For the SMILE of Your Life

in 1990 from the University of Michigan (Detroit). So, when it comes to Sudbury Orthodontics taking care of your smile, you are in well trained hands. As part of his services, David also makes himself available for treatment for people in the North Shore corridor, Espanola and Manitoulin Island area, as well as Parry Sound. He provides a variety of orthodontic care including; Conventional Metal Braces made of a durable and dependable stainless steel; Clear Braces that are similar to metal braces, but the brackets are made of ceramic and the most popular; Invisalign, which is a completely discreet orthodontic treatment using clear, removable aligners to straighten a smile. Since his goal is to give a comfortable and convenient treatment for all his patients, he is proud to provide a number of efficient technological advances to assist in treatment as well. Just a sample of some of the new technology he offers includes AcceleDent, an orthodontic device that will allow for an accelerated treatment, and iTero, a scanner that creates digital images of a patient's mouth without having to resort to messy and uncomfortable putty. So, if you are not happy with your smile, give them a call. Your initial visit is free, and follow up care is not as expensive as you may think. Interest Free Payment plans are available.

Dr. D'Aloisio's Espanola office is located in the Cambrian College building upstairs at the intersection of Tudhope and Centre street. ## How Ontario Libraries Can Survive "Doug The Knife"

Today's local library hardly resembles yesterday's book-borrowing depot. The books are still there along with CDs, DVDs, computers with free Internet, newspapers and magazines, the copy machine and a slew of programs for kids and adults alike.

Constantly adjusting to the needs of the communities, some libraries offer the services of a dietician who promotes 'food literacy.' Some staff are trained for 'mental illness first aid.' In Thunder Bay they've established an Indigenous Knowledge Centre.

Many libraries have 'pop-up' libraries where they take their services to people who can't come to them. In Welland they have a lounge to showcase local musicians and in Port Colborne they purchased musical instruments for their family 'make music jams.' They also present seminars on housing and the homeless and last summer during the heat wave, they offered complimentary cold bottles of water.

Last fall I spoke at the Sheep River Library in rural Alberta where they had purchased an extensive selection of power tools for members who need them but can't afford them. In Espanola they've set up three "Free Little Libraries" offsite and they also offer library programs for new mothers and daycare.

Time after time libraries have risen to the challenge of changes and underfunding to become the social glue that helps hold the fabric of our cities and towns together. And therein lies the problem. Ontario libraries have become such selfless centres of humanitarianism, Premier Doug Ford "Our Great Disruptor" decided they needed to be knocked down a notch.

Ruthless and reckless, "Doug The Knife" has gone after families of autistic children, needy people approved for the Basic Income Project, Francophones, Indigenous, low-income college students, hot meals for kids, teachers, healthcare agencies, the environment and endangered species of animals. He even killed a program to plant 50 million trees. Who needs trees when the snowy owls are extinct?

Now he's going after our libraries. In fairness it was either that or put a head tax on the homeless and provide rubber crutches to seniors with mobility issues... for a fee, of course.

The 50% cut to Ontario Library Services funding means provincial public libraries will have to do away with the interlibrary loan and delivery programs as well as training for staff and volunteers. The 1.5 million the government will save is next to nothing, .01285% of the 11.7 billion deficit Ford is driven to eliminate.

When similar cuts were made in Britain, John Pateman now CEO of the library in Thunder Bay was there and witnessed the aftermath. As hundreds of libraries closed down and thousands of people put out of work, health and education plummeted in those towns as crime, drugs and teenage pregnancies increased.

It was left to Culture Minister Michael Tibollo to explain the hit on libraries: "We are keeping our promise to the people of Ontario ... so that we can protect what matters most to Ontarians." Yeah, Buck-a-Beer and bars that open at 9am!

First Tibollo would have to explain the concept of a library to our premier and then answer his immediate question with: "Yes, many of the books in a library do have pictures."

Hey, I exaggerate. Doug Ford would know what a library was because when he was growing up in Etobicoke, there was one right across the street from the pool hall.

It was only eight years ago that the councilman Doug Ford led the charge to cut funding to Toronto's 100 libraries enraging and engaging Margaret Atwood. Ford said he wouldn't know the world-famous author if he passed her on the street.

Sadly, the most powerful person in Canada's largest province was telling the truth. But if he ever met Hulk Hogan on the street, Doug Ford would likely give him a friendly wedgie and then beg for a cheek-to-cheek selfie. Here then is how libraries can recoup their funding losses and win over Doug Ford's approval.

- Effective immediately, all libraries will open at 9 am (not 10am) and the first ten members through the door will be treated to strawberry jello shooters at Happy Hour prices.

- All hand dryers in library washrooms will be replaced with slot machines and foot stools for the children.

- By Labour Day all current book delivery programs will be replaced by a rotating system of marijuana pop-up retail outlets. Smoking weed in library washrooms will be limited to those playing the slot machines.

- All libraries will now offer the "What Kid Doesn't Love a Pony?" program complete with off track betting and TV simulcast racing from some of North America's best tracks.

- During any and all summer heat waves free bottles of water will be replaced with cans of "Buck-a-Beer." Limit six per customer. No ID necessary and the pretzels are free.

- All literacy and reading programs will hereby be replaced by 30 Ball Bingo and cash-only Half & Half Draws.

- The banning of 'do good' presentations of current social problems will be offset by a rotating schedule of Ontario cabinet members giving library lectures like "Revenge As a Political Strategy," "Philistines Rock!", "Pimping Out A Camper Van" and "Lame, Really Lame License Plate Slogans."

- And finally, we anticipate the new programs will be so popular with members that all green space around Ontario libraries will be paved to provide parking for tailgate parties. All porta potties and puke basins will be coin-operated.

Needle Program In Sables-Spanish Rivers Township

If anyone finds used needles, they are asked to call municipal services in Sables-Spanish Rivers Township rather than handle the material on their own. Brady Ropp says the spring melt has revealed an increased number of needles leading to increased inspections of play spaces, arena grounds and other parks.

He adds if anyone comes across needles, they are asked to call the township, recreation or public works.

If someone has to dispose of a needle, do it safely and call the township for disposal.

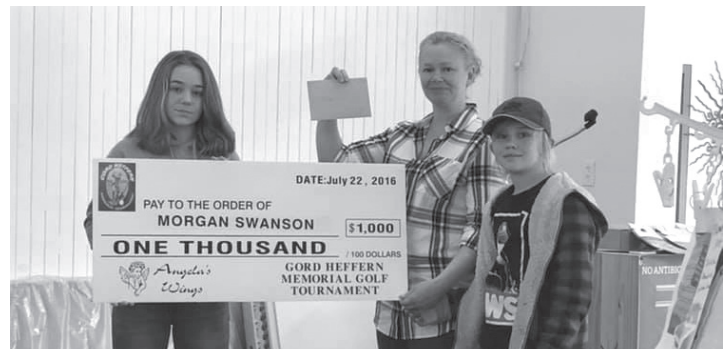

Contact the Parks & Recreation Department at 705-865-2519, Public Works at 705-865-2358 or the Municipal Office 705-865-2646 and someone will be sent to safely dispose of used drug paraphernalia.

Although they do not recommend it, they understand someone may have to dispose of a needle, so please review the video on how to do it safely. Don't throw paraphernalia out, but rather call for pick up and note the location, so the township can track potential trouble areas. Massey's Clean Sweep is on May 11. They will be watching for needles and avoiding them. Come out and help clean up Massey with vests, gloves and bags supplied. Also complimentary lunch after. Meet at St. Andrew's United Church at 9:00 am.

Bottle Drives Assists Beaver Lake Family

The Swanson family from the Worthington area will receive financial assistance, thanks to the generosity of the public and the assistance of the Espanola Beer Store and Beaver Lake Sports Club.

A bottle drive was held last month culminating in the final collection of over 1,800 bottles and cans. During the Spring Fair a total of $2,085 alone was brought in.

A donation of $1,000 from the Gord Heffern Golf Tournament was added to the kitty for the Swanson family, as well as supports from local groups.

Overall, fundraising has resulted in a grand total of $6,260 raised for the Swanson Family since February

No One Eats Alone - $1500
Gord Heffern Golf Tournament - $1000

Gwen Doyle- $500
Penage Road Community Center- $500

Beaver Lake Club - $500

Whitefish Lions - $500

Kinsmen Ladies - $175

Leah Lepage - $100

Vern Gorham - $100

Wendy McLean - $100

Ken Sainio - $50

Morgan Swanson has undergone a double lung transplant and is recovering in Toronto, so the funding will offset some of the costs not covered by any supporting agencies.

Strategic Plan Process Introduced To Espanola Council

Espanola council held a special meeting to focus on how to develop a Strategic Plan Tuesday, May 7th afternoon. The presentation was made by municipal advisor, Bryan Searle, focusing on developing a plan for future growth in Espanola guided by the Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing.

Searle explained a plan is crucial to develop a common vision.

He adds strategic planning is the process by which a corporation envisions its future, and develops strategies, goals, objectives and action plans to achieve that future. Espanola councillors will be working on a living document, the Strategic Plan to have it meet the needs of today's community.

Recipe

Baked tomatoes are a simple yet incredibly delicious side dish or appetizer for any occasion. We, including myself, forget that tomatoes can be cooked and served as a vegetable. Roasting tomatoes really brings out their sweetness and makes them extra juicy. The classic Italian combination of tomato, cheese, and basil is irresistible.

Baked Mozzarella and Parmesan Tomatoes

- 4 roma tomatoes sliced
- 1 cup shredded mozzarella cheese
- 1 cup shredded parmesan cheese
- 1/2 cup fresh basil chopped
- olive oil

Preheat oven to 400F. Place tomato slices on a parchment lined baking sheet. Top each tomato with a layer of parmesan and then a layer of mozzarella. Sprinkle the chopped basil on top of each tomato. Drizzle lightly with olive oil. Bake for 8-10 minutes or until cheese is melted and bubbly. Turn off oven and broil for 2-3 minutes to brown the cheese.

Welcome to Local Hippie's weekly tip for living a greener life! Each week we will provide you with a quick tip to help you reduce your carbon footprint and change the world.

This week's tip: Eat less meat! The United Nations recently released a report on climate change that suggested that one of the best ways for us to tackle oncoming environmental catastrophe was to consume less meat.

But why?

- > Meat farms contribute to a large amount of deforestation to make way for livestock.
- > Meat farms also produce massive amounts of methane emissions - we're talking as much greenhouse gases as all the world's cars, trucks, and airplanes combined!
- > Most meat purchased at the grocery store is wrapped in plastic and styrofoam packaging that are both non-recyclable. Yuck!
- > Aside from the environmental impacts, consuming less meat is also good for the health of humans (as you can see in Canada's new food guide) and of innocent animals!

An approachable way to make this change is by incorporating a meatless Monday into your weekly meal plan! You'll find that making your favourite recipes meat-free can be both fun AND delicious!
