Stuff The Bus Campaign
Nets Thousands Of Items

By Rosalind Russell - The annual Stuff the Bus Campaign hosted by Veteran's Transportation in Espanola is once again a resounding success.

The idea is to stuff a bus full of food items for the local food banks.

This year was another exceptional turn-out with various schools throughout the Espanola and Massey area collecting 3,154 items in total – enough to stuff two buses! The most items were collected by Ecole St Joseph with 1, 773 items, followed up

Legal Marijuana Creeps Into Professional Sports

BioSteel Sports Nutrition Inc. of Toronto just added a marijuana component to its highly successful line of sugar-free power drinks for professional athletes. Their website displays a Kawhi Leonard look-a-like chugging back a BioSteel pink drink so it must work. Oh wait. A Eugenie Bouchard look-a-like is also knocking one back so maybe it doesn't work.

Last week BioSteel sold a majority stake in its company to Canopy, a huge Canadian cannabis retailer in order to join the burgeoning market of CBD's. Cannabidoils are extracts from the cannabis plant that boast all sorts of health benefits from reduced anxiety and depression to overcoming movement disorders and managing pain.

"As soon as it's certified for sport, you're going to see it in every locker room" says company CEO John Celenza. Well you had to know that as soon as Granny took up break dancing after her first week on weed that Patriots quarterback Tom Brady would be ordering CBD's by the pallet.

It may not enhance the performance of pro athletes but it's sure going to change their interviews with the press, especially if the team doctor gets the CBD mix all wrong when he's filling the water bottles. Marijuana tends to unfocus the user, causing him to forget what he's expected to say and go with the unvarnished truth.

Reporter: "So Morgan, the Leafs just got their heads handed to them by a better team. Tampa Bay looked like they wanted it more than you guys."

Rielly: "No, actually they're a bunch of panty-waists with jealousy issues. Fact of the matter is we were chasing five pucks out there tonight. Plus how often does the other team's mascot score a goal!"

Reporter: "William, some fans think that $41.77 million six-year contract you got was way too much and it kinda went to your head."

Nylander: "That's a load of 'skit' as we say in Sweden. Here's a thousand bucks. Buy something nice for the wife and write something good about me."

Reporter: "That's an amazing wrist shot, Auston..."

Matthews: "I should be Captain. Tavares? What's that? Portuguese? This is hockey not bocce. I'm American. We're born leaders."

Reporter: "Like when you dropped your pants and mooned that female security guard at your condo in Arizona?"

Matthews: "You saw the security tape. Four guys and I was the only one who mooned her. I took the lead. I should be Captain."

Reporter: "Mitch, normally you smile a lot but tonight you were flat out laughing all over the ice."

Marnier: "Yeah, Muzzy can fart the first four notes of Hotel California. It's killer material, man."

Reporter: "So he did it during the national anthem?"

Marnier: "Yeah. Two weeks ago. That kind of humour stays with you."

Reporter: "Alexander, I was wondering about..."

Kerfoot: "Oh God, I hate it here. Surefoot.

Reporter: "John..."

Tavares: "Is Matthews still whining about not being named Captain? What a wuss! Did you see the video? He drops his pants to moon that security woman but he keeps his gotchie on!?! I know guys in Little Portugal who would beat you to a pulp for that!"

Reporter: "Freddie you just let in twelve goals setting a new team record."

Andersen: "Yeah, I'm in the zone, man. I'm seeing everything in slow motion."

Reporter: "Yeah, but Freddie, the pucks are coming at you in real time."

Andersen: "Well, it's a good thing McElhinney had my back out there."

Reporter: "Ah Freddie, McElhinney was traded two years ago."

Andersen: "Holy crap! I thought he just changed lockers!"

Reporter: "Mike, what did you think about Kapanen breaking his stick and then throwing it at Petry giving him the penalty shot and winning goal?"

Babcock: "Well first of all, have you ever really looked at that? That circular crack in the wall? Gawd, it looks like the shroud of Jesus Christ in Maple Leaf blue and white. Wow! I mean...what was the question?"

Reporter: "Mike, you just lost five in a row!"

Babcock: "What? We lost again! It didn't have anything to do with that bonehead Kapanen did it?"

Please, can we get weed out of the dressing room and into the hands of the fans who really do need it to get through a game.

Espanola Council Approves Website Redevelopment

It is going to take quite a bit of time, but the Town of Espanola will have a new website up and running in 2020 that will be more social media friendly and easier to navigate.

The present website does not support platforms such as Facebook and under new Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act legislation the town must upgrade the site by January 2021.

Council asked for requests for proposals and received 17 in all.

Councillor Maureen Vanalstine says she agrees with the recommendation to accept the submission by Sandbox Software Solutions of Guelph.

She says she is impressed with how they are gearing the revamp specific to the needs of Espanola.

The company is expected to take up to seven months to have the new site up and running.

Council accepted the bid with that work expected to begin as soon as possible.

Update: Huron Central Railway - Contingency Plans – Trucker Shortage

Two major, local companies that use the Huron Central Railway say there are major challenges if the rail line is shut down.

Both Domtar in Espanola and EACOM in Nairn Centre rely on the line between Sudbury and Sault Ste. Marie to move their raw materials and finished products and both are hoping the government can find a solution to help rehabilitate the line.

Both would also have no alternative but to look at trucks.

EACOM's Director of Public Affairs, Christine Leduc, says that presents another major challenge, a shortage of truckers.

She says the shortage is not just in Canada, but across North America.

Meanwhile, Bonnie Skene of Domtar says they are prepared to play a constructive role working with government in finding a long-term sustainable solution and also working with customers to ensure continued service.

Genesee & Wyoming Company Limited has indicated it needs $40-million over five years to sustain and rehabilitate the line or they will shut down in March 2020.

Donation Supports School's Breakfast Programs

USW Local 2251 in Sault Ste. Marie is providing funding for breakfast programs in schools in the Algoma and Sudbury districts.

Union President Michael Da Prat says he was proud to present a cheque for $6,500 to Huron-Superior Catholic District School Board director of education, Rose Burton Spohn on Tuesday, October 8th.

The money comes from union dues he says and will provide $750 each to all 18 English Catholic schools including those in Blind River, Elliot Lake, Massey and Espanola. Spohn adds the funds will go a long way to assist each school with their breakfast programs, which are available to all students at every school.

Students Take In Chutes Park

Students at École secondaire catholique Franco-Ouest had a full day at Chutes Provincial Park last week.

It was a day to celebrate all the new students and staff at the high school.

They took a walk on the trails followed by many activities organized by the student council. The goal of the activities was to work together as a team to complete the tasks.

Espanola School Hopes Halloween Will Be Boo-Untiful

An Espanola school is planning a food drive for Halloween night.

School spokesperson, Joanna Castonguay says Ecole Franco-Ouest will host its annual drive to help fill the shelves at local food banks.

She says the 'we scare hunger' event will see around 30 students going door-to-door collecting non-perishable food items, as well as monetary donations. Castonguay adds last year, they doubled the amount collected: 1,642 items and $240 for both Espanola's and Massey's food banks.

Recipe

During the summer I was given this recipe by one of our readers, who is also a friend of the family. She told me it's delicious and would be a great recipe for my column. It's a wonderful combination of tender shrimp and creamy beans tossed in a fresh salad with a lemony vinaigrette.

Shrimp, Celery and White Bean Salad

- 2 lb large peeled shrimp, not cooked
- 2 garlic cloves, finely chopped
- Salt and Pepper
- 5 tbsp extra-virgin olive oil, divided
- 1 (19oz) can white beans such as cannellini, rinsed and drained
- 3 celery ribs, thinly sliced diagonally
- 3 cups packed baby arugula or baby spinach
- 2 tbsp fresh lemon juice
- Parmesan cheese

Toss shrimp with the garlic, 1 tbsp oil, 1/2 tsp salt and 1/4 tsp pepper. Heat 2 tbsp of oil in a skillet over high heat and sauté shrimp, stirring occasionally, until cooked through, about 3 minutes. Meanwhile toss together the beans, celery, arugula, lemon juice, 1/4 tsp salt, 1/4 tsp pepper, and remaining 2tbsp of oil in a bowl. Add the shrimp with any juices and toss. Top with parmesan cheese.

Welcome to Local Hippie's weekly tip for living a greener life! Each week we will provide you with a quick tip to help you reduce your carbon footprint and change the world.

This week's tip is for Halloween: get the most out of your pumpkins!

Firstly, support your community farmers and reduce your carbon footprint by buying local pumpkins!

After carving your jack-o-lanterns, don't let all that organic goodness go to waste. Use your pumpkin guts to make some delicious homemade treats like cake, muffins, or even pumpkin bread! Not to mention the classic and always yummy - roasted pumpkin seeds.

Lastly, compost your pumpkin shell when Halloween is over! You can smash them directly into your veggie garden and let them break down over the winter. Just beware, you might see some pumpkin sprouts popping up next spring!

Have questions? Feel free to forward them to jaymie@localhippie.net or find me at the Espanola Farmers' Market. Have a happy hippie week!

OBITUARY

Boyne – Arthur Douglas of Espanola passed away at the Espanola Regional Hospital on October 13, 2019 at the age of 85. Dear son of the late Arthur & Mary (nee Blackwood) Boyne. Loving father of Janice Boyne-Ramsay (Husband Blair) of McKerrow, Jean Boyne-Dupras (husband Roger) of Garson, Ian Boyne (wife Ardith) of Copper Cliff and Derek Boyne (wife Sherry) of Collingwood. Cherished grandfather of Robin, Danah, Cameron, Keegan, Devon, Alex and Dyer. Dear brother of Helen of Scotland. Also, sadly missed by many friends & relatives. There will be cremation with a private graveside service celebrating Arthur's Life. If so desired, donations to the Espanola Regional Hospital or the Northern Cancer Foundation would be appreciated. Arrangements by BOURCIER FUNERAL HOME Ltd, Espanola.

Foucault – It is with profound and deep sadness that we announce the sudden passing of Robert (Bob) Paul Foucault at the age of 71 on Friday October 11, 2019 at the Espanola General Hospital. Loving oldest son of Rene and Marjorie (Clark) Foucault. Beloved husband for 36 years of Jeannie (Douglas). Dear brother of Helene Piche (Richard) of Parksville, B.C., Ann Kaukoraitis (Maurice) of Sault Ste. Marie, Morris Foucault (Norma) of North Bay, Don Foucault (Jackie) of Espanola and Connie Brisebois (Mark) of Sudbury. Missed brother in law of Bill Douglas (Melody), Ann Harris (Lawrence), Jackie Foucault (Don), Mary Ellen Patenaude predeceased (Rick), and Joe Douglas (predeceased) Bobby. Loved uncle Bob of Renee (Mitch), Ricky (Bob), Angela (Chris), Anthony (Meagyn), Michael (Ann), Melissa, Katherine, Nicholas (Genevieve), Katelyn (Riley), Mattea (Tony), Brett, Melody (Collin), Lori (Marc), Billy-Joe (Ryan), Teddy (Annette), Angela (Trevor), Ryan (Cindy), John (Sabrina), Shawna, Margaret, Catherine, Joel (Rhonda), Robert (Candice), Dale and predeceased by Joey, Corey, Kyle and William. Dearly missed by his Aunt Lillianne and Aunt Beth and many cousins, grandnieces and grandnephews. Bob loved the outdoors. Time spent with his grandfather on the trap line, snow machining, fishing and spending time with family and friends. Spending summers touring from west coast to east coast. His most favourite place to be especially after retirement was at camp on the Island. Sitting on the verandah in his rocker talking to everyone who walked by and getting his best sleep ever. He loved to talk about his grandfather's trap line, his time in the militia, his time in the search and rescue, his trips, work, and most of all his nieces and nephews. Even after his illnesses took their toll on him, he still loved to go to camp. Bob tried so hard to stay with us but his heart was tired and God called him home. There was a celebration of life for Bob at the Legion in Espanola on Wednesday, October 16, 2019 from 11 AM to 1 PM. Donations to North East Cancer Center or the Heart & Stroke Foundation would be greatly appreciated. The family wants to thank Dr. Warden, Kayla, Melody and all who came to help Bob. Your efforts and care went above and beyond. You will forever be in our hearts. Rest well my love until we meet again. Arrangements by BOURCIER FUNERAL HOME Ltd, Espanola.
