Mamas Lost? Chapter One

Have you ever been lost? I mean totally, completely, have no idea where you are—lost! Well, I have—in fact I seem to have a propensity for getting lost. Not a tendency that I'm particularly proud of, but one that I have, just the same. I just don't seem to have that directional gene that my husband has—I have the lost gene. Rats! Now, you would think that someone with this characteristic would just know better than to step into the wild on her own, but unfortunately that has not always been the case. I have tramped and paddled my way into all sorts of trouble over the years. In many ways it's surprising that I have lived to tell this tale, but here I am—so here's the first tale. In this first adventure, I was not alone, but dragged a friend along, as well. So, jump into your kayaks and follow along as I share the tale of Mamas Lost?

It was a sunny, summer day and we two grandmas (also known as the Mamas), started out for what should have been a lovely afternoon kayak to Aird Island, in Lake Huron.

At that time, my husband and I lived on a farm in Massey on the shores of the sparkling Spanish River. Two of our grandchildren lived in Gravenhurst. This great adventure began with plans to scoop up our grandchildren for a weekend camping trip.

Wanda was the other Mama and she wanted to join our adventure, which really helped the logistics of this adventure. She lived in Niagara Falls, and was able to pick the grandkids up in Gravenhurst on her way north. This vacation was going to be such fun and would be good for everyone. The parents would have a kid-free weekend and the grandparents would have a chance to get to know their grandkids, without parental interference. Little did we know what "fun" it would turn out to be.

By Rosalind Russell - The Massey Agricultural Society has crowned Morgan Wagler as Fair Ambassador 2025-26.

She was crowned Friday night at the opening of the 118th Massey Fair and is looking forward to representing the region at an all-expenses-paid national agricultural competition in Toronto later in the year.

Born and raised in Massey, she developed a strong passion for both dairy cows and horses through 4-H and working on farms.

Wagler continues to grow that passion while studying for her Bachelor of Science in Agriculture at the University of Guelph.

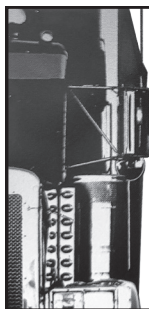

Intending to become a large animal veterinarian, Wagler is excited to be part of this year's Ambassador Program and to represent her community.

Thank you to the judging panel, Mike Merciece, Jayson Stewart, Sherry Brandow and Bonnie Patrie, and to the organizer, Montana Brandow and her committee of volunteers.

The project is being funded through Indigenous Services Canada and is expected to open in January of 2027.

Thriller Set In Espanola And Spanish

By Rosalind Russell -A local writer has a new thriller out on the shelves, which is set in the local North Shore Corridor.

Joshua Marshall says he has self-published his debut novel, Spanish River: The River of Dark Secrets, a thriller set right in our backyard.

He says the story unfolds in the towns of Spanish and Espanola, on the backroads of Lee Valley, and along the river itself, bringing a dark, fictional mystery to a landscape locals will recognize.

Marshall adds it follows a young protagonist who moves to the area and is quickly enveloped in a world of generational trauma, small-town secrets, and the harsh realities of life in the north.

Growing up in Elliot Lake, Marshall is thrilled see his debut effort building local buzz with over 60 copies already sold.

Anyone wishing to order a copy, can visit the link: <https://www.amazon.ca/dp/B0F67HX6C8>

A Trilingual Version Of Our National Anthem

By Rosalind Russell - A local film/music producer has assisted a First Nation songstress in professionally producing a trilingual version of our national anthem.

Jayson Stewart, who is also a teacher at Espanola High School, has assisted Whitefish River First Nation member and singer, Mary Bryton Nahwegahbow, on the recorded trilingual version of O Canada, sung in Anishinaabemowin, English and French.

She says she auditioned for the Little Native Hockey League back in 2017 and changed up the lyrics at that time to compete, progressing from there to sing her version at the 2017 North American Indigenous Games, and for national leagues including the Blue Jays and the Senators, conferences and other gatherings.

She also sang it at the Canadian governments' cabinet swearing-in ceremony at Rideau Hall in Ottawa this year, which garnered her national attention.

Stewart says the first verse is English, second French and the third in Anishinaabemowin. He says copies of it will be made available to all schools and any other organizations that reaches out for a copy. <https://lapsinjudgementstudios.com/mary-bryton-nahwegahbow>

It is also now downloadable on every streaming service, including Spotify, Amazon, music, iTunes, etc.
