 26th.

Poppies will be on sale throughout the town with funds raised going to local veterans and their families and related programs.

LEST WE FORGET!

Election 2018

By Rosalind Russell - Women dominate across North Shore in elections

There are plenty of women voices on councils in Espanola and across the North Shore.

Jill Beer is Espanola's new mayor, joined by incumbents Heather Mallot, Ray Dufour, Bill Foster and Ken Duplessis. Also at the council table will be newcomers Sandra Hayden and Maureen Van Alstine.

Long-time Baldwin Township councillor, Tex MacDonald is out, losing to newcomer, Joanne Boucher, who came in with enough votes to be named deputy mayor working with acclaimed Mayor Vern Gorham.

David Fairbairn, Ray Maltais and Bert McDowell will round council. The Town of Spanish will also see a woman lead over the next four years.

Jocelyne Bishop took out incumbent Ted Clague.

She will be joined by four councilors, all women: new deputy mayor, Karen Von Pickartz, as well as Debra Joncas, Sandra Trudel and Mary-Louise Zarichney.

School board trustees elected in local area

Plenty of incumbents are returning to their respective school boards.

Manitoulin Island's newest trustee will be sworn into office with the Rainbow District School Board.

Margaret Stringer has been elected to represent Manitoulin Island, and Robert Clement was re-elected to another term to represent the Espanola and North Shore corridor.

Marie Murphy-Forin has been elected for another term with the Algoma School Board.

In the Huron Superior Catholic School Board, both incumbents, Lindsay Liske and Kathleen Rosilius were re-elected for another term.

Gabriel Tremblay will represent the Espanola and North Shore corridor communities on the Conseil scolaire catholique du Nouvel-Ontario.

Suzanne Nolan was acclaimed for the Conseil scolaire public du Grand Nord de l'Ontario.

HALLOWEEN SAFETY TIPS

Halloween safety: Tips for families

Halloween can be a fun and exciting time for kids. These safety tips for parents, children and homeowners will help keep everyone safe and happy this Halloween.

For parents:

Do not use masks. Masks make it hard for children to see what's around them, including cars. Try a hypoallergenic (less likely to cause an allergic reaction), non-toxic make-up kit instead.

Make or buy costumes in light-coloured material.

Place strips of reflective tape on the back and front of costumes, so that drivers can better see your child.

Costumes should fit properly to prevent trips and falls. Avoid items such as oversized shoes, high heels, long dresses and long capes.

Dress your child for the weather. Add layers if needed.

Put your child's name, address and phone number on his costume.

Children under 10 should be accompanied by an adult for trick or treating. By the age of 10, some children are ready to go trick-or-treating with a group of friends.

Keep in mind that gum and hard candy can pose a choking risk for young children. Remove make-up before bedtime to prevent possible skin and eye irritation.

If your child is going out without an adult:

Make sure your child is in a group of at least 3 people.

Give them a flashlight. A cell phone is also a good idea if you have one.

Discuss in advance the route they should follow. Ask them to call you if they plan to go on a street that isn't on the route.

Set a curfew (and make sure they have a watch with them).

Tell your children not to eat anything until they get home.

For children and youth:

Carry a white bag or pillowcase for your candy, and add some reflective tape.

Dress for the weather. Cold weather or water absorbent materials in the rain can be very uncomfortable.

Bring a cell phone, in case you need to make an emergency phone call.

Always travel in groups. Be sure there are at least 3 of you at all times.

Let your parents know where you're going to be at all times.

Don't visit houses that are not well lit. Never go inside a stranger's house.

Use the sidewalk whenever possible. If there's no sidewalk, walk on the side of the road facing traffic.

Don't criss-cross back and forth across the street. Work your way up one side of the street, and then start on the other. If you have any allergies, tell the person who is giving out the treats.

Don't eat any of your treats before you get home. Once home, ask your parents to look through your treats with you to make sure everything is okay.

For homeowners:

Turn on outdoor lights, and replace burnt-out bulbs.

Remove items from your yard or porch that might trip a child.

Sweep wet leaves from your steps and driveway.

Use alternative to candles in your pumpkins, such as a flashlight or a battery-operated candle.

Remember that some children have food allergies. Consider giving treats other than candy, such as stickers, erasers or a yo-yo.

Alternatives to traditional trick-or-treating

Local community centres sometimes offer Halloween night activities.

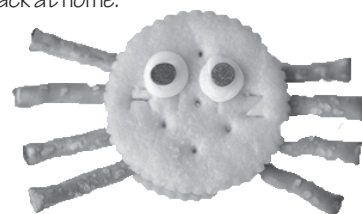

Local shopping centres often have trick-or-treat nights for young children in a more controlled environment.

Plan a Halloween night at home with themed games and movies. Invite friends

SPOOKY SNACK - EASY RITZ CRACKER SPIDERS

A fun Halloween snack that your kids will love in their lunches or as a snack at home.

- Ritz Crackers
- Pretzel Sticks
- Peanut Butter, Cheese Whiz, Cream Cheese (whichever your child prefers)
- Tiny tube of white icing
- Mini Chocolate Chips

Cut the pretzel sticks in half. Spread some peanut butter (or Cheese Whiz, cream cheese) onto the cracker. It needs to be thick enough to hold the legs in place, so be generous with it. Arrange 4 pretzel stick halves, on each side of the cracker, pushing them into the peanut butter to make the spiders legs. Spread a generous amount of peanut butter on the other cracker and place it over top. On the top of the cracker, use the tube of icing to make two dots and then gently push the pointy side of the mini chocolate chips into the icing to make the eyes.

FLUFFY PUMPKIN SLIME RECIPE FOR KIDS

- 1/2 Cup Elmer's White Glue
- Unscented Shaving Cream
- Orange Food Colouring
- Contact Saline Solution
- Baking Soda
- Mason Jar
- Black Construction Paper
- Scissors
- Pumpkin Scented Oil (optional)

Add 1/2 cup of Elmer's white school glue and 4 cups of shaving cream to a bowl. Mix well and slowly add in drops of orange food coloring, stirring well until you get the desired colour of orange you'd like. Optional: You can add in a few drops of pumpkin scented oil after you mix in the food coloring. Next stir in 1/4 tsp of baking soda. Then add contact solution about 1 Tablespoon at a time and mix. Keep adding a little more contact solution and mixing until your slime begins forming into a ball-like form as you mix. You'll notice this is when it starts to turn into slime and becomes less sticky. It will begin coming off the sides of your container and sticking together. If your slime is still sticky add some more saline solution by starting small and adding a little as you go and continue to knead it. The slime will take on a fluffy marshmallowy consistency.

When you're finished you'll want to store your slime in an air tight container. Or have the kids create their own jack-o-lantern jars by cutting out the faces from black construction paper and using some Elmer's glue to glue their faces to the mason jars. This is a fun family activity or perfect for Halloween parties.

MONSTER HAND CRAFT

- Green paper and construction paper
- Dried lentils
- Craft foam (meat trays, construction paper)
- Glue
- Paintbrushes (for gluing)

Trace upper arm and hand onto green paper, cut arm out and then glue onto a bigger piece of construction paper. Cut out fingernails from craft foam (or meat trays, construction paper). Glue the fingernails onto the monster hand. Then have the kids use a variety of dried lentils to decorate their monster's arms and hands with "warts".
