OPP Canines Take A 'Paws' Fighting Crime To Strike A Pose
 Calendar Proceeds Support Charities

(ORILLIA, ON) - The Ontario Provincial Police (OPP) canines put their best paws forward in the seventh annual OPP Canine Unit Calendar, with proceeds going to support charities. The OPP Canine Unit has been supporting frontline and specialized policing functions to keep Ontarians safe for more than 50 years. Handlers and their canines provide assistance with search and rescue, tracking wanted persons, detecting narcotics, and searching for firearms, explosives and physical evidence. The calendar features 24 photos, with canines from around the province showcasing their specialty, location and role. July's canine, six-year-old Kilo from London, is seen being lifted onto his handler's shoulder using the carry method - a move that allows canines to be comfortably carried over dangerous grounds. In March you will meet five-year-old Mane from Orillia, an explosives detection canine who uses his keen sense of smell to identify an explosive device under a vehicle during a training exercise. Finally, prepare to get on the water with August's model, seven-year-old Dance from Sault Ste. Marie. All proceeds from the 2023 OPP Canine Unit calendar go to the OPP Youth Foundation and the Friends of The OPP Museum. The charities thank everyone for their generosity as last year's calendar sales raised more than $42,900 for these worthy causes. Each calendar costs $15 and can be purchased at the OPP Off Duty Shopp at oppshop.on.ca. Learn more about the OPP Canine Unit by watching the recent live chat featuring a canine trainer and canine demonstration on Twitter or Facebook. Kilo, Mane and Dance's calendar photos are attached to this media release. ABOUT THE CHARITIES The OPP Youth Foundation provides funds to disadvantaged youth throughout the province of Ontario. The Friends of The OPP Museum is a volunteer-based charitable organization that supports, promotes and assists in the preservation of the history of the OPP. For more information, visit oppyouthfoundation.ca and oppmuseumfriends.ca.

Smile Cookie Cheque Presentation

By Grant Lewis - A huge shout out to the management and staff at Tim Horton's in Espanola and McKerrow for the hard work in making this year's Smile Cookie campaign such a success. Over fifty volunteer aspiring "Rembrandts" made the campaign a true community event. The Espanola Helping Hand Food Bank is truly grateful!!

Like most Food Banks in the area, we are noticing a rising number of clients in need of a "Helping Hand". If you have the time and wish to volunteer please phone 705-583-5588 and leave a message. Espanola continues to be a small town but with a big heart.

Pond Hockey

By Grant Lewis - Ah yes, Stompin' Tom would approve? Doesn't get much better than getting 30 kids together on a Sunday afternoon playing hockey for fun. This is what Pond Hockey in Espanola is all about. About 10 years ago, kids from 4 to 14 years old were encouraged to come out and play hockey at the arena, with most equipment supplied. Parents must show up with their kids to help out wherever possible. Basic skills are taught but it is not a skating school. Those players registered in minor hockey are not eligible for this program. There are no formal teams, no roughing, and goalies are optional! Sessions are on Sundays from 4:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. and run from October to March Break. The Espanola Lions club is proud to help out with ice time for these enthusiastic kids with hopes to join minor hockey, and to Paul Kallioinen and his team of dedicated volunteers and parents. Enjoy your wrap up banquet everyone!!!

Training Teachers To Support Students In Pursuing A Career In A Skilled Trade

On Thursday, October 27, some 30 grade 7 and 8 and cooperative education teachers, as well as guidance counselors from various Conseil scolaire catholique Nouvelon schools met at the Sudbury campus of Collège Boréal to take part in a training session entitled "A Choice to Learn about Skilled Trades."

During this session, offered jointly by Collège Boréal and CSC Nouvelon, participants were informed about future employment opportunities, transferable skills, multiple post-secondary pathways and specialized high school programs (SHSM, COOP/OYAP, DCP and APE). Following a guided tour of Collège Boréal workshops, participants will live an experiential learning activity in two trades of their choice, either in electricity, carpentry, architecture or plumbing. Led by professors from these programs, these interactive workshops allowed participants to learn about the value of skilled trades. Subsequently, information sessions on the apprenticeship path and the college path as options for a career in the skilled trades will be led by experts at Collège Boréal.

Through this joint activity, Collège Boréal and CSC Nouvelon wish to inform students of the importance of skilled trades and career choices as well as possible post-secondary training options to access them.

"The Conseil scolaire catholique Nouvelon seeks to meet the needs of the labour market as it deals with labour shortage in several skilled trades. Our students are encouraged to consider careers that are in high demand and supported them in this professional transition through the specialized programs such as cooperative education, the Ontario Youth Apprenticeship Program, the Major High Skills Major and Dual Credit courses. We want to support our students by offering them the knowledge, experience and required transferable skills to guide them towards a great future career. »

Alain Boucher – learning advisor for the intermediate and upper cycles (cooperative education component, OYAP, SHM) at the Conseil scolaire catholique Nouvelon

"There is a labour shortage in almost every field, but especially in the skilled trades. Collège Boréal, with its educational and industrial partners, seeks to respond to this shortage by ensuring that young people know the value of skilled trades as well as the possible paths to these, including apprenticeship and post-secondary programs. We offer training in more than 20 trades so your trade, we have it! »

Denis Brouillette, Head – Apprenticeship Programs, Collège Boréal
