Playground Initiative Receives Support From Espanola Lions

By Rosalind Russell - A group of parents are grateful for a donation by an Espanola club which will help them buy playground equipment for a new school. Ecole la Renaissance and Sacred Heart opened recently, but playground equipment is not part of the funding by the province, so parents created the Playground Advisory Group led by President Alannah Pelletier. She says they were pleased to accept a $1,000 donation from Espanola Lions Club President Dennis Shepitka. The group is trying to raise $60,000 through a sponsorship program. She says all donations will be acknowledged and is also encouraging the public to look at purchasing a tree for the school. She adds donations can be made directly through the school office with all donations over $20 receiving a tax receipt.

Photos: Boogie Mountain's GM was given kudos for the work done to provide good, clean, safe outdoor play for children. Photos provided by Tom Hutchinson.

By Rosalind Russell - A local children's organization has recognized a long-time Olympic coach for his work with the younger generation.

Espanola's Our Children Our Future spokesperson Lynne Ethier says Tom Hutchinson of Boogie Mountain has been recognized as a Champion for Children for the outstanding dedication and commitment to Espanola.

Hutchinson says he loves working with kids and is thankful for the recognition.

A high-performance trained coach with Canada Snowboard as well as a former Olympic coach, he and his wife brought his skills to Espanola to share

They constructed an interactive play facility on site for children and organizations to access for free outdoor play.

He acknowledges executive members: Tom Kelly president, Derek Bergeron, Warren Tilston were the VPs, Mike McDonald the treasurer, and Kyle Gagne the secretary and Dan Puddester for his chainsaw skills.
