Two Espanola Longtime Hockey Enthusiasts Getting National Recognition

By Rosalind Russell - You know you love the game of hockey when you are still playing at 80.

Espanola's Ronald Kelly is turning 81 next month, has been playing hockey since he was a small boy, and he still takes to the ice every hockey season, admittedly, with the old-timer's league. He is often joined by 70-year-old Paul Kallioinen who has spent most of his life building and working with hockey teams across Northern Ontario.

By Rosalind Russell - A small group of dedicated volunteers and supporters gathered in Espanola to celebrate a notable peer. Manitoulin Northshore members of the Victims Crisis Assistance and Referral Services met at the Red McCarthy Pavilion to honour Joe Charette of Espanola, this year's Volunteer of the Year. Executive Director Amy Collins says Charette has been volunteering with the organization for 16 years providing emotional support and guidance to those who have experienced victimization. She adds he attends all the meetings, keeps up with all the training and answers calls that come at any time of the day. Collins adds he also manages to find time to volunteer with the Lions, Meals on Wheels and other organizations. Charette was then presented with a plaque at the barbecue held in his honour.

Two Espanola Longtime Hockey Enthusiasts Getting National Recognition

Their dedication to the sport will be acknowledged in a special ceremony on August 24th in Huntsville as inductees to the 80+ Hockey Hall of Fame, two of 400 who have been recognized officially across the country so far.

The two will also take part in an Induction Game against other inductees at the Canada Summit Centre in Huntsville, an Olympic size ice surface facility.

The two oldest skaters will be assigned to take the face-off with the game consisting of two 20-minute periods.

While Ron will take to the ice, Paul will be coaching from the sidelines.

Following the game, they will attend the official induction dinner.

Not only will the two receive a special medal and pin to mark the occasion, but they will also receive personalized hockey jerseys and socks, team photo and their own official hockey card.

They will receive several cards to give out to friends and family.

A plaque with the names of all the players and builders will be produced and each inductee will have the opportunity to have it in their possession for a period of time, just like they do with the Stanley Cup.

Anyone can nominate a man or woman still playing hockey at 80+ years of age, by contacting HockeyHallofFame80plus@gmail.com for nomination information and forms.

Campers Shave Their Heads In Support Of One Of Their Families

By Rosalind Russell - Blackbear Camp hosted their usual karaoke night, but this one was different as it provided support to one of their youngest campers who is fighting cancer.

Camp owner Karen Nicholls Ellin says camper Mona Morris had organized a fundraiser in support of 21-year-old Valerie Crispin who is fighting Stage Four Hodgkins Lymphoma.

She says Valerie's parents, Luc and Julie from Val Caron, have been long-time seasonal campers and Morris wanted to help them out raising $1,200.

Ellin says during karaoke, another camper stepped up to have his head shaved and that led to several campers doing the same with the group raising $3,340 for Valerie.

She adds Valerie was gracious in her thanks for their support adding she is now undertaking chemotherapy.

Toulouse Re-Elected As Chief Of Sagamok-Anishinawbek First Nation

By Rosalind Russell - Angus Toulouse has won another term as the chief of Sagamok-Anishinawbek First Nation. The election held on Saturday, August 10th, saw Toulouse get 328 of the 790 votes cast. Four other candidates had run for the Gimaa position, and 58 candidates ran for the 12 positions on council.

Under changes to their elections passed in 2023, Chief and Council will now serve a four-year term rather than the two-year term as in the past.

Toulouse brings several years of experience to the position having also served a past term as regional chief and pro-active on many councils including as chair of the North Shore Tribal Council.

OBITUARY

Marcoux, Evelyne Lea - Dec. 26, 1932 – Aug. 4, 2024. Born in Blind River, on December 26, 1932, Evelyne Lea was one of 9 children of Germaine Patry and Samuel Nicholas. The family moved often, residing at various towns in Ontario as her father worked for the railroad. She married Harvey Marcoux (predeceased 2022) in 1954. As a stay at home mom, she will be greatly missed, but not forgotten, by her daughters Debra Marcoux (Kevin Haegeman), Linda Marcoux-Gunter (Brent) and grandchildren Echo, Isis and Gabriel. Residing in Espanola, she enjoyed camping and fishing, loving the outdoors. Sewing was another of her passions, creating beautiful quilts and adding her own touch to home decor. Eve's sense of humor, selflessness and kind heart will be remembered by all those who knew her. So thankful for her thoughtful and generous relatives, friends and super neighbors, she happily returned their kindness with her talent for baked goodies. She always left us with a warm feeling in our hearts because of her quirky outlook. Passing leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal. Rem, I miss you already. As per her request, there will be no service or mass. Arrangements by BOURCIER FUNERAL HOME, Ltd., Espanola.
