Honour Procession Held In Memory Of Wayne Ashton

Photos - An Honour procession marking the passing of Wayne Ashton and acknowledging his decades of service as a volunteer firefighter and committed member of the wider community was held yesterday, Thursday, January 25th. Photos by Rosalind Russell

By Rosalind Russell - Dozens of bystanders and well over 100 people representing several agencies took part in a procession in honour of the late Wayne Ashton of Espanola.

The full contingent of the Espanola Volunteer Firefighters was joined by several other fire departments from throughout the region, paramedics and other emergency staff from Manitoulin Island and the North Shore Corridor and local leaders to honour the memory of one of Canada's longest serving firefighters.

Manitoulin OPP led the way for a flag honour guard from the Sudbury Fire Department, and a piper that also took part in the solemn occasion.

Ashton had served as a local firefighter for 50 years retiring as Assistant Chief in 2023. The procession began at the fire hall and made its way to the Espanola Royal Canadian Legion where a Celebration of Life followed. Ashton was 77.

Sharing Her Leadership As Prime Minister Of ÉSC La Renaissance

Since the start of the school year in September, Ali Laginski has held the position of Prime Minister of École secondaire catholique La Renaissance (Espanola). In addition, this grade 12 student takes pride in representing the interests of her peers as a member of the Conseil scolaire catholique Nouvelon's Student Senate. This political committee, which serves as a forum for the Prime Ministers of CSC Nouvelon's nine secondary schools, provides a space for exchanges and engaging students in their success as part of efforts to promote French-language Catholic education.

"I am proud to be part of the Student Senate because it is an excellent opportunity to showcase my strengths and leadership abilities. I have the privilege of interacting with students not only from École secondaire catholique La Renaissance but also from other schools," explained Ali Laginski.

"It allows me to listen and learn new ideas, especially about how we can improve the future as students. We are encouraged to be leaders not only for the students around us but also for ourselves. Being a member of the Student Senate will always be a source of pride for me."

Two Manitoulin Island Musical Events Cancelled Following Health Scare

Photo - Haywire was just one of dozens of acts to take part in Manitoulin Island festivals, which are being closed down due to health issues. Photo Rockin the Rock Facebook site.

Two musical festivals on Manitoulin Island are coming to an end following a health scare.

Organizers Craig and KT Timmerman have announced their Rockin' The Rock and Manitoulin Country Fest are being shut down.

KT says a significant health scare was the catalyst behind the decision, so anyone who has bought tickets for this year's events will have their money returned.

She adds they were unable to find anyone to take over the events.

The events had attracted headliners in both genres throughout the years since the inception back in 2007.

Ticket refunds can be obtained directly through Eventbrite at eventbrite.ca or click through the website at www.frec.me.

For refunds on camping, email info@manitoulincountryfest.com by June 1, 2024.

Refunds for camping will be processed by etransfer directly.

The organizers request patience as they anticipate it will be busy processing the various refunds.

Ontario Investing $25,000 For Espanola's Age-Friendly Community Action Plan

The Ontario government is investing $25,000 in Espanola for an Inclusive Community Grant to develop an Age-Friendly Community Action Plan.

Seniors and Accessibility Minister, Raymond Cho says the plan will help to identify changes and upgrades that can be made to build a more accessible community.

Espanola Mayor Douglas Gervais says the town is a true gem of Northeastern Ontario, providing the ideal rural lifestyle while featuring the full range of services that seniors and young families rely on.

He adds the town is excited to be creating a plan that will assist in refining the approach to making Espanola an ideal retirement destination.

Elliot Lake Man Fundraising For Snowarama Third Year In A Row – Hopes To Top Last Year's Record

Photo - It is the 50th anniversary of Snowarama and organizers are hoping enthusiastic participants like Leo Daviau will be successful in raising pledges for this year's event. Last year's participants, seen here, broke records, raising nearly $20,000. Photo by Rosalind Russell

Last year, an Elliot Lake man raised just over $10,000, the highest single amount ever raised for Easter Seals Snowarama in 49 years.

This year, Leo Daviau hopes to beat that record in his third year of supporting the Espanola/North Shore Snowarama, which will be held Sunday, February 9th.

He says it is all about the children with physical challenges who need equipment to make their life easier.

Daviau adds he is especially pleased to see the money stay in the local area to help local children and families in the North Shore Corridor.

Northern Ontario Curling Champions Crowned

Manitoulin Island's curling community had the distinct honour of seeing Northern Ontario champions crowned last weekend. Following several days of play, The McCarville Rink from Thunder Bay are Scotties Tournament of Hearts bound after winning the Northern Ontario Women's Curling Championships.

Krista McCarville's rink won the provincials for a 10th time, qualifying for the Scotties

Tournament of Hearts nationals in Calgary.

The Bonot Rink out of Fort Williams Curling Club led by the legendary curler and coach Al Hackner are the men's winners this year.

Ironically, the Bonot team also won the newly named Al Hackner Trophy.

That team will now go on to The Brier.
