Ontario's Liberals Leader Hopeful Visits Espanola

Photo - Ontario Liberal Leader hopeful Nathaniel Erskine-Smith was in Espanola to meet the Espanola public and family supporters. The Ontario Liberals will select their new leader December 2nd so he has hit the huskings to meet the wider Ontario public. Photo provided by Ontario Liberal Party.

Algoma Manitoulin Riding President Tim Vine introduced Nathaniel Erskine-Smith to the Espanola public at a breakfast town hall held at the Espanola Legion. Erskine-Smith is running for the Provincial Liberal Leader's position.

He has held the federal riding of Beaches-East York since 2015 sharing some of his working career as a lawyer with the attendees.

He says everyone must stand for core values, such as health care, addiction, mental health, and affordable housing.

When asked what a renewal of the Liberal Party looks like, Erskine-Smith said that we need to get the younger generation active in politics. He says back in 2015 he started out with a few friends, and it slowly grew to a group of 25 committed volunteers, and he wants to continue that initiative as part of a Grass Roots Volunteer Training Program.

He adds party members need to be "knocking on doors", to find out what people are concerned about and not assume we know what they want.

Erskine-Smith stated that most people are concerned with environmental governance, economic development, downloading services to the municipalities and affordable housing.

He adds the party must build trust with constituents by letting their actions speak louder than words.

The party's executive has set November 25th and 26th for members to cast their ranked ballots in their constituencies. The winner will be announced on December 2nd.

Steven Del Duca stepped down as leader following his failure to win a seat in the June 2022 provincial election.

Ducks Unlimited NSSR 24th Annual Duck Race Underway

By Rock Taylor – Actually, there is a limit of 5000 well trained ducks for this year's 24th Annual Duck Race in support of North Shore Search and Rescue. The event, as always, is on July 1st but the selling of ducks or rather tickets for ducks will begin May 1st. As in previous years the tickets will cost $5 for a single ticket or a flock of 5 ducks for $20. Such a bargain! You will be able to find members of the Lions Club or NSSAR or others selling at the Royal Bank, Giant Tiger, Freshco, Home Hardware, Canadian Tire or Tanner's. Pet Value will be selling again this year also. We will be moving around like a veritable flock of ducks so don't miss your chance to buy when you see us. There are over 50 prizes this year, approaching $7000 in total prize value. For information on the amazing scope of the work done by NSSAR visit their website at www.northshoresearchandrescue.ca or visit them on Facebook. Once you have read their story you will want to buy ducks in support!

Espanola Lions Donate To Espanola Curling Club

By Grant Lewis – From October till March, there are great things going on at the Curling Club in town. Rocks are banging, brooms are sweeping, people are moving, and good times are happening. Curling is often thought as an older persons' game.... right?WRONG!!! Once a week, after school, you can see young curlers from 6 yrs. old to 14 delivering rocks, sweeping rocks, using the correct turns, aiming for the broom; but, most importantly having a good time. All these things are possible thanks to the effort, time and expertise of coaches J.P. Lamothe, Alan Emiry, Deb Berry and Deb Lambert (known as the Two Debs). Some kids use the Junior rocks but otherwise all the rules of curling are followed. During the season, weather permitting, there are bonspiels with the Island. The season wrap up is a fun filled afternoon with parents and family, with lots of POPCORN, and some skating and eating, at the annual Popcorn Spiel. The Espanola Lions is always pleased to support Junior Curling in town. On hand from the Curling Club is J.P. Lamothe to receive a cheque for $3,400 from Lion member Randy Edwards. By Grant Lewis – “Yes Virginia, there is a Santa Claus”, and playing Lions Catch the Ace does pay off! Just ask these delighted members of the Hospital Auxiliary! The proceeds from their hard work selling Catch the Ace tickets paid off to the tune of over three thousand dollars. The Auxiliary, over the years has raised tens of thousands, if not hundreds of thousands of dollars all in support of our local hospital. You can buy your “Ace” tickets at the auxiliary in the hospital while you browse through the locally hand made gifts.

CSC Nouvelon Psychologist Presented With 2023 Literacy Leader Award

A psychologist who works with the Conseil scolaire catholique Nouvelon has been presented with a literacy award for her work.

Education director Paul Henry says on April 14th, as part of its conference, the International Dyslexia Association of Ontario paid tribute to Alex-Andrée Madore by presenting her with the 2023 Literacy Leader Award.

He says the award recognizes her engagement in promoting awareness and understanding of structured literacy programming while helping students with learning disabilities through the science of reading.

He adds not only does she use her website to help her students, Madore also created a YouTube channel offering science-based education for students and their families.

More information is available on her website: www.childpsychologynorth.com YouTube channel (youtube.com/@alexpsyscolaire) for parents and teachers where she posts short informative videos on how to implement science-based education in everyday life.
